

It is sold on a guarantee by all druggists. It cures Incipient Consumption and is the best Cough and Croup Cure. Sold by A. Higinbotham, Druggist.

Canadian

LINDSAY, FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1896.

BEYOND THE CITY

By A, Conan Doyle, (Continued from last week.)

dark, questioning eyes. The lawn had vanished away, the sloping gardens, the brick villas, the darkeningsky, with half a pale moon beginning to show over the chimney pots. All was gone, and she was only conscious of a dark earnest pleading face, and of a voice far away, disconnected from herself, the voice of a man telling a womar he whe loved her. He was unhappy, said the voice, his life was a void; there was but one thing that could save him; he had come to the parting of the ways; here lay happiness and honor and all that was high and noble; there lay the soul killing round, the lonely life, the base pursuit of money, the sordid, selfish aims. He needed but the hand of the woman that he loved to lead him into the better path.

And how he loved her his life would show. He loved her for her sweetness, for her womanliness for her strength. He had need of her. Would she not come to him? And then of a sudden as she listened it came home to her that the man was Harold Denver, and that she was the woman, and that all God's work was very beautiful-the greensward beneath her feet, the rustling leaves, the long orange slashes in the western sky. She spoke. She scarce knew what the broken words were, but she saw the light of joy shine out on his face, and her hand was still in his as they wandered amid the twilight. They said no more now, but only wandered and felt each other's presence. All was fresh around them, familiar and yet new, tinged with the beauty of their own new found happiness.

"Did you not know it before?" he asked.

"I did not care to think it." "What a mask of ice I must wear! How could a man feel as I have done the east and brought them back to the realities of life.

"Oh, Harold, I am so happy! "You must go in. You will be cold." "My father will wonder where I am.

Shall I say anything to him?" "If you like, my darling. Or I will in the morning. I must tell my mother tonight. I know how delighted she will

"I do hope so."

"Let me take you up the garden path. It is so dark. Your lamp is not lit yet. There is the window. Till tomorrow, then, dearest." "Till tomorrow, Harold."

"My own darling!" He stooped, and their lips met for the first time. Then as she pushed open the folding windows she heard his quick firm step as it passed down the graveled path. A lamp was lit as she entered the room, and there was Ida, dancing about like a mischievous little fairy, in front of her.

"And have you anything to tell me?" she asked, with a solemn face. Then suddenly throwing her arms round her sister's neck: "Oh, you dear, dear old Clara! I am so pleased. I am so pleased." * am 80

CHAPTER VIL

"VENIT TANDEM FELICITAS." It was just three days after the doctor and the admiral had congratulated each other upon the closer tie which was to unite their two families, and to turn their friendship into something even dearer and more intimate, that Miss Ida Walker received a letter which caused her some surprise and considerable amusement. It was dated from next door and was handed in by the red-headed page after breakfast. "Dear Miss Ida," began this curious document and then relapsed suddenly into the third person. "Mr. Charles Westmacott hopes that he may have the extreme pleasure of a ride with Miss

"May I have it," said he, "for life!" "Certainly, admiral. We would not hurry you in your decision. But we still hope to see you on our platform." She rose and moved about in her lounging masculine fashion from one picture to there was at least pity and sympathy, another, for the walls were thickly covered with reminiscences of the admiral's

Ida Walker upon his tandem tricycle, Mr. Charles Westmacott will bring it round in half an hour. You in front

Strange as was the form the meaning was clear enough, so Ida hastened to her room and had hardly slipped on her light gray cycling dress when she saw the tandem with its large occupant at the door.

He handed her up to her saddle with a more solemn and thoughtful face than was usual with him, and a few moments later they were flying along the beautiful smooth suburban roads in the direction of Forest hill. The great limbs of the athlete made the heavy machine

spring and quiver with every stroke, while the mignon gray figure, with the laughing face and the golden curls blowing from under the little pink banded straw hat, simply held firmly to her perch and let the treadles whirl round beneath her feet. Mile after mile they flew, the wind beating in her face, the trees dancing past in two long ranks on either side, until they had passed round

Croydon and were approaching Nor-ing over her shoulder and turning toward him a little pink ear, fluffy golden curl, and one blue eye twinkling from

"Not a bit. I am just getting my

"Isn't it wonderful to be so strong?

