Sporting Notes
—Lovers of football will learn with interest that Old Ireland has again captured the triple crown of Rugby football, following her high distinction in 1894, when she had the honor of beating England, Scotland and Wales in their favorite game.
Police Court Calendar
—Mr. C. Munro's case against Mrs. Stewart, of Port Perry, for obtaining money by false pretences, was dismissed on Monday by Magistrate Steers, with consent of County Crown Attorney Devlin, on the ground that the section should have been entered in the civil court. Mr. Munro has instructed his lawyer to proceed against Capt. Stewart.
—Mrs. Stewart Crandall and Mrs. Stewart Crandall are the former being concerned because he was asked by Stewart before his death to take care of his money.

The Rumor was Untrue.
Friends of Mr. Richard Moore, of Ops, not far from town, were greatly concerned last Monday owing to a report of his death having got into circulation, but happily it was disproved next morning. Mr. Moore, it will be remembered, had his right hand badly bitten about ten days ago, and was awaiting a couple of fighting dogs, and a couple of secure medical aid at the time, blood poisoning set in as a result of which his life has been in danger. Now his condition is more favorable, and his medical attendants have strong hopes of his recovery.

Odd-flores "At Home"
The annual "At Home" held Friday evening in the Odd-flores' hall under the auspices of Guiding Star Encampment No. 22, I.O.O.F., was a great success despite the fact that, owing to the wet evening, the attendance was not as large as anticipated. The program, which was composed of vocal and instrumental solos, in which only local talent took part, was exceedingly well rendered, and was greatly appreciated. Rev. J. W. Macgregor, chaplain of the lodge, was chairman, and made a few pleasant remarks about the order. Rev. Mr. Marks, of St. Paul's, also spoke in fitting terms of Odd-flores' light the completion of the program. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge, who are to be congratulated on the success of the entertainment.

Church Notes.
—On Sunday evening the pastor of Cambridge-st. Methodist church will preach from the subject "Christian Science."
Roses at War.
This (Friday) evening put your hat on in time to get to Queen-st. Methodist church at 8 o'clock. A modern "war of the roses" social is to be held at that hour. A varied program of music, essay and song will be given, after which refreshments will be served. A very enjoyable time is expected.
Y. M. C. A. Notes.
The rinks are closed for the season, but the Y.M.C.A. is open every week night during the year. The best place to spend your evenings is at the association rooms.
—Arrangements have been completed for the Ottawa excursion on May 24th. A big demonstration will be held during the day and a large crowd is expected from Toronto. Keep the date open.

The Trapping Season.
Messrs. J. Hand and G. Jackman, trappers, left Monday by wagon for West Cross Creeks to prepare for the muskrat season. The creek is not yet clear of ice, but they hope it will move in a few days. Ben Bryans visited McEwen's Creek, on the lower waters, with the same object yesterday, but was compelled to return, as there was not sufficient open water to float his canoe.
His Thumb Crushed.
Sergt-Major Martin, proprietor of the Victoria Laundry, met with a painful mishap Wednesday. While standing near the steam boiler, the heavy lid fell on his left hand, crushing the thumb so badly that it may have to be amputated, and in any event will be a couple of months. The Major's many friends will regret to hear of his misfortune.

The Latest Invention.
—Mr. Lem. Felcher, of Peterboro, whose presence in town was noted on Tuesday, is interested in an American company which has recently established a Canadian branch for the manufacture of Miracle Washing Compound, a wonderful invention, which reduces worry and trouble on wash-day to a minimum. Miracle has been introduced in Toronto, London, Peterboro, Kingston, Ottawa and Hull, and leading hotels and the great business laundry, and worked like a charm.
C. M. S. Centenary.
Over five thousand meetings were held in connection with the Church Missionary Society's Centenary, which was kept Wednesday, April 12th, from a great gathering in London, England to the smaller ones in the distant cities and towns. Mr. R. Macounachie, for twenty-five years in the government service in India, and the Rev. B. Smith, B.A., of St. Peter's church, St. Paul's, delivered addresses at Toronto, delivered addresses at St. Paul's school house at 4 and 8 o'clock. Come and hear of some of the wonders God hath wrought among the heathen.
