MORE STRAW.

Evidences are rapidly accumulating to establish the fact beyond cavil that one of the factors introduced into the present campaign in the hope of defeating the government of Sir Oliver Mowat is the patron movement. Mr. Anderson, in a capital speech at Brown's school-house on Monday last, confronted his audience with incontrovertible facts supporting this conclusion. He reminded his hearers that the patrons were vigorously opposing Sir Oliver Mowat personally, as well no patron candidates were put up against the leaders of the opposition, and furthermore, that three reformers were opposed by patrons whilst only one conservative had such opposition.

We need go no further than our own county to establish beyond question of a doubt that the patron movement is hand and glove with the P.P.A. movement, both of which are friends of Mr. Meredith in his onslaught against the government. At Mr. Bryans' organization meeting at Oakwood there were present tories who during the afternoon were vigorously canvassing reform patrons in behalf of Mr. Campbell, and the discovery of this fact lature will not be likely to support the fortunately opened the eyes of one or two party which regards their aspirations reform patrons who had been up to then deceived by the professions of the tory Reformers must understand that Mr. Meredith, too weak alone to overturn the Mo wat government, is now having his purposes served by tory patrons who are tories first and patrons last, but who are vigorously canvassing reform patrons in behalf of Mr. Campbell in order that the reform vote shall be divided between Dr. McKay and Mr. Campbell, and Mr. Bryans, the tory, shall slip in between. Once for all, let no reformers be deceived. A greater piece of hypocritical canvassing was never known than that of some tory patrons whose names we could mention, canvassing reformers during the day and studying the voters' lists at night in Mr. Bryans' committee rooms. We warn reformers that should Mr. Bryans be elected the tory patrons next day will recognize their reform friends with a chuckle and a laugh at the way they have been gulled and deceived.

Mr. Campbell has quarreled with THE Post because of $1 which was overlooked through there being more than one John Campbell in Mariposa. A heavy thing | pertinent, inasmuch as it will be found to quarrel about, and a still less reason | that on the 26th of June a sufficient for his opposition to Dr. McKay and his number of independent conservatives will passive resistance to Mr. Bryans. Neither Mr. Campbell nor any of his friends op- power the "grand old man" whose twentypose Mr. Bryans at any of his meetings, two years of righteous rule has placed but wherever Dr. McKay appears there Ontario in the proud position she occupies Mr. Campbell and his supporters are in to-day as the best governed state in the opposition to him. One explanation of civilized world. this is offered in the fact that Mr. Campbell asked Dr. McKay for the registry office in behalf of a relative and was refused. Although we are sorry to believe it of Mr. Campbell, yet the battle that is being waged against Dr. McKay by Mr. Campbell and his friends indicates something beyond party differences, because as a matter of fact the Mowat government, more than the opposition, are in and has stated that he is opposed to the Mowat government, and that if it came down to a question of want of confidence he would vote non-confidence in Sir Oliver Mowat. Furthermore, it was the desire of the tories first of all not to bring out a candidate, but to support Mr. Campbell. The influence of the Warder newspaper and the member for North Victoria, however, was too great, and the result was Mr. Bryans' candidature. They who were willing to be Mr. Campbell's friends a short time ago are now canvassing reform patrons, and their canvass is on the line of "Vote for Compbell," and with the mental reservation on their part that they shall and will vote for Bryans.

Again we warn reformers that there is great danger of their being deceived and humbugged, and that too late they may discover that they have been dupes and tools of the tory patrons.

Electors, make no mistakeevery vote cast for Dr. McKay is hear the announcement that Mr. S. H. a vote cast for the Mowat administration. Every vote cast for either of the other candidates is a vote cast against Mowat.

OTTAWA TO THE RESCUE.

As the provincial campaign progresses Arrangements have been made to have evidences multiply that the Dominion the Hon. G. W. It is, of course, not hard to undering has grown thin. The tens of millions of timber limits which Ontario still possesses in the territory saved to us by Sir Oliver are regarded as legitimate prey, and the Ottawa horde licks its lips in anticipation of what it could easily secure from the weak Mr. Meredith were he in possession of the "strong box." Much as we dislike to discourage the "enthusiasm" of Mr. Meredith's Ottawa allies, we must caution them against being too sanguine. Doubtless, in their efforts "to beat Mowat" they are counting much upon the aid of the patrons. But, as we have before pointed out, the patrons platform is almost entirely in accord with as other members of the cabinet, while liberal principles, and contains nothing of importance but what all good liberals can and do subscribe to. On the other hand, with perhaps one single exception,

-that relating to the fee system-every plank in the platform is abhorrent to the average tory. It is true that the conservative papers are studiously careful about expressing an opinion on the new movement, but it is quite apparent that, except in cases where the P. of I. candidates are uncompromising tories, as the late Sir John Macdonald said of the French Canadian, they have, "no use for the breed." The leaders of the patron movethem who are elected to the next legis-

In East Toronto, the greatest hot-bed of toryism in Ontario, the conservative candidate was afraid to face the music before becoming a member of the P.P.A. In West Toronto the conservative nominee, if not having actually joined the society, has given assurances which are considered satisfactory, and he will get the "solid";

P. P. A. vote. In Hamilton no straight conservative is in the field, but Col. Gibson is opposed by a candidate who is running as a joint P. P. A. and conservative.

If there were any probability of Mr. Meredith succeeding, even by the peculiar alliances he has made, it would be in order to enquire how he would control the conflicting elements by the aid of which he seeks to ride into power. But such an inquiry, we apprehend, is not unite with the liberals to maintain in
