River and Lake Notes. -The Str. Stranger is engaged towing wood from McGill's landing, Scugog lake, to Port Perry. -The hurricane deck of the Str. Mary-

Ellen, plying on Stoney Lake, was blown off on Monday last by the high wind. The Str. Alice E hel, has been thoroughly refitted. Messrs. Knowlson & Crandell, the owners, say the contracts already made ensure a very busy season.
Capt. Edward Smith is in command, and the engineer is Robt. Herriman.

The Greyhound, Mr. Thos. Sadler's trim and fast little steamer, will again be placed on the route between Lindsay, Sturgeon Point and Fenelon Falls, and will be greatly improved during the next two weeks so as to afford patrons even better satisfaction than last season. -A boatman who recently visited Bobcaygeon states that the new Esturion will beyond doubt be the finest craft ever seen on these waters, but hints that the draught will be considerably greater than was expected owing to the very heavy timber and planking used. It is thought she will out on their rounds this week, and next | be ready for service about the last of May. -Capt. Joe Parkin's staunch little steamer, the Marie-Louise, was towing on Saturday, and tied up at the Point in the evening. A heavy gale sprang up during the night, and four lines had to be carried ashore to hold the craft. The crew were unable to obtain any sleep owing to the noise, and when daylight came they head-ed the boat for Lindsay.

-The Crandella will be considerab'y improved this season. Capt. Crandell has just completed the work of reducing the dip of the wheels some five inches, which is expected to take considerable strain off the engine and add to the speed. The cabin is now being decorated, and later on the boat will be painted throughout. Mr. Fred Taylor will again have charge of the -The Waterwitch, owned by Mr. John Maunder, left port on Friday last fer Caesarea to bring down a tow of logs for the Sadler, Dundas & Fiavelle Milling Co.

On the way down on Saturday evening the heavy wind drifted her into the bogs, where a blade was broken off the propeller. The crew managed to free the craft at daylight Sunday morning, and arrived here about noon, tired and hungry. Wm. Barke is captain this season, Mark Burke being engineer.
