BOLSOVER. REVIVAL .- It is with extreme pleasure They had a crowded house here every [Correspondence of THY PGST.] we relate to the public the great revival in | night. The company has some of the best spirituality which God, through the in- talent that can be procured in America. strumentality of His devoted servant, the | When Mr. Jack Campbell appeared on the Rev. Mr. Mitchell, M.A., of Thorold, Ont., stage in his different characters of Irish, has blessed our people of Balsover. Dur- Dutch and darkey comedian, he was greeting the past two weeks the reverend ed with rounds of applause, and during gentleman conducted those meetings with his recitals and songs he kept the audience such zeal and Christ-like labor that resultthirty-five to forty people professed anxiety | with his beautiful vocal music. He is a for their never-dying soul, and true to the promise of God, "Those who seek Me early and best songs. The professor's genial shall find Me," many went from the meetings with the blessed assurance of having their souls "washed in the blood of the Lamb." To all inquiring souls the Rev. Mr. Mitchell strove to show them by God's word the only road to Christ. Many of the converts were enrolled in the church mem-bership, determined by the aid of God's spirit to "fight the good fight of faith" to the end, when the great reward of such a life will enlist them among the chosen few in God's kingdom. The Rev. Mr. Mitchell is now conducting meetings in Montreal, and we hope with as good results, as a man devoted so intently to God is sure to be blessed by seeing the returns of his labors in God's service, and shall come rejoicing, bringing in the sheaves. We all wish him success, first giving the glory to God, and second to His servant, the Rev. Mr. Mitchell, who, when his earthly labors are ended, will undoubtedly be greeted with "Well done, thou good and faithful TRADE .- McLean & Hopkins have open

PARTY.-Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Yerex, of the mammoth store, gave a party for our young folk on Thursday evening last. The night was very warm and bright, and A very social evening was spent in concourse, fips. crokinole, bagatelle, charades, etc. etc. The sumptuous tea provided was well arranged. Duplicate tickets were issued, and it was amusing to hear the young gentlemen making it quiries, (and too often useless ones) as to the "number" of the ladies' tickets. Jacob could not find his Rachael so easily as usual. Then another interesting device was in vogue, viz. the compelling of couples to talk five minutes at the table before eating. Slips of paper were furnished, on which was written three subjects: (1) The woman of the day. (2) The present government. (3) Courtship and marriage. It is needless to say, Mr. Editor, that the last named topic was universally discussed, except by the bashful ones. Many contracts were made (of which we doubt the sincerity) and much merriment ensued. The mind having been satisfied, the guests satisted the desires of the physical man in a royal manner. Preceding the evening party there was a quilting bee at which 37 ladies' attended. Everybody seemed well n content, and expressions of joy and satisfaction and enjoyment were heard on all sides. The young people sincerely hope "still there's more to follow." We second

Ottawa, April 28.-(Special.)-In the Senate to-day Sir Oliver Mowat moved the Criminal Code, and asked consent time it was known as the Conservative | to have the bill reprinted, with marginal notes explaining the effect the clauses amending the law as now stands. His reason for doing this was that some of the proposed amendand intent of the amendments pro-

Mr. Power thought a new clause it a criminal offence for persons who obtained a divorce in the United States, which were not recognized in Canada, and re-married in that country, returning to this country and living in a state of adultery. A bill of this kind had been introduced into Parliament some time ago, but had been abandoned. This glaring omission in our criminal law, he thought, should be remedied at once. Sir Oliver Mowat said that the matof the Canadian Parliament in coneign country, where it was not criminal, a crime in Canada, even though under our laws such an act, if committed in the Dominion, would come under the criminal law relating to bigamy. Find a Canadian of Trade and City Council, which deputation will urge the building of locks at St. Andrew's Rapids, and thus making the Red River navigable for steamboats. On Friday evening Mr. Sifton leaves for Ottawa. Joseph Tenmot, Customs collector at Gretma, is one of the latest officials to be dismissed for alleged partisan-There is absolutely no change in the high water situation as far as Winnipeg is concerned. For thirty hours or more mow the water of the Red River has been stationary. At Emerson the water to going down, and at Morris it is stationary. The worst stage has evidently been passed. Emerson and Morris, however, will feel the effects of the flood for some time. It will be a fortnight before business can be resumed in either town.
