No Peace Day of Night: Dectors Falled: Cured by Cuticura:

cured. I would like anyone suffering from the cured. I would like anyone suffering from the terrible disease to see my boy, who is in his twelfth year now. His complexion is as clear twelfth year now. His complexion is as clear and smooth as can be. This is an unsolicited and smooth as can be. This is an unsolicited and smooth as can be this is an unsolicited and smooth as can be this is an unsolicited and for my child's recovery, and I thank the good for my child's recovery, and I thank the manufacturer of CUTICURA.

MRS. E. S. GAMBLE,

852 N. Forty-Second St., Philadelphia

And have effected the most wonderful cures of torturing and disfiguring skin and scalp diseases of infants and children ever recorded. They afford instant relief, permit rest and sleep, and afford instant relief, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure when the best physicians and all other remedies fail.

Sold throughout the world. Price, CUTICURA, 75c.; SOAP, 35c.; RESOLVENT, $1.50 POTTER DRUG AND CHEM. CORP., Sole Proprietors, Boston. "How to Cure Skin Diseases," mailed free.

BABY'S Skin and Scalp purified and beautified by CUTICURA SOAP. Absolutely pure. IF TIRED, ACHING, NERVOUS Mothers knew the comfort, strength and vitality in Cuticura Anti-Pain Plasters, they would never be with-

Canadian

LINDSAY, FRIDAY, JUNE 15 1894.

A MEXICAN BELLE.

An Intensely Interesting Tale of Life in Austria and Mexico,

(Continued from last week) "How dull the house seems without Arnold!" Gabrielle once said to Reata; it was the day after Arnold's departure. "I wish he were back again."

Reata was standing near the piano, touching a note here and there, lazily fingering a low minor accompaniment, busier with her own thoughts than with the notes. Presently she make a sudden remark, which appeared to Gabrielle irrelevant and startling.

"Why do not your two brothers get married on the same day?"

"Oh, Arnold does not want to marry yet, I suppose. Papa would have been very glad if he had; he is always wanting to hurry him."

"But why is he so slow about it?" and Reata struck another chord impatiently. "Surely Hermine is old enough to marry; she looks at least two years older than she is."

engaged for some time before they ing chord, like a cry of triumph. I always thought they were!" "What could have made you think been so fond of Arnold."

not," said Reata, decisively; and again so delightful, but which makes others her fingers strayed over the yellow-white sicken. It came from the flower-beds, ment at Snyhinice, a quiet though joy- The birds were singing again almost like ful day at Steinbuhl, a proud day for the in the first spring days. old baron, and a day of strage sensations for Reata. Relief had a great part in her marked Reata, when they were passing feelings, but also remorse; she had much through the old beech grove behind the to reproach herself with, for if Otto had farm, where the slavish hens, who a few been false and fickle towards her, neither ago had hung upon every movement of had she been quite fair towards him. the Chochin-china cock, were courting There had been moments during the last and cringing before his black-feathered terror and self-reproach made her tremble "Of course Arnold will have shot it;" am going to shoot that bird up at her own folly, and in fear of what Otto and Hermine turned her eyea upon her there," she called back, laughing, because might be driven to. He loved her, or companion with such graye wonder and she was half afraid at what she was doing, rather he was infatuated with her—she reproof, that Reata did not throw out and she raised up the gun, and put it to had seen that in his eyes and heard it in another doubt, and felt half ashamed of her shoulder in a sort of fashion; she had his tones: what if she should have ruined having questioned the possibility of the never held a firearm before, and she had and wrecked a man's life! During all the guilty fox's escape.

