Dealers are wont to advertise perfect Watches.

We do better now; make them better and advertise them better.

The exact truth is, there are no perfect watches. Watchmaking is an experimental art, not an exact science nor a secret process. What has been done we know—what is to be done, who knows? We are apt to do more than our share of the doing.

Our special WATCHES today are up to today's knowledge—as near perfection as any, and in some respects nearer than any other. They are better this year than last—will be better still in the future; but if you think to wait until the improvements shall have all been made, you'll never get a watch.

You can, however, get a WATCH to-day so good that it will satisfy you, not only to-day, but for a life-time. Either of our special watches, the "MIDLAND" or the "VICTORIA," will satisfy any reasonable human being.

Yes! this is well worth looking into. Come and see us about it.

ECHOES FROM THE CAPITAL.

SIR HECTOR TO MAKE A STATEMENT. So far Sir Hector Langevin has maintained a solemn silence with respect to the Globe's revelations and fac-simile letters disclosing his relations with Mr. Thomas McGreevy, and the unvarnished nature of the testimony given by him before the Privileges and Elections committee last session, but it is now stated, says the Ottawa Daily Free Press, that the late minister of public works is preparing an elaborate statement in reference to the whole business, which will ask the privilege of reading in parliament, and which is likely to create a sensation. Sir Hector's friends say that he does not intend to remain silent and be shunned as a leper by those who over their positions to Mr. McGreevy's "conspiracy" and who, were all the facts known, would be deeper in the political mud than Sir Hector is. It is believed that Sir Hector's coming chapter of revelations will show that many of his colleagues—some of whom seem so anxious to send Mr. McGreevy to goal for complicity in the case of Sir Hector, Mr. McGreevy and the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., and of the means by which money was obtained by Mr. McGreevy for election purposes.

THE CARON COMMISSION.

The composition of the commission appointed to investigate the charges preferred against Sir Adolphe Caron by Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, which were framed out of the original charges of Mr. Edgar, is now a fit subject for discussion and is freely talked of here to-day, says the Ottawa correspondent of the Hamilton Times. Judge Tait was at one time a partner of the position on the bench to the influence of Mr. Abbott. Sir Adolphe Caron, the accused, as a member of the cabinet who had his say in framing the charges and appointing the commission, will still have the privilege of promoting or retarding the promotion of Judge Tait. As for Judge Routher, who is a bosom friend of Sir Adolphe's, he is an old hand on commissions. In 1883 and 1884 he sat on the North Shore railway enquiry, and the way in which he discharged his duties then makes him eminently fitted as one to whom Sir John Thompson should apply for doing such work. As a commissioner, then, it is shown that he refused evidence which had a strict bearing on the question before the commission, that he sat with closed doors, refused admission to the press, would not permit Mr. Joly, who made the charges, to be represented by counsel, and to crown all he took about four years to make his report. This is the sort of commission that will satisfy Sir John Thompson, and he says it is exactly what the public has desired in returning himself and his colleagues. To some extent he is probably right. The minister of justice last night accused Mr. Edgar of being a sneak and a coward and of having no manhood in his whole body if he refused to attend such an enquiry as the government directed and defend any such charges as the government might frame, no matter whether they were true or false. Sir John Thompson's followers were uttering diatribes with him then, and worse now, since they have had time to reflect on what he said.

Mr. Davies, in one of the best speeches he ever delivered in the house, showed who was the political coward, and pointed to the speech of the minister of justice during recess when he held up his hands and called the heavens to witness that he

DEATH OF EX-MAYOR THOMPSON.

J. B. Thompson, ex-Mayor, died somewhat suddenly early Tuesday morning. He had been ailing for some time, but his death was unexpected. He served the town as councillor from 1882 to 1883, and as mayor from 1883 to 1888; was president of the curling club, and also of the agricultural society. He was a prominent member of the Sons of Scotland and of the Masonic society.

