If the council and leading citizens were to take the matter into consideration a capital program could be arranged. Steps should be taken at once so as to have the matter announced far and wide. EDITORIAL NOTES.

As generally expected Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick has been appointed lieutenantgovernor of Ontario. This will necessitate an election in Frontenac.

Mr. B. B. Osler, Q. C., has advised the finance committee of the Paris council that municipalities cannot legally grant a bonus to any industry whatever.

railway investigation." The Woodstock Sentinel-Review says: "We believe, however, that the consensus of liberal opinion is that Mr. Mowat has done right in accepting the honor of a title. His position is an entirely exceptional one. The honor comes to him, as is authoritatively stated, not as a matter of party favor but as an unsought and perhaps undesired mark of imperial recognition for long years of eminent service to Canada and to the empire. In a fair distribution of Canadian titles Mr. Mowat should have had his many years ago-and if we are to have titles there should be a fair distribution of them. But the very tardiness of the recognition only makes it the more signficant and perhaps the more easily acceptable under the circumstances in which it is now made. Taking all these into account, it is not easy to see how Mr. Mewat could, with good grace, have re. fused the proffered honor. He took the advice of his colleagues and they agreed as to the course which he should take. Liberals generally will endorse their decision. And while those who hold such views as we have referred to in the beginning of this article need not change them on the general subject of colonial titles, even they will agree that Mr. Mowat's case is an exceptional one. The conferring of knight hood by the imperial authorities is an honor to him personally, to the party to which he belongs, to the province, the of the ministers declare that the charges no title can increase the admiration in which Oliver Mowat is held by all classes a shall not be investigated by parliament, of the Canadian people, or the love and devotion of the liberal party.