"Well, because it is so powerful and reliationand unreasoning. Well, I didn't mear that last, you know, but-but-you know what I mean. What is the

"Because you have something on your

He broke into a grewsome laugh. "1

"Oh, no, you are not. And why did write me such a dreadfully stiff let-

"There, now," he cried, "I was sure it

"Oh, no. It was a person of the name

"I knew it would come out. I felt

"He is wonderful at expressing himself. He wrote a book called 'The Secret Solved; or, Letter Writing Made

Easy.' It gives you models of all sorts

Ida burst out laughing. "So you ac-

"It was to invite a young lady to a picnic, but I set to work and soon got it changed so that it would do very well.

Slattery seems never to have asked any one to ride a tandem. But when I had written it, it seemed so dreadfully stiff that I had to put a little beginning and end of my own, which seemed to bright-

"I thought there was something funny

"Did you? Fancy your noticing the difference in style. How quick you are!

I am very slow at things like that.

ought to have been a woodman or gamekeeper or something. I was made on those lines, but I have found something

"Ranching. I have a chum in Texas.

and he says it is a rare life. I am to buy a share in his business. It is all in the open air-shooting and riding and sport.

Would it-would it inconvenience you much, Ida, to come out there with me?"

Ida nearly fell off her perch in her amazement. The only words of which she could think were, "My goodness me!"

change your arrangements in any way.

He had slowed down and let go of the steering handle, so that the great machine crawled aimlessly about from one side of the road to the other. "I know very well that I am not clever or anything of that sort, but still I would do all I can to make you very happy. Don't you think that in time you might come

Ida gave a cry of fright. "I won't like you if you run me against a brick wall," said she as the machine rasped up against the curb. "Do attend to the

"Yes, I will. But tell me, Ida, wheth-

"Oh, I don't know. It's too absurd!

How can we talk about such things when I cannot see you? You speak to the nape of my neck, and then I have to

"I know. That was why I put 'You in front' upon my letter. I thought that it would make it easier. But if you would prefer it I will stop the machine, and then you can sit round and talk

"Good gracious!" cried Ida. "Fancy

our sitting face to face on a motionless tricycle in the middle of the road and all the people looking out of their windows

it? Well, then suppose that we both get off and push the tandem along in front of Ida burst out laughing. "That would

"Then we will go quietly, and I will look out for the steering. I won't talk about it at all if you would rather not.

But I really do love you very much, and you would make me happy if you came to Texas with me, and I think that perhaps after a time I could make you happy

"Oh, she would like it very much.

can understand that your father might not like to lose you. I'm sure I wouldn't either if I were he. But, after all, America is not very far off nowadays, and it is not so very wild. We would take a grand piano, and-and-a copy of Browning. And Denver and his wife would come over to see us. We should be quite a family party. It would be

Ida sat listening to the stumbling words and awkward phrases which were whispered from the back of her, but there was something in Charles Westmacott's clumsiness of speech which was more moving than the words of the most eloquent of pleaders. He paused, he stammered, he caught his breath between the words, and he blurted out in little blunt phrases all the hopes of his heart. If love had not come to her yet, which are nearly akin to it. Wonder

[To be Continued.]

"Oh, no; this is better than that."

"Or I could carry the thing."

be more absurd still."

"But your aunt?"

"It would look rather funny, wouldn't twist my head round to answer."

"If it would not upset your plans or that it would. You've heard of Slattery, was stiff. I said it was absurdly stiff."

"It wasn't my own composition."

"Whose then! Your aunt's?"

mind. You have not laughed once."

You always remind me of a steam en-

the very corner of its lid.

"Why a steam engine?"

matter with you?"

am quite jolly," said he.

"Then why write it?"

"Goodness! Who is he?"

"Why?"

the author?"

"Never."

tually copied one."

en it up a good deal."

about the beginning and end."

"What is that, then?"

so she said them.

to like me a little bit?"

er you will come with me."

"Aren't you tired?" she asked, glancwood once more from the farther side.

