It was bitterly cold, with heavy snow and hail. A large number of lobstermen were blown out to sea and undoubt edly perished. Four boats and their crews were blown out to sea from Cance Cove and six boats and their crews from Black Point. Four men were picked up by a tug off Point Prim. Two men named Howell and Johnston, of Crapaud, were blown off in their little cock shell and had a miraculous escape from drowning. They were rescued, after terrible suffering from exposure, in an unconscious condition.