CAVAN.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE PIONEER.—Mrs. John Walsh of Cavan township died after a severe illness on Tuesday morning, May 31st, at the advanced age of 80 years. The deceased lady belonged to one of the earliest families of the township. Canada, with the father of the deceased, David Sharpe, in the year 1819. Since that time she has lived in Cavan. About 55 years ago she was married to the late John Walsh, J. E., who died six years ago. Mrs. Walsh leaves behind her two sons and two daughters. She was a faithful member of the Methodist church, and was held in high respect by her community, which she passed the long years of her life.

LOCAL OPTION.

The people of this vicinity had the advantage and the pleasure of hearing an address on the local option temperance by-law given by Dr. McLaren, the eminent queen's counsel of Toronto and Montreal, on the evening of Friday, the 27th ult. As might be expected from the standing of the gentleman's eloquence, instruction and wisdom were leading features in the discussion. A fair audience greeted the speaker. Rev. Mr. Burns presided and gave a short opening address. A hearty vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Cunningham of Oakwood, seconded by Mr. John Coone of Manilla, and pleasantly replied to. The meeting took place in the town hall.

LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS.

PETERBORO.

FORGOT IT WAS SUNDAY.—A farmer from King's Ward, Emily, started for Peterboro last Sunday with a heavy load of grain. While passing through Ennismore he was stopped by some residents, who asked him if he knew it was Sunday. The surprised farmer was slow to belling the truth, but he was prevailed on to return home and study his calendar.—Examiner.

(Correspondence of The Post.) SHEEP WORRIED BY DOGS.—The rambling dogs were seen again Sunday morning by Mr. J. Carmichael in his pasture field worrying his sheep. The big dog has a yellowish body and a black bushy tail; the other dog is black, thin and long, a short tail and little white around his breast. Anyone who can give information to Mr. Carmichael or Mr. C. Holmes will be rewarded. This is the third time they were seen in this settlement at sheep. They have been seen here at all hours of the day. The owners of these dogs must know that they are rambling, and should be good enough to come and pay the damages.

SONYA.

(Correspondence of The Post.) S. S. CONVENTION.—The people of this vicinity were greatly favored on Monday last by the presence of the Sunday school association of the presbytery of Lindsay. It was a great meeting and there was a grand attendance. The audience filled the church to overflowing and they were well rewarded by having delivered addresses during both the afternoon and evening sessions a series of addresses remarkable for effective power and oratorical ability. At the afternoon session Mrs. J. Jackson, Courtney and Hanna were the speakers assigned, and at the evening session Messrs. Kierulff and Neil of Toronto delivered stirring addresses.

THE NEW CHURCH.

I understand that the contract for our new church, the letting of which was unexpectedly delayed, has been disposed of. The committee have made arrangements with Messrs. Bick and Ferguson of Cannington for the building, and we shall soon have the pleasure of seeing the commencement of an edifice worthy of or in keeping with the section of country of which it will be the religious centre.

GLANDINE.

(Correspondence of The Post.) FOOT BALL.—The boys here organized a foot ball team on Saturday, May 21st, and celebrated the Queen's birthday by going to Valentin and playing a match with them. The match was played at the lake shore near Plum Point, where a local picnic was being held. Both teams being "green" the game was not prominently scientific, though some fine individual playing was done on both sides. It resulted in a 0 to 0 tie. The Glandine boys cannot too highly praise the Valentin players for the very kind treatment they received. An open concert was given in the evening, which everybody enjoyed very much. Glandine players: Goal, R. Henderson; backs, W. A. Irwin and W. J. Finlay; half backs, J. Semitt and A. M. Irwin; left wing, F. Brass and F. C. Williamson; centre, W. Stalker and T. G. Irwin; right wing, H. Dawson and W. Eskins; referee, Lauric Kennedy.

IMPROVEMENT.

Mr. A. Webster is hard at work preparing the site for his new dwelling. The new house, to be a fine brick, will stand nearly in the place of the old, which is being removed. It will be an addition to the beautiful appearance of our neighborhood.

STRENGTH OF FIGS.

Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.
