Dairy Pails,

Leader Churns,

Pain Killer.

Jos: Maunder.

-DEALER IN-

Lumber, Coal, Wood, Shingles, Lath,

Lime and Tile.

-$6.00 PER TON.-

A. Higinbotham.

Lindsay, May 23rd, 1894.-11-cow.

JOS, MAUNDER.

All we ask of you is simply to give our

Cream Baking Powder a good trial. It will surprise you as it is made fresh every week, and positively

free from ammonia,

phosphate and other

Miss O'Brien.

YERY LOW.

Pattern Bonnets,

Untrimmed Hats,

who have not yet relected their New Hat

for summer should call and see my selection before purchasing elsewhere.

PRICES RIGHT.

Some very Special Bargains in

Sailor Hats and Trimmed Milli

MISSIONS RIDIO

A Fow Doors East of the Renson Mcuse

Flower Tips and Ribbons

nery at special prices.

Lin Casy "April 10.h, 1894.-805.

Artificial Flowers.

injurious.

MAUNDER

PERRY

DAVIS'

of Tin and Galvanized

Cream Pails.

(8)

Dairy

Supplies,

Pimply Girls Pimply Boys And Every Person Afflicted with Torturing Disfiguring Humiliating Humors Find Instant Relief And Speedy Cure By Using Cuticura Remedies

Sold throughout the world. POTTER DRUG AND CHEM. CORP., Boston, Sole Props. All about the Blood, Skin, Scalp and Hair," free.

hair prevented and cured by Cuticura Soap. Canadian L'NDSAY, FRIDAY, JUNE 8 1804. A MEXICAN BELLE.

An Intensely Interesting Tale of Life in snatched them away when his ingers had before him, every inch a man, but almost pressions of affections to Otto (and the only touched the tips of hers.

me!" she shrieked, in a voice so shrill brotherly affection, and by a keen pity, that it hardly sounded like her own; and which was hardly contempt. with a sudden wrathful light, her proud off your engagement? Surely she did yet the sensation was not a pleasant one, lips quivering with passionate defiance. "No, I do not loye you, Baron Otto Bodenbach. I am ashamed of ever having loved you. You are nothing to me but a miserable memory. How dare you approach me in that way? You are the bridegroom of Comtesse Halka Przeszechowska."

Otto shivered, as if on that warm spring day there could be any cold in the air. The recollection of his bethrothed touched him like an icicle in the very told me so often; it must be her pride heat of his passion. He drew back and which will not let me see it. Arnold, fortune go to the winds," and he groaned, and struck his forehead again, talking like a man raving; the passion that was shaking him made him pitiful to behold. He really did believe, blinded as he was now by the glamour of her presence, that fortune and riches were nothing to

with the vehemence of her words. "You time." love it too much; and even if you did, eyen if you gave up everything now, you would never gain me back again-never. I would not take your love again if it was the only love on earth, and if it was to make me the richest woman on earth. 1 want to cut away every memory of ever having loved you." She turned, as she spoke, to her desk on the tatle where she had been writing, and with quick, feverish fingers she opened it and took out some letters and his photograph, which she had long since torn from her diary. He stood by watching her in sullen anger. From the height of excited raving he had fallen to dogged quietude. He believed now that she did not love him. and threw them on the moor at his less. She was puzzled and horrfied at blood is among the purest—or was so," unstirred on the ground. "I have nothing more to do with them; and you will had done in the first days of her sorrow; last thirty years," and then he stopped; send mine back to me; they cannot stay and she wrote many entries in her diary. | this was not a point he could well discuss in your hands when you are a married One of these was as follows:—"I am not with a stranger. It was his mother who for me in it? I shell be miserable as a must go before they find out. I cannot lower his mother's memory. This was married man.'

"But you will be happy as a rich one you will have fortune, and that is all you acorn; "the sort of happiness you care ed, really amused.

was hopeless.