In the hay-field, beyond the beech of the beech of the beech of the beat of these, had passed and repased through trees, it was far wetter to walk than over polished barrel; there was a bird flying her mind, and on the day that was Otto's the path they had followed. The hay above the trees opposite. The crimson wedding day they were more tumultuous was almost ready for the scythe, and light was dazzling her eyes, so that she than ever. She had had time enough to flowered high and mixed with many colors. | could scarcely see distinctly. She set her get accustomed to the idea that Otto's There was a narrow strip by the hedge teeth, and made a tug at the trigger. weading-day was not her wedding-day, where they could walk in tolcrable combut in spite of everything that had passed, fort; but even here Hermine's flounces hold of Hermine's arm and dragging her is these Pellets to clear up your it touched her strangely to think that her got sadly draggled, and had it not been aside. closely bound together, were now to lie the hopes of meeting the returning fingers; the gun swerved down, and went into healthful action. Sick apart. She would not have it otherwise, sportsman, it might have been called with it came a shrick, and then for a with it came a shrick, and then for a mothing more than a very wet, uncomcertainty and the realization which were tortable, and unsatisfactory piece of moment Reata was blinded with the constitution, Indigestion, Bil-

but although no word had been said, it was understood between the Baron and wait Arnold. was understood between the Baron and await Arnold.

Madame Schwerendorf that this visit was They had not long to wait; soon Arn. still, trembling, and the gun slipped from the cheapest pill you can buy, for thing had been, and what everybody had looked like. They were hardly quite satisfied when Arnold went out to make a round of the stables, farm, etc., to see what had been going on during his ab-

my absense;" and Arnold

dark deed in the deed of hight:
ot at home everything goes wrong at were at home?" inquired Beats. Gabrielle, confidently, for her brother. while Hermine's eyes said the same, "Everybody is so afraid of Arnold."

"Not foxes, and not—everybody," said Reats, rather low, and bending over her

Arnold merely frowned, and said he would take his gun that evening and cast

Only late in the afternoon the grey vault Reata's eyes were fixed on the sky she opened to let blue streaks be seen, and, ments of clouds, which went drifting Hermine imploringly to Reats. away, leaving more blue sky uncovered every minute; and presently the sun and smiled down its rays upon earth pleasure in provoking these two. Herbefere sinking to rest.

Gabrielle was taking her afternoon sleep up-stairs, Hermine and Reata were enjoying each other's society down-stairs. her. "I tell you what," said Reata rising from her chair, as the first shower of sunlight ceme through the window-panes, puching up the old gilt frames of the family pictures, and making little squares of light on the floor, - "it is going to be quite fine now-let us go out for a walk; we have not been out to-day, and I am panting for fresh air." Reata was panting for fresh air; and besidys, she had begun to find the conversation with Hermine rather heavy in hand, rather like dragging a weight up hill, and she thought that out of doors she would perhaps find it easier to talk, or, if not, at all events she would have the trees and the birds for company.

"But isn't it far too late?" objected

"Not at all, it is only six o'clock." "And I am sure it is going to rain again: I can see the clouds from here." "But can't you see that the sunshine is driving them away? There is more blue sky than clouds now.

"Only delightfully dewy and fresh." "And my shoes are so thin."

"Then put on thicker ones." "We will get our dresses so dirty," said Hermine, ruefully looking down at

"We can hold them up," said Reata, laughing, and thinking to herself, "How can such a large girl make so many small objections?" then added aloud, "Come, Hermine, we will and meet Baron Arnold

"Oh, but they are not even engaged and see whether he has killed the fox." yet, you know; and they will have to be The rueful expression on Hermine's thin shoes and muslin flounces, and, putting down her work, she got up readily,

every lilac-leaf was transformed into a the loaded gun was leaning. "Oh, I was told; and besides—besides tiny green cup brimful of liquid crystal; -- " she was thinking of that afternoon | the gravel was dark and a glistening; the among the lilacs, and that evening on the rain pipes of the house still sent down little streams of water. There were a "But I will tell you something if you hundred sweet scents in the air : every " said Gabrielle, sitting up among flower in the grass of the lawn and in the her pillows; "It is a great secret, and you garden-beds seemed to have gathered new must not tell anybody," Reata nodded; strength, and to be sending out its perfume; the chords were still for a second—she was with tenfold power—strongest of all, the listening. "Arnold has promised papa- wallflowers and the lime-blossoms; but he promised last year,—that he would there was no perfume of lilacs—they had propose to her this June, and we are very | died more than a week ago; nor of roses, | near June now; and Hermine is coming for they were not yet grown up—they to-morrow, you know, and she is to stay were still in the nursery in their green some time, so it might be very soon. pinafores, too young to play their part in What fun it will be! I am sure she can- the flower world, the crimson buds just not refuse him; Hermine has always beginning to burst through into sight. Mingling with everything there was a "No, she cannot refuse him—she will smell of fresh earth—that to some people keys, and fell back into the low minor from under the hedges, from the damp accompaniment she had been playing walk where the two girls were passing along towards the farm, and across which