Yours very truly, Charles Westmacott." The whole was written in a large, Toronto McCarthyites loose jointed, schoolboyish hand, very thin on the up strokes and thick on the Hold a Meeting down, as though care and pains had gone to the fashioning of it.

Mr, Lount's Candidature in Centre Toronto-What Mr. McCarthy Said in Winnipeg-Liberals at Barrie-· Will the Premier Visit Toronto ?- Campaign Notes.

Toronto, June 2. The McCarthyites held a meeting at the Y.M.C.A. West End Hall last night. There was an audience limited only by the size of the hall, a number of ladies occupying seats in the galleries. Owing to an unexpected delay while en route from Winnipeg, Mr. Mc-Carthy was not present. The gathering was enthusiastic, and at times displayed antagonism towards the candidature of Messrs. Clarke and Mr. M. A. Brown said that there was a request sent to Mr. E. F.Clarke in reference to his vote on the school question; and at the demand of the audience read the letter and the reply thereto, which has already been published, and the reading of which was received with cheers and hisses. He stated that an invitation had been sent to Mr. Clarke to attend and explain his letter. To this invitation no response had been made. (Hisses.) Rev. E. S. Rowe moved the first resolution, as follows: That the electors here present require to be represented in the House of Commons by membrs pledged to continuously seek to remove from office any Government that through Ontario. I shall not come persists in the coercion of Manitoba by the Remedial Bill.

This resolution, the mover said, had no "but" in its phraseology. It set forth their views in simple, plain terms. They objected to coercion, and wanted men sent to Parliament whom they know there is no need to pledge. (Cheers.) Some years ago they had received a bitter pill to swallow, and had been taught a severe lesson on the question of provincial rights-that was on the Jesuits Estate Act-but they had learned their leson so well that now they wanted to uphoid provincial rights. They believed that the people of Manitoba should not be compelled to make laws and live under those laws, contrary to their desire and wishes, and contrary to their belief. What power was there that could say that a law which had been declared ultra vires should be set aside by another law? The claim that the Remedial order was issued to carry out the judgment of the Privy Counci was a subterfuge. (Cheers.) It was really issued because Aschbishop Langevin demanded it, and not because was law: For himself, as a British subject, he was prepared to take his law and constitution from the British Empire, but he was not prepared to take them from the palace of any Roman Catholic archbishop. (Loud

Ald. J. J. Graham, in seconding the resolution, placed himself on record as being opposed to coercion of Manitoba on the school question.

Mr. A. T. Hunter said it was a little unfortunate that Mr. E. B. Osles had gone abroad after havin obtain ed permission of the members of the Albany Club, a set of gentlemen who used to be their political leaders and proprietors. It is unfortunate that Mr. Osler cannot be present, and it may be that they have held out to him that West Toronto was a sort of pocket borough in the gift of the Albany Club; he may fail in his expecttations. (Cheers.) The case of Mr. E. F. Clarke, who has been before their attention for a number of years, was different. During the past few months, he has, both in The Orange Sentinel and in the Orange lodges, made speeches which have been strongly opposed to Remedial legislation, but when, for the first time pledge was put before him involving a personal sacrifice, he failed to stand the test. When the Orange Grand Lodge, after passing strong resolutions against Remedial legislation, elected by a good majority Bob Birmingham, they would pardon him, the speaker, if he did not place much reliance upon such speeches and votes. It was not a compliment to the electors of West appear as anti-Remedialists, because pear in any other garb. He did not place much reliance on these cand .dates when he said that they were brought out at a convention run by the same gentlemen who brought out Mr. Coatsworth. (Hisses.) On the other hand it may perhaps be unfair to Messrs. Clarke and Osler to judge them by the company they keep, and to insist so much upon the fact that they are not enemies, but have been merely loaned to the electors by the Albany Club. (Laughter.) He had been proud to see that in East Toronto at that magnificent meeting the electors, backed up their resolutions by the nomination of John Ross Robertson, and had every confidence that this meeting did not mean to let the opportunity slip

Mr. John Shields said when they found the Orange Grand Lodge reelecting as secretary the organizer of the Tupper Remedial party, he thought it was time to elect independent men. He moved that a committee be appointed to select a candidate and report at a subsequent meeting. Ald. Jolliffe seconded the resolution.

