that as the provincial secretary had taken much interest in the question at issue, and as it was at his suggestion largely the conference had been held, it would be a proper proceeding for the committees of the respective councils to some before him and state what had taken place at the conference, coupled with the hope on our part that he seeing the justice of our position might state positively what should be done. A meeting was accordingly arranged with him for the same evening. The committees stated their respective proposals, the Pcterborough committee. June Session. The members of the Victoria county council met in June session on Thursday, 14th inst., pursuant to the standing rules. The warden, Dr. A. E. Vrooman, occupied the chair and all the members were present with the exception of Messrs. Bailey, Bottum and Crandell.

After the minutes of the last day of the the floating bridge retained, although to our county January session had been read and confirmed the warden briefly addressed the council and laid on the table a number of the arbitration in 1880, and accept two-fifths from Peterboro on the Bobcaygeon bridges, and would pay two fifths on the floating bridge. The provincial secretary then suggested that as the Peterborough committee expressed a desire to have the floating bridge left out, it be left out of the discussion, and communications and other documents. which were on motion referred to the proper committees.

EQUALIZING ASSESSMENT. On motion of Mr. McEachren, seconded by Mr. HAM, Mesers. Hopkins, Lownsbrough, Lithgow, Kylle, Chambers, Dr. Cornwall and the mover and seconder were appointed a committee to equalize the assessment rolls for 1891. Council then adjourned until 11 a. m. Wednesday.

Wednesday's Proceedings. Council resumed Wednesday morning according to adjournment, all the members being present except Mr. McRae.

Wm. Cameron, Esq., filed his certificate as reeve of Woodville and took his seat as a member of the council. The minutes of the previous day's meeting were read and confirmed.

THE COBOCONK BRIDGE. On motion of Mr. HAM, seconded by Mr. WILSON, a sufficient sum was granted to complete the millpond bridge at Coboconk, subject to the approval of the street and bridge committee.

REPORT OF THE LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE. On motion the report of the legislative committee was received and read in com-mittee of the whole, Mr. Lownsbrough in the chair, and adopted as follows:-

Yeur commtttee were appointed at the January session to aid in procuring the legislation sought for in regard to the amendment of the Harvey act, the purpose of the amendment being to place the Bobexpressed desire of the Peterborough committee on caygeon bridges again under the joint control and maintenance of the councils of the counties of the 23rd of March unless the other boundary bridges Peterborough and Victoria, as they were prior to the made by the Peterborough committee on whose behalf the inclusion of the floating bridge was pressed for. A new point was raised on behalf of Peter-the attorney-general, and this was arranged for by Dr. John McKay, M. P. P., and took place on the 9th February last. Besides the attorney-general ment, and with your committee were Dr. John McKay and John Fell, esquire, M. P. P.'s. The object of your committee was to give information and call the attention of the executive to the great injustice which had been done to the county of Victoria as a result of legislation, which was not intended to have case fully warranted. The provincial secretary inti-mated it was in our favor that it was by legislation that the wrong complained of had been inflicted, whilst the attorney-general simply informed your committee that we would have to fight out the

The legislative assembly met on the 11th February and in due course the petition of the council, praying for the passage of an act to amend the Harvey act and the bill embodying the proposed amendment, were introduced to the house.

The bill was considered by the private bills' committee on 10th March. Your committee were present at the meeting, and the county was also represented by Charles Moss, esq., Q. C., and F. D. Moore, esq., county solicitor. The representatives of the council of the county of Peterborough sought to establish that when the original bill was before the private bills' committee in 1879 the county of Victoria was represented, and consented to the legislation detaching a portion of the township of Harvey and attaching it to the township of Verulam, with the understandit to the township of vertilam, with for the future

The statements made for the purpose of producing such an impression upon the wyou that our committee, whilst they feel that owing "to the precedent of the former apoltration the minds of the members of the committee were evidently not accepted, and upon the whole argument, "county of Victoria is entitled to receive two-fifths and judging from the views expressed by members of "from Peterborough on the Bobcaygeon bridges the committee, the claim of this county for relief was walone, will accept the suggestion made by you two established beyond all doubt, nevertheless when the yote was taken it was found there was one only of a wand extend it to the floating bridge, vie: that Vicmajority for reporting the bill. This, however, ensured its being kept before the house, Your committee had reason to fear, from the near approach to equality in the vote, that the bill might eventually be lost in the house, and therefore deter mined to put forth every effort that could properly be on the 8th April, when the member for East Peterborough moved an amendment for the purpose of made to inform the members of the house as to the true state of the case. A summary of the joint dealings of the two counties in the building and Bobcaygeon bridges in the amending act. The amendmaintenance of the Bobcaygeon bridges, up to and including the year 1879, with comments thereon, ment was agreed to by an almost unaninous vote. at our instance the member for West Victoria moved an amendment to provide that if at any time hereafter the counties of Peterborough and Victoria should mutually agree to abandon the floating bridge, their responsibility for its maintenance should cease. This supplemented by other points, was prepared, and a declaration was made by the assistant clerk and treasurer, who had been cognizant of every transaction of the council during the period covered by the incidents of the injurious legislation, shewing that no action whatever had been taken by this council in 1879, or prior thereto, in promoting or opposing the passing of the original act. These documents were printed and, with copies of the petition and plan of the district, were circulated among the members. Your committee were able also to place in the hands of Dr. McKay, who bad charge of the bill, several documents written by the warden of the county of Peterborough in 1879, subsequent to the passing of the Harvey act, which showed conclusively that there

OBITUARY.—Death has again visited us, carrying off one of our pioneer settlers in the person of William Greenway. The deceased was born in Cornwall, England and emigrated to Canada about fifty three years ago, first settling in the township of Darlington, where he remained but two or three years and then moved to Mariposa, settling on the homestead, where he has resided for the past fifty years. He was a man of sterling integrity, quiet and inof-fensive in his habits, and was esteemed very highly amongst his neighbors. He leaves five children, three sons and two daughters, and his aged wife to mourn his departure, though it is a mourning with the firm trust that he has gone to the Christian's reward. Slowly one by one the landmarks in the person of our early settlers are being removed. Mr. Greenway had reached the ripe age of 91 years. BRECHIN.
