CARDEN. [Correspondence of THE POST.] Notes.—Farmers are finished seeding, and were wishing for a little rain; but are more than satisfied now, as the shower has lasted three days....Sheep-shearing is also about finished Some little excitement was caused lately by a large bear appearing in this neighborhood and killing two fine one to Mr. P. McGee. The night after the first sheep was killed a party sat up at Marren's to watch for bruin's return. Apparently he suspected their intentions, for he paid a visit to Mr. McGee's instead and helped himself to a sheep and lamb while the hunters sat at their post stiff their non-success, the hunters proceeded to Mr. McGee's on the following night, fully determined to settle bruin, but he very discreetly returned to Marren's and by Master L. McNaney, who just arrived the shot took much effect, and no one saw | desired, and every person present seemed