The resolution was carried. Rev. R. N. Burns moved the third resolution, which was received with a great deal of applause, as follows: "That this meeting of electors of West Toronto most heartily expresses its warm appreciation of the untiring and able efforts of D'Alton McCarthy and those who manfully stood by him in his opposition to the passage of the Remedial Bill in the last session of the Dominion Parliament. We rejoice in his manly independence and unselfish patriotism and commend his example as worthy of imitation by all loyal citi-

Rev. J. F. Ockley seconded the resolu-The meeting adjourned with cheers for McCarthy and the Queen.

MR. LOUNT'S CANDIDATURE. Central Committee Room.

An enthusiastic meeting of the supperters of Mr. Wm. Lount, the Reform candidate for Centre Toronto, was held at the Centre Toronto rooms on Yongestreet last evening, Mr. Peter Small presiding. After a few eulogistic remarks by the chairman concerning the character of the candidate, Mr. Lount addressed the meeting. He said that he had eschewed politics in the past, partly because politics had cut him and partly because he wished to be free to this view of aiding the country that he | who made shift to shelter themselves had now come forward. After paying a | amid the rulns of their homes, or in glowing tribute to the Liberal leaders, empty freight cars. Along the river the speaker turned to the N.P., which he said was now obsolete in usefulness, and then sailed into the Tupper Government. He separated the Conservatives from the Tupperites, he remarked, as many of the former refused to ruins, out of the reach of the wreckfollow "the Prince of Wrong-doers," | ing crews. who, in his Winnipeg campaign, offered bribes right and left, which, if done by an humble individual, would have landed him in jail. In conclusion, he victory at the polls. Trustee Baird spoke of the importance of suavity in dealing with Conservative doubters. The chairman then called on Dr. Jno. S. King to address the meeting. The doctor spoke of his absence from politics and his recent return. As an au-

said that everything pointed to a party gury of coming Liberal success he instanced three life-long Conservatives who were on this occasion to vote on the opposite side, the first because disbelieved in the N.P., the second be-cause Mr. Cockburn moved the postoffice into his own building, and third because he wanted to get even with Mr. Ross. Cockburn in a certain personal mat-nominee of the Reform Convention for West Toronto, to be held to-night, will be Mr. Frank Denton, the well-known

WHAT MR. M'CARTHY SAYS.

About the Feeling in Manitoba on School Question-Ris Plans-John A. Macdennell Still in the Field.

Winnipeg, Man., June 1.-In an interview with D'Alton McCarthy, published this morning, he is asked: "When you return east what will be your statement to the public as to the feeling in Manitoba?" and Mr. McCarthy replied: "I have not the imagination of Sir Charles Tupper, but I shall say what is directly opposite to that part of his speech devoted to the subject. People are aroused on the question of safeguarding their schools. Ontario friends of the Province need have no fear of the result in the west. Manitoba will remain true to her interests." "In the event of your election to both seats, Brandon and North Simcoe, which will you select to sit for?" "I shall select the constituency in which I can best serve the country's interest." "You met with a strong prohibition lement in your tour?" "Yes; I frankly told them I was notin favor of total prohibition; my opponent also said he was not a prohibit-"What are your future plans?"

"I am expected to speak at a public meeting in Toronto Monday night, but week I shall spend in North Simcoe, and then leave for a ten days' tour back to Manitoba before the election the Provincial Government Public Works Department, two months ago was nominated as the Liberal candidate for Selkirk. Last week he desired O'Laughlin of Winnipeg was nominated to succeed him, but O'Loughlin declined. Then Ald. McCreary of Winnipeg was suggested, but he, too, declined. So Saturday the Liberals waited on Mr. Macdonnell and urged him to re-enter. Finally he yielded and today resigned his position in the Local Jovernment service. SIR MACKENZIE INTERVIEWED.