The day after this was Otto's wedding- hundreds of lively snails were crawling, day,-a day of disturbance and excite- luxuriating in the delightful dampness. "Will the fox be shot, I wonder?" reio mean more than an ordinary one. They nad not long to wait, soon Arm the fir-wood her hands and lay in the grass at her old's figure emerged from the fir-wood her hands and lay in the grass at her old's figure emerged from the fir-wood her hands and lay in the grass at her old's figure emerged from the fir-wood her hands and lay in the grass at her old's figure emerged from the fir-wood her hands and lay in the grass at her old's figure emerged from the fir-wood her hands and lay in the grass at her old so old's figure emerged from the fir-wood her hands and lay in the grass at her old so old's figure emerged from the fir-wood her hands and lay in the grass at her old so old's figure emerged from the fir-wood her hands and lay in the grass at her old so old's figure emerged from the fir-wood her hands and lay in the grass at her old so old's figure emerged from the fir-wood her hands and lay in the grass at her old so old so figure emerged from the fir-wood her face and old so old so figure emerged from the fir-wood her face and old so old so figure emerged from the fire-wood her face and old so old so figure emerged from the fire-wood her face and old so ol the early morning, and it took all the other end of the field. He came along time of breakfast to satisfy Gabrielle's whistling, with his gun over his shoulder, innumerable questions about how eyery- but alas foxless! they could see that answer. "How are we to believe the he has shot it if he has nothing to show!"

Have you shot the fox; Arnold?"

ping with rain," put in Arnold. idly, looking first at Arnold; and then at Reata looked away impatiently.

back with folded arms, her head resting against the stile, and looking up calmly into the sky above. Arnold frowned, and turned from her. "But you will come if I ask you, Her-about for the miscreant.

It was a showery day, such as will sometimes follow upon heat; it rained and cleared up at intervals, but the sun and cleared up at intervals, but the sun did not shine out between, as in April did not shine out between, as in April old," and she smiled at him; even though old," and she smiled at him; even though old," and she smiled at him; even though mine?" There was a pointed stress on

"But you will come with us, too," said "No, I shall remain here," she said, in a hard voice, feeling that she was behaving ungraciously, but taking a strange enough, but she would not-why should she? No one had any right to dictate to "Come along, Hermine, let us go," Arnold put in, shortly, in suppressed

"They are going to leave me all alone!" thought Reata, with a pang of regret sionate grief, seeming like some animated which was rather inconsistent.

the house. Will you not come off that of such despair in her voice that Reata stile!" he added, turning once more to put her hands, shuddering, across her Reata, who still sat immovable. "I will come if you let me fire off your gun for you;" and she looked at him, her color rising, half willing to yield, but afraid to sell her dignity too cheap. "Fire off my gun! certainly not; as if would let you touch it even : it is loaded with cartridges. "Oh, don't, please don't," exclaimed

"Of course not; don't be afraid," Arnold said, reassuringly.

"I shall do it if I like," said Reata, sitting up straight, and looking at Arnold "But the ground will be so muddy and | with strangely shining eyes. would not know how to hold it, and it speaking very low, in spite of her excite-"You could not do it if you tried; you would knock you down." He leant ment. Arnold was regarding her gravely, against the stile, with his elbow on the holding his handkerchief to the wrist top bar, the gun was lean'ng peaceably at his right hand; he had grown a shade twenty yards distance. He thought she paler, and it was not merely the physical was speaking merely in childish defiance; pain that had made him pale. eyes he would not have smiled in that | "and this little scratch on my wrist does but if he had seen the angry light in her patronising manner-just the manner not signify, but there might have been a most calculated to raise the evil defiant

"Reata, let us come away; Arnold says gone now. She could see that the handyou cannot do it."