"And you have lost me," she answered, not proudly this time, but sadly; and then in pity for him she turned to go. "Do not go without saying you for ive r to cool her face, she saw Arnold not truly. They say Mexicans are suanow, eyen and the same was too proud to display his edy perfectly and permanently cures.

past with her head averted, that he might got a heart, I am sure—I saw it in her not read the trouble in her face; but he eyes—and it would break if she lost her glanced at her sharply as she passed him, love. But she will never lose him, there know what had passed within in the he is always so grave and quiet; if he sitting room, but an outline of it he did not love her he would not be going could form in his mind. coolness; there were no more checkered like Hermine (for she really is stupid), if lights on the lawn, and only the topmost only I could have a heart like hers." flowers of the horse-chestnut trees were The date of this last entry was May 20, golden under the last rays of the setting more than a fortnight after that visit of sun. Not even one little sparrow was Ctto's. It had been a very short visit, about now—the top of the garden wall for Otto had started again next morning was deserted and silent; they had all at sunrise, instead of remaining over the off to bed, and tucked their heads under day as he had intended to do. He had their brown wings; they would need to | not seen Reata from the moment that begin their night's rest early, so as to be they had parted in the sitting-room, she waking and up next morning betimes, flying out through the balcony-door, and ready to welcome the sun when he came he standing with his own letters lying at ing away something in the pockets of and it taxed all Arnold's ingenuity to

to do something for me. I will send you and that same day, when Reata was alone a sealed up packet as soon as I get back Arnold came in and handed her over the to Rzeszolow; will you gave it to-to her?" packet, or rather laid it down on the "To Fraulein Lackenegg?" completed without a word, thinking that he was he stammered, and looked at his brother.

"To her, yes: but don't let anybody his could do any good, Arnold; "yes, I understand." see it; it would not-not do." much as Reata said to him five minutes before, and much in the same tone; turned again to answer her.

"nobody shall see it." "Thank you," said Otto, huskily; then a second after he looked up at his brother, "I suppose there is no hope for me?"

He had not taken Arnold into his confidence before about this matter; he had deceived him along with the others, and as good as told him lies on the subhad always asked Arnold for advice in any address. She had torn through the his scraps, sometimes not till the last paper at one corner, and within she had that lay behind. for it was Otto's way to go on neglecting writing, and she knew now that these your brother for doing as his father had people and leaving them aside when he were her letters to Otto, which he was done? She did not mean to wound him, did not want them, and then, when the returning to her according to her wish. but curiosity pushed her to test the differneed came, to turn to them and throw She had not thought much about the ences of opinion between Otto and his himself upon them with trusting confid- matter since, and she had never speculat- brother, or rather, between Otto and ence; and when Otto asked for help in ed upon whether Otto would do as she other men. Any man's opinion on any that utter abandonment of pride and desired him, nor in what way he would subject was new to her, and this subject obstinacay, then he usually got it, even do so. Certainly she had not thought had a particular and strange fascination obstinacay, then he usually got it, even that they would come to her through that they would come to her through that they would come to her through that they would come not a pleasant linger near, and talk about it, even linger near, and talk about it, even It." He sprang forward toward her, and could not help him now, but looking at a round to help him now. would have seized her hands, but she his younger brother, as he stood there sensation to know that all her lively exa child in the helpless confidence of his liveliest of them recurred to her mind at to blame him," and Arnold frowned eyes, the elder and stronger man fel; that moment) had been lying in Arnold's again, "but you will acknowledge that

You don't want me to advise you to break have trusted implicitly in his honor; but not ask you to do so?" "No, no, she has not, though I would have done it; I told her so." "You offered to break it off?" "Yes, I did." "And you would have married her?"

"Oh, I would do anything to get her back," he said recklessly; "I was engaged to her before, you know. "I suspected as much; and she refused now when you offered again?" "She sa s she does not love me any more; but I cannot believe, I will not believe it. She used to love me, she hear it. I must have your love again. his face growing clouded. "It you nad she went on, tearing up the paper faster, she went on the paper faster, she went on the paper faster.

Otto made no denial; he looked at his was silent. me sooner, O.to. was the same as saying, "Don't scold have been a great pity, a great misforharden his heart against him. "I would her on to the words—some feeling of her on to the words—some fe

"One thing I must tell you," said Otto, looking up again, "I am not as bad as you think me; I did not break my word to her; she set me free herself because of the conditions of the will." "She was quite right," said Arnold,

"And I was a fool to take her at her word, was I not?" "I cannot say," said Arnold, and he turned away.