The Ex-Premier Enlightens the British

People on Canadian Politics London, June 1 .- The St. James Gazette this afternoon publishes a long interview with Sir Mackenzie Bowell, ex-Premier of Canada, on the Pacific Cable Conference and Canadian politics. He is quoted as saying he has no doubt that the Conservatives will be successful in the elections unless the school question takes a stronger hold on the people that the Premier thinks it will. He is also quoted as saying that the Liberals were willing to accept reciprocity with the United States, coupled with discrimination against England, but the Conservatives refused to accept the proposition. Suffocated by Gas.

St. Thomas, June 1.-Frederick Cain of Detroit, was suffocated by gas at the Queen's Hotel here last night.

AFTER THE ST. LOUIS CYCLONE.

The Coroner Has Held 110 Inquests on the Bodies of the Victims.

St. Louis, June 1.-At noon to-day practically abandoned their search for the dead in the City Hospital ruins. Not a body was taken from the debris. and every part of the wreckstructure was overhauled. The only missing patients from City Hospital unaccounted for are William Bleicher, Patrick O'Connell and Arthur Slattermus. These may have escaped in safety, and do not care to return.

Coroner Waits has held 110 inquests over remains of the tornado victims in St. Louis. His verdict was rendered as "Death due to shock; accident." There were eight bodies in the Morgue at noon to-day awaiting an inquest Toronto for Mr. Clarke and Mr. Osler to The ony deaths from injuries since Sunday were those of Thomas O'Neill and Julius Kancey. Both were infants. Much to the surprise of the police, there has been less crime in St. Louis since the tornado than before, notwithstanding that the city has been in darkness, and that it was reported that hundreds of crooks from foreign cities had flocked to St. Louis. Chief > of Detecties Desmond, in an interview to-day, said that during Sunday night there was not one report of a theft in the wrecked district. The river gives up its dead slowly, and the statisticians at work on the list of cyclone fatalities have not yet reached an estimate of the number lost in the great waterway. They know certainly that five were lost on the steamer J. J. Odil, and know that others, whose identity remains a mysstery, were positively seen to disappear during the tornado. The river captains and patrolmen along the levee say a conservative estimate of the number of roustabouts, shanty dwellers and flatboat residents who lost their lives in the storm is > than 20, The railroad yards on the east side of the river are being rapidly placed in good condition. On this side the damage to railroads was considerably less, and repairs are go-Plans for the construction of round and freight houses that were blown down are being made. The footway over the Eads Bridge was practically ready for pedestrians this afternoon, and the driveway for wagons will be ready to-morrow or next day. The electric line over the bridge will not be ready for traffic for several days yet, but trains will run over the bridge every 20 milnutes. At 2 o'clock this afternoon The Chronicle compiled the following table as the latest list of fatalities: Known dead in St. Louis 196; unknown dead in St. Louis 8; fatally injured in St. Louis 18; missing in St, Louis 118. Known dead in East St. Louis 145; unknown dead in East St. Louis 3; fatally injured in East St. Louis 2; total Prof. Bauman, the expert insurance adjuster of Chicago, has estimated the property loss at $20,000,000. Helen M. Gould of New York, daughter of the late Jay Gould, has forwarded a check for $1000 for the re-

Forty six were killed in Illinois outside of East St. Louis. Pity aroused by the suffering in St. the mist and fog and malaria are following in the wake of the storm. Foul odors arise from the decaying carcasses of dead animals. Possibly human beings are buried beneath the

A Sad Find,

Memphis, Tenn., June 1.—The body of white woman, clasping in her arms the body of an infant, was drawn from the river in front of this city to-day. Both are badly decomposed, and are supposed to be victims of the St. Lolis cyclone, or to have been tossed off the ferry boat Katherine, which was capsized at Cairo, Ill., in the tornado of

EDITORIAL NOTES

The Mowat government settled the French school difficulty to the satisfaction of both majority and minority.-G. W

All honest men should be thoroughly consistent in the practical application of the principles of his private and business life to the transaction of public affairs .-

The Ottawa tories have been at sixes and sevens, but the Tupperites have brought out Champagne and Robinson, and Sir Charles has wired his approval. The other section of the party is deeply dissatisfied.

E ther Sir Oliver Mowat has rare ability as a constitutional lawyer, or else marvelous iuck as a politician. He has won every case involving provincial rights taken to the judicial committee of the imperial privy council - [Toronto Star.