and then, with a sudden movement which on to the green grass below. The shot Without, everything was bathed in upstarting of a deer, she had stood up out this hand to draw Hermine back. the plane came down with a grand crashing chord, like a cry of triumph "Why freshly fallen rain. The grass blades and sprang into the long grass of the field, head bent low could be and sprang into the long grass of the field,

The dying sunbeams touched everything with crimson and gold, they were breaking on every raindrop that hung on the leaves and grass-blades all around; they fell Hermine's yellow hair, and made golden; they shot into Reata's eyes, and made them flash fiercely. Of the great banks of clouds which the day over had been sending down their showers of rain there remained only long dark streaks, deep purple, showing almost black against all the glory of crimson and orange, dying of into rose and lilac and tenderest

As Reata sprang past him with that sudden movement, Arnold, staggered at her, impetuosity, for a moment lost his presence of mind, and did not arrest her, as he might have done easily, by only laying his hand on her arm, when she shot past him, her sleeve brushing his. He was not only a good deal surprised, but a good deal provoked, and he strode after her quickly, with an angry flush on his face. He had not made more than two steps when he saw that he was too late; Reata's quick feet had carried her to the paling, and she had snatched up the gun. H was not going to wrestle with her for it -that might lead to worse things than leaving her alone. It was clear to him, as he saw her face now, that she would not give it up without a struggle.

"Don't fire it off-I forbid you," he called out imperatively, and stopped as

"Take care!" shouted Arnold, seizing

The hard steel trigger hurt Reata's system and start your liver walking. There was another hay-field crimson glare of the sky; the smell of ious Attacks, and all derangenew and strange.

While Arnold was away, Hermine came to Steinbuhl to stay for an indefinition. She had often come before; the other side it looked so wet that Reata the other side it looked so wet

N. K. Fairbank Co. "Commend to Your Honorable Wife" and tell her that I am composed of clarified cottonseed oil and refined beef suct; that I am the purest of all cooking fats; that my name is that I am better than lard, and more useful than butter; that I am equal in shortening to twice the quantity of either, and make food much easier of digestion. I am to be found everywhere in 3 and 5 pound pails, but am Made only by

"You have killed him!" shrieked Hermine again in a voice of despair, and threw up her arms wildly; her figure, half seen through the curl of white smoke, her features all alight with passtatue of Germania bewailing her dead best to fire it off before we get too near | sons on a battle field. There was a ring gists at $1 per package, or six for $5, or sent by mail on receipt of price by addressing THE JAMES MEDICINE OO., Toronto, Ont. Write for pamphlet. Sold in eyes to shut out what she dreaded to see -to shut out light and everything

"Oh, Arnold, Arnold! what has she

Eor one second Reata stood with her hands over his face, and then she tore them away as if with a wrench. She Hermine, in vague alarm. Don't let her, must look—anything was better than this

And she gave a little cry of joyful relief; Arnold was standing close in front of Cash Advanced on Farmer s' Sale Notes her, alive and upright-not a mangled corpse, as her imagination had been show-

"Then I have not killed you," she said, Special privileges of re-payment on straight loans offered to farmers and others desirous of changing their mortgages, and having their in-terest reduced to the very lowest rate. The cost is small compared to the saving effected.

"No, I am not killed," he said, quietly dreadful accident; you must never do it again. He was looking at her still, not general Insurance Agent, Banker and Brote and Brote grant he had looked angry before, when "Please don't," repeated Hermine, who angrily; he had looked angry before, when had a mortal dread of all firearms. she had run for the gun, but that was all "He can't prevent me," said Reata - a drop or two trickled through his fingers great burden of pain and relief. could have fallen on her knees before him and cried out for his forgiveness with tears; but was it the fear of betraying her tumultuous feeling, or was it her old spirit of contradiction which made her repress every sign of emotion? She looked up at him with an attempt at lightness, and when he said-

"You must promise never to do it again," she answered, with a slight shrug of her

"Yes, I promise never to shoot you again if you don't like it." (To be continued)

World's Dispensary.

