Gladness to the Hearts of Other From the Waterloo, Ont. Chronicle.

Mr. David Thaler is a prosperous wellto-do farmer who lives near Centreville, on the mainroad from Berlin to Galt. He has a fine farm of 100 acres, and everything about his place has an air fof neatness and prosperity. A representative of the Waterloo Chronicle lately had occasion to call on Mr. Thaler and in the ducing the taxes of the people. In the performing his duty at Goderich. In the course of conversation came across one of those remarkable cures through; the use and a quarter of dollars for advertising partment, there is an item of $150 "not of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that has given and printing, a large portion of which | accounted for." A Million and a Quarter Spent on the Tory Papers - Civil Servants' Traveling Expenses Excessive - Interesting Reading For the Overburdened Taxpayers.

Ottawa, May 20 .- It is quite as essential that the press, whic assumes to discuss public affairs from a lofty and disinterested point of view, should be as independent of the Government of the day as the members of parliament, or the private citizen who undertakes a similar responsibility. A man or a newspaper may be accused of party ties and still be entitled to credit for disininterested motives, but when there is a substantial pecuniary inducement to motive is selfish rather than patriotic. let him read the following accounts: In the vocabulary of the politician, the expression, "subsidized press," occupies a prominent place, and its use has become so hackneyed that in the minds of many people who have not had the opportunity of perusing the pages of the Auditor-General's report, it is merely a rhetorical phrase, incapable of literal acceptance. That it means just what the words imply, is shown by the statement of expenditures during the last year. The advertising and printing account of the Government amounted to the enormous sum of $269,726, a large portion of which was distributed amongst the Fory organs of greater and lesser degree, from one end of the country to the other. Florence, May 19 .- The population of this city was thrown into a state of panic last night by a series of earthquakes that did much damage here and in other places. People who were in their houses when the first shock came ran terror-stricken into the streets, and their wild cries could be heard everywhere. The shocks were so violent that houses swayed like ships in a seaway, and in a number of cases roofs fell in, injuring many persons who had not sought safety in flight. The wildest scenes were at the theatres, where prformances were going on. Amid shouts of "earthquake," the crowd, made wild, rushed for the exits. Mad with terror, no respect was shown for the women, weak or aged, and in the crush many were badly hurt. Upon reaching the streets the crowds from the theatres met those who had fled from their dwellings, and the excitement that ensued made confusion worse confounded.

At Grassian, a suburb of Florence, the shocks were very violent. The extent of the earth movement may be judged from the fact that a loaded omnibus was overturned. The seismic disturbance was felt at Lucca, Pontedera and generally throughout Tuscany. The centre of the movement was at Florence, where for very many years nothing similar has occurred. Around Florence a number of houses were destroyed and four persons killed. At Lappaggi, a village near Gassian, no less than 40 houses were thrown from their foundations and completely wrecked. A sad feature of the disaster at this place was the finding of the body of a young mother with her infant clasped tetter, ecsema, itch, all eruptions on the to her heart. She had evidently at - face, hands, nose, etc., leaving the skin tempted to fiee, but, together with her child, was crushed to death beneath the falling walls of her home, An investigation was made by the muncipal authorities of Florence, who esimated that 3000 houses were damaged.