Sir Hector Langevin has been called to the senate. Tupper dearly loves a boodler, and when the people will have nothing more to do with a man of the Langevin stamp, the senate is open. Why not put McGreevy and Rykert into the senate, coo, to keep Langevin from being lonely

There can't be much money, even in fertile Manitobs, in raising wheat at $20 net a carload, and paying N. P. tax rates on all the farmer must buy. The liberals could relieve him of a good part of the private tax levy without disturbing trade and commerce or cutting down needed

The London Free Press says the N. P. never sought to fix the rates of wages, which is a thing beyond the range of parliament." The workingmen have discovered that fact before the confession was made. The goods are protected; labour must compete in the open market for what it can get-and pay the N. P. rate of taxation.

A carload of wheat for instance (630 bushes) which arrived in Montreal the other day from Manitoba, sold at forty cen's per bushel-$252. Of this sum $220 went to the C P. R., leaving a balance of $32-reduced to about $20, after deducting commisssion charges and the shipper's profi s. Ou: of 630 bushels of wheat ship ped from Manitoba to Mentreal, the C.P.B. appropri tes 550 bashels for fre'ght and other charges,-The (B.C.) Provicce.

The Toronto World regards the municipal by-law fixing the rate of wages on city work at 15 cents an hour as a mistake. It says it is "in excess of its intrinsic value," and adds that "a great many mechanics and skilled laborers' are working "for less than eighteen cents an hour." The World is well informed ; many of them are working for less than the 15 cents an hour rate of city work. And under N.P., too.

Another old war-horse has answered the neigh of Sir Charles Tupper. Mr. J. C. Rykert has been offered and has accepted the conservative nomination for Lincoln Mr. Rykert is the famous "Charlie" who was so hurt because the public came down on him when he "made a little money for the gang of 50 workhouse prisoners his old age" by a shady deal in timber limits which he secured from the Dominion government. Sir Charles Tupper, Rir Hector Langevin, Sir Adolphe Caron, Mr. Thomas McGreevy, Mr. Rykert and Mr. Haggart are all war-horses of the

The St. Catharines Star forgets its tory prejudices long enough to say that "Canadians can hold their own in every walk of life," and goes on to cite some brilliant achievements by Canadians in various parts of the world. There is no doubt about it. But the tory doctrine is that the Canadians are an inferior race who cannot even hold their own at home unless the government interposes a high tariff wall. And the Star boasts of what the N.P. tariff has done, just as if Canadians were a lot of starvelings to whom Mr, Foster played mother raven.

Judge Truax, of the New York suppreme court, has granted an injunction to restrain the National Druggists' As sociation from conspiring and combining sgainst the John D. Park & Sons' Co., because the latter was not a member of their association and would not sign an agreement to maintain prices. The injunction sets forth that the said acts are done by virtue of illegal combination s and conspiracies, to monopolize the trade in drugs and proprietary medicines; to control and regulate the prices at which the same shall be sold; to prevent any and all competition in such trade. The association is declared to be an unlawful one, and is enjoined against carrying out all contracts, resolutions or agreement in pursuance of the restraint of free dealing.

Catskill mountains to take a little nap of twenty years or so, and when he wakened, he found that the "cruel war was over," the monthly magazines had "fought it over" the second time and "blown up" all the officers that had participated in it. This much is history, and it is also an historical fact that, during the same length of time, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery had become the most celebrated, as it is the most effective, Liver, Blood and Lung Remedy of the age. In purifying the blood and in all manner of pimples, blotches, erup-tions, and other skin and scalp diseases, scrofulous sores and swellings, and kindred ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" manifests the most positive curative properties. Every disorder that can be reached through the blood, yields to its purifying qualities. Besides, it builds up wholesome flesh and strength; not merely fat like filthy Cod liver oil and its nasty

"emulsions" but solid flesh. A scrofulous condition of the blood invites catarrh, bronchitis, and consumption. We're all exposed to the germs of consumption, grip and malaria—yet only the weak ones suffer. When you're weak, tired out, and debilitated, or when pimples and blotches appear—heed the warning in time. The "Golden Medical Discovery" sets all the organs into healthy action—especially the liver, and that's the point of entrance for these germs. Then if the blood be pure, they'll be thrown off. There's no risk.

