The 16th of March, 1898, is the 80th anniversary of her birth, which is surely an event worthy of celebration in itself, but Mrs. Roberts also enjoys the distinction of being the oldest professional pianist in the Dominion, and perhaps on the continent. In spite of her 80 years the old lady is still quite nimble, and would not hesitate to fulfil an engagement at the pianoforte on an hour's notice. She is sprightly on foot, and reads her score without glasses. Mrs. Roberts was born in London, England, in 1818. She received her professional training in the same city, and has travelled all over Great Britain, and filled professional engagements in most of the cities of the United States and Cancities of the United States and Cancities of the United States and Cancities of the United States and Cancilla calchanges this impor-

LINDSAY CURLERS VICTORIOUS

Another Record Achieved. By winning the Governor-General's Cup last week our curlers have established another world's record. No curling club in the Ontario Curling Association has won this cup twice in succession. Lindsay Club has earned the proud distinction of having won five Governor-General's Cups. The first cup was won in 1885, the second in 1887, the third in 1889; the final games for these three cups were all week. It was consigned to the North- played at Rideau Hall Rink, Ottawa. In 1897 they won their fourth cup at -Mr. Melville Millar, a popular Hamilton, and yesterday their fifth.

Lindsay, though it has the reputation of being an enthusiastic curling town, was taken by surprise when the news spread on Thursday week that two rinks had left for Orillia to curl for the Governor-General's Cup. Everyone expected them to win, and win they did, and no one expected them home that evening, and so their return was as quiet as their flittingonly a very few of the enthusiasts were on hand, when the eight o'clock train came in last night, to congratulate them on their victory. Our readers for the past season or two have been kept pretty well posted in curling matter, so that they know fairly well the -Toronto papers are advocating the record of the club for that period, but removal of the G.T.R. headquarters as our town is changing and grow-

This Lindsay lost it by one shot. The Toronto Granites that same year won again by a single point; this game was against the Hamilton Thistles, played at Toronto. It was the final game for the Ontario Tankard. That same season the club carried everything before them at the Peterboro Bonspiel and also at Oshawa, when they brought home the Dryden Cup.

In 1897-'98 and 1898-'99 they have gone through the two seasons with a clean slate-not a single defeat in two seasons, and only two in four seasons, these by a single point each, and both of them by Ontario Tankard winners
