LINDSAY, FRIDAY, MAY 12, 1893 DOMINION REFORM CONVEN-TION.

The call recently issued by Hon. Mr. Laurier for a Dominion reform convention at Ottawa in June has been very cordially and generally accepted and approved. There has long been a widely spread desire that a Dominion convention should be held, and Mr. Laurier's action is wise and timely. Mr. Laurier's circular states that the convention shall be composed of liberal members of parliament and defeated candidates for parliamentary honors, with five delegates from each electoral division; that is, we presume the convention proper will be confined to such properly chosen delegates, but all good reformers and friends of the reform policy will be cordially welcomed.

steps should be taken at an early day to elect five delegates each from South and North Victoria. We do not suppose it will be necessary for that purpose to go to the trouble and expense of calling a formal riding convention, unless a convention is desirable or necessary for the transaction of other business. A gathering of the riding and township executives, the leading convention elected officers and the township officers, would probably accomplish the purpose. We merely throw out the suggestion with the view of calling out an expression of opinion in order that satisfactory action may be taken at an early day. Our personal preference is for a full convention of the reform electors to select the delegates, but it might not be convenient at this season to call such a gathering. Perhaps some names might be suggested (of those who could go) and then take a plebiscite through the columns of THE Post, and send the five receiving the most votes. Editors of reform papers are by Mr. Laurier's judicious invitation made members of the convention, we might say "exofficio," to use a phrase that our friend Peter "X", of the Berlin News, has made

All the indications point to a very large convention. Its deliberations will be of great importance at this stage of our history, in view of the economic and financial problems that have to be solved. We trust our reform friends in this county will see to it that the county bearing the name of our beloved Queen will send to the capital a strong, able and representative delegation.

Tariff reform will no doubt be the allabsorbing question at the convention. Upon this question the liberal party are already pledged to a sound, advanced and decide l course. Tariff reform will be the great issue of the next contest. The Dominion ministers are deeply concerned at the outlook. They have been consulting-whom? the farmers and taxpayers and consume s of the country as to their them so cheap before .- 50 tt. needs and as to the measure of relief from taxes they require? No, of course not. They have been consulting in secret the monopolists of Montreal and the red parlor combinesters of Toronto, and they that would perish if it did not receive continued pap and protection. Why were these "consultations" held in secret? Why were not the meetings thrown open to the world? The reason is obvious. It would never do to let the common multitude know what combinsters wanted; but the people will have to pay the increased taxes all the same. The farmers and others will have to grin and bear it; they will have to sweat and toil, and get no Dressed hogs—the offerings were not large and further ahead for all slaving and saving so the market was firm at $8.25 to $8 50. long as they mark their ballots-so many of them- for the fat and smiling red par-

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The German army bill, upon the passage of which Kaiser William had set his heart, has been rejected by a decisive majoritya vote of 210 to 162 -and the reichstag has | May 6th, were: Cattle, 1,862; sheep and lambs, been dissolved. The turmoil of a bitter election will follow, but the imperialists and military cause will probably prevail in the long run, as their opponents are divid ed into several section.

The young ladies of Uxbridge are "up to snuff' and have formed an "anti-slang society." They are prepared to "bet their the Montreal market to dealers here were not boots"that they will be as perfect as prunes and prisms in their conversation; and in their high aims at "culchaw" and improvement they are determined to "get there with both feet," and that is saying a great deal. Now Lindsay girls have an occasion to "come off the perch" al la Uxbridge. They "take the bun" every time in conversation and intellectually, as well as in other

Mr. Gladstone is now pushing the home bill through committee against the bitterly obstructive tactics of Balfour, Chamberlain and other tory leaders. Col. Saunderson, the fiery Ulster M. P., enriched the debate As the convention is to be held in June on an amendment of the first clause reaffirming the supremacy of parliament in local as well as imperial matters, with the remark that the announcement was eary to"curb the predatory propensities of the squalid Irish parliament, with a hungry executive floating in whiskey." This seems rather personal. It would be termed course and abusive if made by one of the

> The Mail says:-"Farmers generally will feel relief at the collapse of the cordage combine. These are troublesome times for the big trusts and it is to be hoped that everyone that goes under will stay under. Eighty per cent of the American cordage companies and some in Canada were controlled by the combine. The profits were said to be enormous. Not only were prices of cordage forced up, but the combination effected a reduction in the cost of raw material. Thus the farmers were injured in two ways. Some unexpected calls by the banks pricked the bubble, and now the speculators who were building palaces at the public expense are crushed to earth under the ruins. Natural laws right wrongs with which human laws fail to grapple."

If further proof is required that the CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY has the interest of its patrons as well as the progress of Canada at heart, it will be found in the fact that they have inaugurated a new steamship service between Vancouver, B. C., and Sydney, New South Wales, with arrangements for stop-over at the intermediate ports of Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, Brisbane, Queensland. The passage will take twenty-one days each way in the steamships Miowera and Warrimoo, which are of 5,000 tons burden, and steam at an average of fifteen knots an hour, with a capacity of 125 cabin passengers each. The Miowera is booked to leave Vancouver.

As a guarantee that the voyage will be made as comfortable and attractive as possible it is only necessary to look at their other efforts in the providing of steamship accommodation both on the Pacific Ocean and the Great Lakes, which stand out foremost in the world. Any agent of the Company is able to give full particulars.