What is

Castoria.

CASTORIA

PRACTICALLY PERFECT PREPARATION FOR CHILDREN'S COMPLAINTS. C-A-S-T-O-R-I-A

Hurley & Brady.

Do Ycu

that fully ninety per cent. of the retail wholesale men of this Dominion of ours fail in business sooner or later?

Why?

There may be many reasons given in explanation. The storekeeper may have been without the requisite business experience; he may have been "swamped" by a live man who was awake to the benefits of advertising; he may have been trying to work up a big trade on unsufficient capital; or he may have killed himself by selling cheap, inferior goods for the sake of the extra profits to be gained.

The Prime Merits Of Our Groceries

were talked of when we began business many years ago, and we've hewed to the lines every day since. Thanks to the course we've followed we've been gaining custom yearly, and "the best groceries at the lowest price" will continue to be our motto till the last day of our business career.

When You

recollect that TEAS, SUGARS, COFFEES and CANNED GOODS represent fully thirty per cent. of our daily sales, it may lead you to believe that we are looking after our own interests closely by giving the best possible values in those lines.

Think

what it would mean to us if we tried to palm off inferior goods in these lines alone? We know what would happen. So do you. Every line in our store is guaranteed to be the best of its kind at the price we ask for it.

HURLEY & BRADY

Family Grocers, East of the Benson House, Lindsay.

James Beith

Get your orchards sprayed and double your fruit harvest by getting the best Spray Pump

Get the Leader Churn. Ack rowledged to be the Best Churn in the market

AT KEITH'S.

Also Seeds of all Kinds and Colors

William-st, Lingsay.

The Post.

THE POST JOB - DEPARTMENT.

the "Golden Medical Discovery" that may be recommended to be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but he is not the one who needs help.

Orders neatly and promptly executed. Estimates and paying him a better profit, but he is not the samples sent by mail when so required. samples sent by mail when so required.

In some gain from th Emulsion is rapid. we put up a cough or co In other must be s almostimpe can't be bu For this S must be tal ment, food medicine, fo tired and v SCOTT & BOWNE, Chem

Scott's

cond

Publish THE CANAD every Friday $1.00 P

REMITTANCE should napper at the comman and Express Money O be sent at our own ris RENEWALS, - It is als before the date on you nsure uninterrupted BACK NUMBERS - We CHANGE OF DATE -I the date after your s date on the paper ind be stopped unless prot CHANGE OF ADDRESS and your new address. your address; the name province you live in sh and your name on our many names are alike, LETTERS should be a

The Can LINDSAY, FRI LIBERAL To be Addre

THE MANDEMEN

Bon. Mr. Haggart

billity - A Trou of Paper Br don, and wall b Oliver Mowat, promises to one held in the pro first meeting di paign, when Mr. will appear tog is the program Laurier will ho

Wednesday, J Thursday, Ju Friday, June

Friday, June

Saturday, Jul herstburg. Monday, June Craig. Monday. Ju Tuesday, Jun Tuesday, Jun It is also prob in Toronto on Sir Oliver Mo wood, South June 2nd, at 1.30 Ross will speak thumberland, or p.m. and in I Glencoe on Jui

Cartwright will

June 8th, at 8 1 will speak at E day, June 3rd. MR. HAG At a recent m gart, Minister o disclaimed all Curran Bridge other jobs in c partment, statir not supposed to He claims cred saved the publ not to bear the man, truly, to b tario, on Sunda instructed to v would support The mandamen those who vot Legislation, and is also an ant that the Roman A joint meet and East York ville on the ev Messrs. Edgar didates for the Mr. Calvin. and a Conserve opinion that a is desirable and The endorsat lace's course b Lodge is provi for the Govern think that the ally vote Conse rule, are oppose would be found Conservative termined attitu the Grand Lods reckoning with Notwithstand Laurier is winn vince of Quebec successful mee of the province was going to h port that appe mandament was ple are coming that the settler tion is safer in of the Government. Pedley of lum of Paisley, die in Halton addressed sever Mr. William Will address th