LINDSAY, FRIDAY, JUNE 22 1824. REFORMERSBEWARE--LONOT BE DECEIVED.

No one will be more bitterly aggrieved with himself than the reformer who discovers after the election that the tories | Sir Oliver Mowat -vote for that have been successful through the duplic- government. ity of tory patrons who have beguiled him into voting for Campbell. Every day, however, the tactics of the tory canvasser are becoming plainer. No reformer with the tories, for every man of them, patron or what else, will undoubtedly support Bryans, and that is the games sought to be played upon our friends. Vote for Dr. McKay and an economical government. OUR LAST WORD.

We believe that the people of Ontario wisdom? will decide on the 26th that "Ontario cannot afford to dismiss Sir Oliver

The opposition are working hard and Mowat." employing all their old tricks-even their pushed harder than ever in this campaign -but we believe the confidence of the electors in Sir Oliver Mowat and his government is stronger than ever.

We have it on good authority that secret means are being used to make sure that the conservative patrons all support Mr. Bryans, leaving any reformers that may be so short-sighted to throw their votes away on Mr. Campbell. Let no reformer be caught in this tory net-Mr. Campbell is not in the race. Be sure you vote for Dr. McKay and the Mowat

CONTEMPTIBLE TACTICS.

We cannot too strongly condemn the kind of campaign tactics exhibited at the he votes for Campbell, (who has not a is an infamous thing at any time to stir "they cannot now violate their tacit shadow of a chance), he practically votes up strife among neighbors, and to breed discord between different classes and sects in the community, but when a woman of the stamp of Mrs. Shephard is brought here for that purpose, language fails to express our condemnation of the party responsible for her presence among us. This woman stand before the public self-condemned by her own testimony Before another copy of THE POST given in the courts at Toronto, and reaches our subscribers the electors will published at the time in the daily papers, have signified by their votes at the polls and yet she is brought here to teach which party will hold the reins of power people how to vote. She was brought for the coming four years. We have here, she said on the platform, to help to "Mowat with anti-temperance electors. every reason to hope, judging by the re- overthrow the government of Sir Oliver "The fact that Mr. Mowat took his government of Sir Oliver Mowat will be McKay. Mr. Bryans and his party cannot escape the responsibility of such miserable tactics. Of course neither he nor his ordinary committee wrote to her, but his secret agents did the work, and she avows old favorite "Protestant horse" is being herself his supporter. Let every man who loves fair play, and home peace, and good will, put down this horrid attempt to breed intolerance among the people of decay. Intolerance has ruined many of the world's best nations. As we love our country, our civilization, and our faith, let us keep it out of Canada.

Electors, make no mistakeevery vote cast for Dr. McKay is a vote cast for the Mowat administration. Every vote cast for either of the other candidates is a vote cast against Mowat.
