RIVER OBSTRUCTION.

Navigation has opened, but the Esturion is unable to reach the upper wharf. The inconvenience is not serions, as there are but few travellers as yet, but signs multiply to show that there will be serious trouble later on unless the council decides to act firmly from the outset. Unless there is very good management passenger steamers will be greatly interfered with and the captains will find it impossible to arrive and depart on schedule time. Failure to do this will militate against summer travel and lead to loss of vis-of the boat owners, and it is for that reason we urge the council to start right. It will be necessary for all parties concerned to adopt a policy of mutual concessions, but as there are some parties always ready to usurp the rights of others, the council should be prepared to check such conduct from the outset. 'Tis a great pity that Mr. Geo. McHugh, M.P., was not asked by council to secure the appointment of Lockmaster Curtin as river overseerhe is always on the spot, and could be relied on to treat everyone fairly. Failing that, Chief Bell should be given instructions to perform the duty, and to take prompt action against persistent offenders. He will never be missed from Kent-st. for a few hours each day.

A WASTED APPROPRIATION.

About three weeks ago a Mr. Goffe introduced himself to a number of our citizens in the capacity of special advertising agent for the Canadian Journai of Commerce, Montreal, a publication circulating among the business men and manufacturers of Quebec and the Maritima provinces principally, and occupying relatively the same position in its territory as the Monetary Times does in Ontario and the North-West. Mr. Goffe came to write an article on Lindsay's industries for his paper, and Degrees at Victoria University. made no secret of the fact that the scheme was devised to boom the circulation of the paper, the idea being that the business men interested would purchase copies of the issue. During his stay he waited on our city fathers and explained that the councils of towns following, who have also labored in this visited by him usually consented to allow him to grace the article with their pictures (free of cost), and invariably purchased a number of copies of the issue, to be sent where calculated to do the most good in the way of arousing interest in Lindsay as a manufacturing centre. The arguments advanced made a deep impression. Mr. Goffe left town early last week with an order for 300 copies, or $30 worth, and a David McFarquhar, a resident of Cam-number of cabinet photos. Early in the year Mr. Edmund Yeigh the well-known writer, representing The Giobe, Toronto, also waited on our town council, and proposed giving Lindsay, its industries and its waterways, a full-page illustrated write-up in the Saturday edition of that journal for $50, the valuable photogravure cuts to | burn out his tenant. prominence, and the selected views of COMMERCIAL NEWS. points of interest on our magnificent chain of waters, and knowledge of the grand fishing, would undoubtedly attract summer tourists. But the council said nay, and Mr. Yeigh departed -to make way for Mr. Goffe with a more flattering scheme. Lindsay has nothing to gain by being advertised in a trade journal published in another province, but would be certain of a return for an expenditure of $50 in a great journal like The Globe, which goes to every nook and corner of our own province, and probably sends as many copies into Quebec, the Maritime provinces and the North-West, as the Journal of Commerce publishes altogether. The council made an unwiss expenditure. It would have been wiser to spend $30 advertising Lindsay's industries in Ontario's fine paper, The Monetary Times. The amount thrown away is small but some needed work will be left undone at the end of the year for lack of the sums spent.

TOOK OUR ADVICE.

We note with satisfaction that our alcermen have adopted the suggestions thrown out by The Post in recent editorials relative to tree planting, fencing and improvement of the market plot, and oversight of the river channel. A grant of $100 has been made for tree planting, the understanding being that the work will be continued by succeeding councils. This is as it should be. Red clover, bu The improvement of the market plot White clover, seed, bu : 5 00 will also be a meritorious achievement | Alsike, choice to fancy. 3 80 and one that will reflect no little credit on the aldermen, as a sinister influence blocked numerous attempts to do so during the past 10con 12 years. In all such matters the interests of the citizens as a whole should be held paramount to that of individuals.

We feet honestly encouraged by the attention given our hints, and we purpose advancing others. We look for no neward save in the consciousness of well-doing, but if our city fathers feel truly grateful for what we have done to gain for them the commendation of our citizens they may repay us, and at the same time acquire a confidence not at present reposed in them by abanconing the foolish "Star Chamber" secret committee meetings indulged in since taking office. They are not complimentary to the good sense of the council and are an insult to the intelligence of the ratepayers

EDITORIAL NOTES.

In some of the churches in Toronto ast Sunday the mayor was severely denounced for lending his presence at a procession and reception to a prizefighter. The responsible office of Chief magistrate of Toronto the Good seems to carry with it some very onerous duties."

The Niagara Y.M.C.A. is assailed by an indignant member, who writes to the Record complaining that he was refused entry to the baths Sunday. He raises the point that members brush their boots on Sunday, and asks if bathing is more harmful or a greater, violation of the sanctity of the Saboath than boot-blacking. The question is one for

> It is announced from Ottawa that the Premier will at an early day announce the policy of the government regarding the redistribution of constituencies. What the people expect is that the new arrangement shall be absolutely fair to both parties -- so fair that its justice shall appeal to the minds of all interested. Should the tories in the house of commons undertake to obstruct the passage of such a measure, or should they use their senate majority to prevent its enactment into law, the people could reckon with them at the polls-the sooner the better. The liberals want no gerrymander in their own interest; they look for the repeal of the Macdonald gerrymander that was contrived to keep liberals from exercising their fair and legitimate influence in elections.