CHAPEER XXXV .- FOX HUNTING. The shock of discovering that her heart was a severe one to Reata; but she got not know, perhaps that our family is one not want to make any disturbance. . .

everything will be right then.

the end of the second word.

that I loved you."

As she ran down the rickety wooden different from them, that I am shallow have been a conservative) So Arnold mild roothing and have been a conservative bis foolings. But, by its been pacing up and down, half on guard, rather suffer a great deal more, and go on half in waiting; he had not told his father suffering all my life, to that I have got of the unexpected arrival. Reata ran heart like other women. Hermine has and stood still a minute on the gravel is no fear of that. Arnold is not a man looking after her flying figure till she to change when he once loves; and he vanished among the trees. He did not loves her, of course, I suppose, though

"I would rather be heavy and stupid over the distant hills to look at the world his feet on the floor. There was no her; as was quite unable to conceal his room, standing near the table, and stuff- agitation even from his father and sister, his uniform-something that rustled like screen him to some extent, and invent a "Look here, Arnold," said Otto, in a departure. A few days after this a thick still deeply agitated voice; "I want you packet had come addressed to Arnold;

"What is that?" Reata said, looking up "Make your mind easy," said Arnold, from her book, and not understanding

"It is something of yours, I believe, he said, making a not very successful attempt to pass over the matter lightly. "You will see when you open the paper."

But Reata had opened the parcel already; it was not the brown sealed packet she had seeen that morning in Arnold's hand; the ouner wrapper had been taken off, and this was a packet in white paper, "Don't touch me!—don't come near himself stirred with a great depth of hands, and they had been in his power house house to gain a himself stirred with a great depth of hands, and they had been in his power house house to gain a time. Of course the packet was sealed, fortune, and marrying in the same way and even had it not been sealed she could when by doing so you lose a fortune."

before Arnold's eyes, but unfortunately | that Reata did not attempt to contradict one has not often got fires in May, espec- him again, at least not just at that ially in a warm May like this; so, as the | moment. paper and began taking out the letters Bodenbach plans for the summer had "You know what they are?" she said dictated by Dr. K-, the physician and tearing them up one by one.

"I did not open the paper," he answer- seriously of the case than the country od, soowling slightly.

"And you think that—that it is very that any immediate good would result "To not mention her name, I will not his face growing clouded. "If you had his face growing clouded. "If you had his face growing clouded. "It is no use asking me," said Arnold, lucky that everything came to nothing?" thought they afforded the best chance for thought they afforded the best chance for and Arnold seemed to think it so, for he needless agitation or excitement; her

"And you think, of course, it would ed most considerate care. tune, if your brother had-had-done Otto's wedding, and the next thing of Arnold found it was no use trying to it?" She was aghast at her own boldness importance that occurred was Arnold's harden his heart against him. "I would in speaking, but something was pushing departure for Poland to assist at the

"I should have thought it a great pity, the will.

of, it is the-the-' "The family name; yes, I was thinking of that too.

"And is it your opinion that everything ought to be sacrificed to that, invariably? You said so."

"Yes, I said so;" Arnold was on his mettle now. "Whoever bears the Bodenwas not broken, that her life was not bach name should be ready to sacrifice blighted, and that she did not love Otto, everything to keep it intact. You do over it as one gets over worse shocks in of the oldest in Germany, and that our "Oh, you want to taunt me with my cut of my hair, nor to dig my grave, nor blood into the family, and, prejudiced hateful marriage. Do you imagine that to keep silence for the rest of my life. aristrocrat as he was he could not bear Where shall I go? I do not know, but I to breathe a word which would seem to "She will be here, I hope, in July, and | was old enough to understand the distinctions of birth and rank. He had loved "It is dreadful to think that after all I his mother, though he had never been have gone through, my heart is not brok- her favorite; he had been dutiful and words. Fortune was very much to him, en; but there is no use in denying that I gentle to her during his intervals of more quietly, but with a passing look of more quietly, but with a passing look of advers; and I often laugh and feel amus-"How can people talk and write such should have wished to have had another rangements that afflict womenkind or."
But I love you," he said, with a gasp rubbish about broken hearts and being mother; but that his mother having been at one period or another. that was almost a sob, and he looked at miserable for lite? How easy it is, after banker's daughter, that he himself had that was almost a 200, and no longer a disappointment in love! her again with haggard eyes, knowing that his chance was gone, that his chance was gone, that his suit was hopeless.

