Arch. Campbell.

"If you want to grow rich," said an aged thinker to a business man who was about to start a factory, "make it a rule to give the largest possible amount of goods for the least possible sum of money."

GOOD ADVICE

Is especially palatable when it outlines the course one has been steadily following, and it gives us keen satisfaction to know that a great many emphatically believe we have taken the first step towards the amassing of wealth.

HAS BEEN OUR CUSTOM

In the past to watch the markets closely and to buy largely when prices are low. In this way only is it possible for the retail dealer to secure decided bargains, and our customers invariably to get the benefit of our purchases.

HEADS OF FAMILIES

Take the first step towards saving money when they commence trading with us. We sell at the lowest possible notch of profit, depending upon our large sales to recoup us. The variety and extent of the Stock we carry offer every advantage to the purchaser, whose smallest order is given every attention.

ARCH. CAMPBELL,

Family Grocer.

THE SESSION AT OTTAWA. The debate on the address has been concluded, with the honors carried off by the opposition speakers. The weakness of the ministerial cause was painfully apparent; and there is a general feeling of uneasiness in the ministerial ranks.

THE PORK TRADE DISCUSSION. The letters of Mr. John Campbell of Mariposa, and Mr. Geo. Matthews of Lindsay, on the pork and cattle trade questions, printed in recent issues of THE POST, have been read with much interest, especially by the farmers, who are deeply concerned in the matter.

Mr. Matthews' arguments as a "business man," and deals with his "facts" in such a way that there is not much danger of the intelligent farmer being misled. Mr. Matthews should feel bound as a "business man" to overcome Mr. Campbell, to show up his fallacies and his errors in fact and argument—if he can.

cleverly and successfully disposed of Mr. Matthews' arguments as a "business man," and deals with his "facts" in such a way that there is not much danger of the intelligent farmer being misled. Mr. Matthews should feel bound as a "business man" to overcome Mr. Campbell, to show up his fallacies and his errors in fact and argument—if he can.

EDITORIAL NOTES. Though the ministerial forces in the new house have been seriously reduced in numbers, the "chief" has deemed it advisable to secure the assistance of no less than nine "whips" to keep the unruly crowd in order.

The vacant registrarship of Victoria affords the Warder an opportunity for getting off a column or so of vulgar abuse and misrepresentation. It pretends to take up the cause of a leading Roman Catholic reformer, though if a Roman Catholic were appointed the Protestant horse would be trotted out at a furious rate.

COMMUNICATION. The Ontario Hog Trade—Mr. Matthews' Retreat and the Warder's Advance. (To the Editor of THE POST.) Sir,—I fail to see the slightest reason Mr. Matthews has to be "out of sorts" with me because of my last letter.

Not for a moment have I doubted Mr. Matthews' veracity, and fully believe his business success is in a great measure due to his "one law" may be continued, but all that, have not we farmers a right to discuss the political and business mixture with which he furnishes us?

will not enlighten us greatly. For all the both I ever read the most genuine was to be found in this publication. As a farmer we are largely sold that the shrewd gift farmers of Victoria "are going into thoroughbred stock, such as salls in England's markets," "what other nonsense, when not one such ever crosses the sea to Britain for the thousands that cross the line to the States. An occasional old used-up thoroughbred bull may cross a Canadian, but I venture to say that while there is hair in the Warder editor's head not one shall leave Victoria county to cross the sea to sell in Britain for breeding purposes.

Do You Cough? Don't delay. Take Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. It will cure coughs and colds. It will cure sore throat or a tickling in the throat. It will cure pain in the chest. It will cure influenza and bronchitis and all diseases having to do with the lungs, because it is a pure balsam. Hold it to the light and see how clear it is. Think it is. You will see the excellent effect in taking the first dose. Large bottles 50c and $1.-48c.

Bankrupt Stock. I have moved the bankrupt stock of hardware (S. S. W. Foley) to the store lately occupied by S. S. Ritchie, where I will continue the slaughter and sale. Those that do not call will lose big bargains. Two doors east of Benson house, 46-ft. R. D. THREXTON.
