THE FORTY-ACRE FARM.

Fa thinks wife of neighbor Jones, that man with stalwart arm. He lives in peace and plenty on his 40 acre farm. While men are all around us with hearts and hands a-acre Who own 200 acres, and still are wanting more. He has a pretty little farm—a pretty little house. He has a loving wife within, as quiet as a mouse. His children play around the door—their father's heart to charm. Looking just as neat and tidy as the tidy little farm. No weeds are in the cornfield, no thistles in the clover. The horses show good keeping by their fine and close coats. The cows within the meadow, resting 'neath the beechen shade. Learn all their gentle manners from a gentle milking maid. Within the field on Saturday he leaves no credled grain. To be gathered on the morrow, for fear of coming rain. He keeps the Sabbath holy—his children learn his ways. And plenty fills his barns and bins after the harvest days. He never has a lawsuit to take him to the town. For the very simple reason—there are no fences down. The bar-room in the village does not have for him a charm. You always find my neighbor on his 40-acre farm. His acres are so very few, he ploughs them very deep. He has a hand that turns the sod—'tis his own hands that reap. He has a place for everything, and things are in their place. The sunshine smiles upon his fields, contentment in his face. May we not learn a lesson, wife, from prudent neighbor Jones. And not—for what we haven't got—give vent to sighs and groans? The rich 'n' always happy, nor free from life's alarms. But blast are those who live content, though small may be their farms. —John D. Yates.

ARGYLE. OBITUARY.—The family of Mr. John Kitchin of Argyle suffered severe affliction last week in the death of their only daughter from inflammation of the lungs. The funeral was followed to Smith's cemetery on Saturday by a large number of sympathizing friends. Other members of the family were very ill but are now in a fair way of recovery.

PETERBORO. A FRAUDULENT TRAMP.—The other day three tramps were sent to jail by the police magistrate, among them a young man with a thoroughly bandaged arm in one of two places. Since his incarceration the jailer thought the arm should be dressed, but when the wrappings were removed the arm was found to be sound. This is a scheme which is frequently adopted to obtain an easy living.

WOODVILLE. PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Mr. B. X. Jewell, of the stove and tin shop, met with a painful accident on Monday last. It seems that he was having some amusement by wrestling when his leg was twisted in under him and he found himself unable to stand. Mr. McKy was called upon to attend to him, and it was found that the leg was broken in two places. The doctor's care has been getting along as well as could be expected, but he will not be able to be around for some weeks.

All this season year Mr. Curtis was getting from 12,000 to 15,000 pounds of wax per week, while this year he was able to find more than 4,000 or 5,000.

The fire started from the chimney and favored by the high wind made rapid progress. The most of the furniture was saved. The loss is a severe one to Mr. Yeo, as the house was nearly new. ENNSMORE.—The numerous friends in town and country of Mr. Alexander Travis, formerly of Ennsmore, will be glad to receive the announcement of his death at Orleans, N-braska, which appears in another part of this paper. A friend contributes the following in regard to his demise: "I was a schoolmate of Alexander, but his memory still laster forever among his friends. In all the relations of life he was a model man. In his home he was always the best of husbands and the kindest of fathers; among his fellow men he was always kind and genial, sociable and helpful; in all his dealings he was always a peace-maker. (Blessed are the peace-makers.) It is consoling to know that although he died in a foreign land his friends were all in one place, and for it, in far-away Nebraska, as well as here his friends united in praying for the repose of his soul. I can rest give unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. Hearty sympathy is every where extended to his afflicted widow and children. One who has known the deceased will and loved him much lays this wreath upon his tomb in far-away Nebraska." —[Revised.]

JOAB SCALES, of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney Complaint and Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach and Lame Back; in fact, I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man out of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."

Wonderful Cures. For thirty years Mrs. L. Squire, Ontario Steam Dye Works, Toronto, says: "For about thirty years I have been doctored for Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia without getting any cure. I then tried Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and the benefits I have received from this medicine are such that I cannot withhold this expression of my gratitude. It acts immediately upon the Liver, and its good effects are noticed at once. As a Dyspepsia remedy I don't think it can be equalled."

Indisputable Evidence. Hardened and Enlarged Liver. Mrs. H. Hall, Navarino, N.Y., writes: "For years I have been troubled with Liver Complaint. The doctors said my Liver was hardened and enlarged. I was troubled with Dizziness, Pain in my Right Shoulder, Constipation, and gradually losing flesh all the time. All food soured on my stomach, even with the closest attention to diet. I was under the care of three physicians, but did not get any relief. A friend sent me a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and it affords me much pleasure to inform you that the benefit I have received from it is far beyond my expectation. I feel better now than I have done for years."