| Artificial Flower and that the blood in his veins was no longer quite blood in his veins was no longer quite blood in his veins was no longer quite blood in his ancestors, rankled the blue blood of his ancestors, rankled the blue blood of his ancestors, rankled the blue blood of his ancestors, and this sore builds up, strengthens, and cures builds up, strengthens are cure as a strengthen and cures builds up, strengthens are cure as a strengthen and cures builds up, strengthens are cure as a strengthen and cures builds up, strengthens are cure as a strengthen and cures builds up, strengthen are cure as a strengthen and cures builds up, strengthen are cure as a strengthen a Two days later came another entry, in his mind very sorely, and this sore- builds up, strengthens, and cures. written in another mode. The battle of ness made him cling all the more to the In catarrhal inflammation, in Malplaquet was recorded on the same tradition of nobility. There was no one page as defaite affreuse, with a flourish at | there to foster these feelings, for his father's odinions were too undecided; and "It is very difficult to believe that it is Otto, with his radical turn of mind, stopping and turning at the door. "It my own self who was so unhappy six openly scoffed at all distinctions which refunded. was not your fault if the trial was greater | weeks ago; six weeks are nothing at all | had nothing better to show than a name thau your strength;" and then lower, half really, and they have been enough to and a coat of arms (possibly if a name to herself, she added, "I have not for- console me. I won er if other women and coat of arms had invariably brought to herself, she added, "I have not for- console ms. I won or it other volten in their train fine old family estates and that it's driven from the head into given myself for having ever fancied would have been so quickly consoled in unimpaired family fortunes, Octo might

N. K. Fairbank Co. Isn't in it.

It is just because there is no lard in it, that Creamery Cans, OTTOLENE the new shortening is so wonderfully popular with housekeepers. OTTOLENE IS PURE, DELICATE, HEALTH-FUL, SATISFYING-none of the unpleasant odor necessarily connected with lard

Sold in 3 and 5 pound pails by all grocers. Made only by

The N. K. Fairbank Company, Wellington and Ann Stag MONTREAL

Reata interrupted the bresking off of

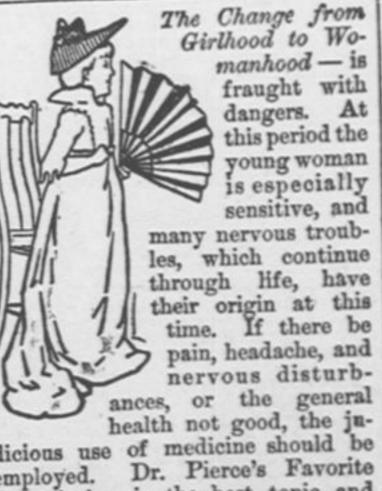

This was rather a concession for Arnold to make; for not to gain the largest fortune in the world would he have sacrificed there had been a fire there, she would his family pride. There was some sense have liked best to fling the packet in in his words, proved by the fact alone

Before this giving back of letters, the Best Hard Coal delivered to any part of the thoughtlessly, looking at Arnold with whom Arnold in his fit of penitence had Cash with order, or inside of 30 days. $6.25 per Ton charged for longer dates. "Of course not; but you know what it taken next month to D -- bad, a watering place a few hours' distance from Steinbuhl. Dr. K—— did not premise You must be mine, mine for ever. I will never have pressed you about your marrinever have pressed you have your marrinever do anything to win it back. I will let age, much as I should have regretted age, much as I should have regretted ber should be abspaced. mesalliance; you should have spoken to It was a very puzzling question to put, Gabrielle's faucies, and sparing her any

The 25th of May was the day fixed for the winds," she answered, still trembling advise you to break your word a second with the vehemence of her words. "You home, but his presence would make itself tune by going against the conditions of felt; he was always going and coming, seeing and directing everything-was, in "It is not the fortune you are thinking | fact, far more the real master of the house

(To e continued)

World's Dispensary.

ances, or the general health not good, the judicious use of medicine should be employed. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best tonic and nervine at this time. The best bodily condition results from its use.