PUT UP -in glass vials, hermetically sealed, and always fresh - is the way Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets come. When you take pills it's an important point to have them small-provided they have equal strength and efficacy. You'll find what you want in these little liver pills of Dr. Pierce. They're put up in a better way, and they act in a better way, than the huge old-fashioned pills. What you want when you're "all out of sorts"-grumpy, thick-headed and take a gloomy view of life,

Leader Churns, kinds and Galvanized

Nerve Beans.

TREATMENTS have failed even to relieve. Sold by drug-

Sold in Lindsay by A. Higinbotham

J. H. Sootheran.

at Lowest Rates on Mortgage Security, or on approved Indorsed Notes.

NOTES DISCOUNTED

MORTGAGES CHANGED.

REAL ESTATE bought and sold on Commission.

A. Higinbotham.

indsay, October 18th, 1892,-28-ly.

SOOTHERAN

All we ask of you is simply to give our

Cream Baking Powder a good trial. It will surprise you as it is made fresh every

free from ammonia, substances which are

Miss O'Brien.

VERY LOW.

Pattern Bonnets,

Novelties in Trimmings.

The ladies of Lindsay and surrounding country who have not yet selected their New Hat for summer should call and see my selection before purchasing elsewhere.
PRICES RIGHT.

MISS O'BRIEN.

A Few Doors East of the Berson House

nery at special prices.

Lindsay "April 10th, 1894,-805,

Untrimmed Hats,

Artificial Flowers.

injurious.

Iron Work.

WORKMEN. COMPETENT F. VANCAMP.

F. VanCamp

112 KENT STREET.

Hughan & Co.

REMOVAI

We are now in our New Premises and almost opposite our late location,

We think we have the most convenient and be located premises in town, which will give w a better opportunity of displaying our large Stock of WATCHES, CLOCKS, SILVERWARE, FANCY GOODS, ETC.

Call and see us whether you want to buy or a

Lindsay, April 10th, 1894.-805

James Reith.

CLOVER SEED Clover Seed wanted, for which the PRICE will be Paid.

Insurance Company.

Thoroughbred and Farm Stock Insured at very week, and positively Low Rates.

phosphate and other Fetch on your Beeds and get your Farm Stock Insured at JAS. KEITH'S, WILLIAM W. G. Woods.

DAIRY SUPPLIES FOR THE FARMERS VICTOR/A COUNTY.

Lindsay, April 10th, 1884,-805,

You will no in the line of Da this season. be a certainty, certain that money by buying

Butter Churns-

Butter Prints, Bowls, Creamery Cans, Pans, Pails, Etc., at reasonable m We are also showing a number of labo WASHING MACHINES. Every housekeepe see them.

W-G-W00 Stove and Tinware E

Publishers' Notice, HE CANADIAN PO

DVERTISING RATES.

Anneale

AND FOREIGN ITEMS pered from the Telegraph and government has dec the French consulate ! Barnett, aged about 42, dry at Howard's Station, Ont.

credit of 1,800,000f, asked ement to enable them to sew British torpedo boat des Hornet, at a trial of speed on on Saturday, attained a spec an hour, equal to over 31

Meyer has been sentenced Smythe, of New York, to im was convicted of poisoning La frowned in lakes. The y is reported as very heavy, M. S. Blake narrowly escal with an ocean steamer in edy on Thursday of last week. reversal of the Blake's el what might have been a

ing rumors prevail in Pa for making the destructive t ims for her builders Temps, of Paris, publish chine, the projectiles being many height, the apparatu bafford buoyancy is without a head. watcher, and ran out ted Farrell had The neighbors say some ache Rohillard, aged ole works on George st. and to take a heavy tombs had gone some he wheel, in which the di caught, turning, and had owing to the heavy stray curred Sunday.

essed was subject to fits, Seiger, of Berlin, Ger., form verge of staryation. that all should die. The oison to their sons Re din gymnasium, from the 1 10, and their daughter seven. Satisfying then their children were dead, wife each drank a cup of ps of poisoned milk were for apartments. After Seiger stand death with a rope, and then I from a door frame. The po the room found all the fam! ger, in whom there we sterwards. Selger left a