For all women, at all times of life, common to women, it is guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money is

A great many medicines "relieve" Catarrh in the Head. That means At she ran down the rickety wooden different from them, that I am shallow could vent his feelings to no one; and mild, soothing, cleansing and healing stells with swift feet, pushing back her and have not got the power of loving could vent his feelings to no one; and bearing the swift feet, pushing back her and have not got the power of loving could vent his feelings to no one; and the swift feet, pushing back her and have not got the power of loving could vent his feelings. stels with swift feet, pushing back her and have not got the power of loving eyen had there been snybody of his own properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Rembar to cool her face, she saw Arnold not truly. They say Mexicans are shallow; mind be was too proud to display his

F. VanCamp

Cut Nail Wire Na

PAINTS { White Le WIRE | Annealed W

Iron Work. COMPETENT WORKMEN.

All kinds

VANCAMP.

112 KENT STREET.

Hughan & Co.

We are now in our New Premises and almost opposite our late location.

We think we have the most convenient andis located premises in town, which will given a better opportunity of displaying our large Stock of WATCHES, CLOCKS, SILVERWARE, FANCY GOODS, ETC.

Call and see us whether you want to buy orm

Lindsay, April 10th, 1894.-800

James Reith.

CLOVER SEE Clover Seed wanted, for which PRICE will be Paid.

ALSO AGENT FOR THE Insurance Company.

Thoroughbred and Farm Stock Insured at very Low Rates.

Fetch on your Seeds and get your Farm Stock Insured at substances which are

JAS. KEITH'S, WILLIAM W. G. Woods.

DAIRY FOR THE FARMERS

VICTOR/A

You will n

in the line of 1 this season. certain that money by buy newest in relia Butter Churns-

Butter Prints, Bowls, Creamery Cans, Pans, Pails, Etc., at reasonable We are also showing a number of lab WASHING MACHINES. Every housekeel see them.

W-G-WOO Stove and Tinware Lindsay, April 10th, 1884,-805, pered from the Tele Exchanges. e rare instance of the hole trio of triplets wat Whitenast, Eng ere are, according to 4,894,112 voters 25,628 in Scotland, Thursday last, Mi

INTERES

Publishers'

ECANADIA

DVERTISING

ents per line (solid types; three cents each subs ing notices in local a cattle, teachers wante or eight lines) $1.00 ca sertions. If more than all proportionate charge ral discount to merch isements by the year Eates made known on

WILSON & WILSON,

DSAY, FRIDAY,

WS OF THE

E AND FOREIG

Canadian

WILSON.

her of powder ex mine, near Jer lay, burning seven French governmen city council of E rearing on the stre known as the divi sks weighed 360 po the tucks weighed Earl of Dufferin the smallest book in the size of a postage

nie Weldt, 22 years was found dead York, Thursday ev week in a distillers at. New York, reinjury to four of es tenanted the ion and fire cut the ray. Fifteen chlidren upper windows, So of the second story to ext house. baries Carpenter, of C oint of the shears in and the other just savaring an artery. .Edgar Hurdle, a Mc ring sheep, was thrown the sharp points of t pints penetrating ab nches below the hear h lower. The woun ep, and are quite t the sufferer may poss larles Prism, who for gating committee creased. His total every change of pols was required to an initiation fee, wh $500, the ward deter ors and sometimes Sc nilesome workmen w near the village of A beyexhumed the ske lian, evidently a c a were found two a on a crown and on the this nick was a ne lid sliver clasps, or them were suspend het and a scalping , a silver bracelet, things, showing th of aborigine was a tance. Daring Pon men had a bloody disc , and it is supposed saac Alder, of Cincin in a foolhardy attemy naut. A plenie was a resort five the Ohio side, a N., had been adv ascension and loon was inflated in readiness, when ther. Alder, who b them and rough the crowd, volu I advised him not to der was determined, the parachute bar, cal cut loose. Some one balloon shot up with hen fully 1,000 feet der released the part wn. The parachute

e descent worked all ver having made an not know how to a his book in the Ohio from the Keptuck ng and disappears