Wildly Cheered at Belle River and

Windsor Yesterday.

Windsor, June 5 .- The attention of the municipal authorities in Western Ontario is called to the fact that in cities, towns and villages under their Jurisdiction there is not to be found a public or any other kind of a building capable of accommodating people who want to see and hear Hon. Wilfrid The leader was to have appeared in the Opera House here to-night, but that thing was out of the question, and the meeting was taken to an open square where there was room for everybody. A great wave of Liberal sentiment has swapt over this end of the province, and the appearance of the chieftain among the people has imparted additional force to it. AT BELLE RIVER.

Mr. Laurier, accompanied by Mr. Wm. McGregor and Hon. Jas. Young. Was met at the station at Belle River on the arrival of the Grand Trunk midday express by an immense crowd of people, who cheered the visitors with much enthusiasm. A large proportion of those in the assemblage were French-Canadians, who led in the demonstration to their distinguished compatriot. A procession, headed by the Belle River band, escorted the leader to Stover's Grove, where, under the branching and leafy elms, the people gathered to get Liberal doctrine from its most eloquent exponent. The meeting was opened with the singing of "The Maple Leaf Forever" by the Laurier Male Quartet of London. The fame of the quartette has spread abroad, and it is much in demand for the meetings yet to be held. The Chairman was ex-Warden Bouteller, who extended a very cordial Velcome to the Liberal chieftain.

Mr. McGregor, who has during his Parliamentary career well represented the people of North Essex, was given a spirited reception by his constituents. Among them were many Conservatives, who are in this election found within the ranks of the Liberal party. Mr. McGregor paid an eloquent tribute to his leader and to Sir Oliver Mowat, under whom, he said, there would be capable and honest government. He demanded such a change in the fiscal system of the country as would enable the farmers of Canada to buy in the cheapest market and sell in

Mr. Young was most effective in the brief address that he delivered. Amid much cheering the meeting was brought to a conclusion, and then the people formed into a line of march and accompanied Mr. Laurier to the station. He was sped on his way by a volley of farewell cheers.

His welcome in Windsor could not have been more enthusiastic than it was. Everybody was out to see him and to cheer him. Men, women and You can't children, Grits and Tories, came to participate in the demonstration. When mutual greetings had been exchanged between the distinguished visitor and prominent local Liberals a procession was formed, with the 21st Fusiller band at its head and a host of people were in line were Mr. Laurier, Mr. Mr-Gregor, Mr. Francis Cleary, President of the North Essex Liberal Association, and the other officers of that organization. Arrangements had been made to hold the meeting in the Opera House, and, large as the building is, it was totally inadequate to accommodate the vast throng that was determined to near the principles of Canadian Liberalism enunciated by their most eminent advocate. It is upon this ground that I am engaging in this contest, and upon this ground I shall win or fall forever." TEN THOUSAND PEOPLE TURN OU

To Welcome the Coming Premier and Listen to His Eloquence-Great Demonstrations of Enthusiasm at Ailsa Craig, Lucan and St, Mary's.

St. Mary's, June 8.—The second week of Mr. Laurier's Ontario tour opened auspiciously to-day with two magnificent meetings, which combined, brought more than 10,000 people within range of his eloquence. The unbroken record of successes that has crowned the efforts of the leader to convert the people of western Ontario to the Liberal view of public questions promises to yield good results. In no constituencies are the prospects brighter than in North Middlesex and South Perth. A crowd of citizens awaited the arrival of the leader at Ailsa Craig station and raised a shout of welcome when he appeared before them. Mr. Laurier was escorted to the Queen's Hotel, over the doorway of which was the motto, "Welcome, Canada's coming Premier." They have resorted to all the means and all the methods whereby they hope to influ-

They have appealed to the cries of race and creed, and the epithets hurled at my head by the supporters of the Government that Mr. Hutchins is supporting in this province is that I am a traitor to my race and religion. thousand throats owned by the six thousand people who were assembled there. The meeting had already begun, and Mr. James Grieve, ex-M.P., the Liberal standardbearer in North Perth, was in the middle of his speech. All eyes were immediately directed towards the leader, and a mighty wave of enthusiasm swept over the multitude. Great as was the crowd when the rink was reached, it did not include all who desired to hear Mr. Laurier. Mr. Balantyne compared the tour of Mr. Laurier in the west with the famous campaign of Mr. Gladstone in Midlothian, and he predicted a like successful result.

The presentation of Mr. Laurer to the audience produced such an outburst of enthusiasm as almost lifted the roof from the building. Finally Mr. Laurier was able to

MURDER OF JOE MARTIN.

Matthew Fraser Arrested as an Accessory Before the Fact. Toronto, June 6. Matthew Fraser was locked up at Police Headquarters last night, the charge against him being that he was an accessory before the fact of the murder of Joe Martin at the Woodbine recetrack on Tuesday night, April 28. In the opinion of the Crown authorities the evidence brought out at last night's session of the inquest warranted the arrest of Fraser, who has been under surveillance for some time. The prisoner is a son of the murdered man's cousin, Mrs. Fraser, who resides in Trinity-place, where Martin stayed for some time, and regularly visited while in the city. Fraser was employed by Martin for a few days just prior to the murder, and the evidence showed that he knew Martin had money and had at one time suggested that it would pay to hold him up. Fraser is only about 21 years of the Tories in the shade for some five age. He is of slight stature and does not appear to be a very intellectual fellow. He took his arrest very calmly, but his mother, who was present, was much affected. She claims that it will be easy to prove that her boy is entirely innocent. When Coroner Powell reopened the inquest last night a number of friends of Fraser and the witnesses were present in the court room. Detective Cuddy and Crown Attorney Dewart were there in the interest of the Crown, while Barrister Robinette was watching the interests of Terry and Graham, two of the witnesses who are being watched by the detectives. After a session of three hours the inquest was again adjourned. It will be concluded on Thursday, June 11. Patrick Clarke Terry, who owns a cigar store at 436 Queen-street east, gave some very important evidence. Fraser was a frequent visitor at his establishment and on Saturday, April 25, asked Terry to lend him a club, as and another fellow had a job to hold up a pedlar. The job did not take place, however, as Fraser said they were too late getting to the stable. Consequently his mind failed him in some connections. John Fleming, 84 St. David-street, had a conversation with Fraser after the Martin assault. General Gascoigne Tells of His Visit to Toronto and London-General News From Ottawa.

Ottawa, June 8.—(Special.)—Gen. Gascoigne has returned to the city after a visit of inspection of permanent corps at Toronto and London. The General, speaking to your correspondent to-day, said he was greatly pleased with everything he had seen on his Western trip. The barracks at London were the best that he had seen in the country and the arrangements were most excellent. He was delighted with the state of efficiency in which the corps at Toronto are and with the care which seems to be taken by the commanding officers. The Military Tournament was remarkably good, and to one coming out straight from Engand and familiar with the tournaments which have been given at Islington for some years the Toronto authoritles had no reason to be ashamed of their efforts. The General goes to Kingston on June 23 to attend the closing exercises of the Royal Military College, and at the same time will inspect the permanent corps there. A squall, accompanied by terrific ightning and a heavy downpour of rain, struck the vicinity of Quyon on the Ottawa River Saturday evening. Fifty men were at work on the boom in the river. Two were killed by lightning and five seriously injured. The dead are: Frank Ferrier, Ottawa, and Nat McNeil, Bristol, Que. The Fisheries Department has been advised that mackerel in large quantities are schooling within the threemile limit and that the Nova Scotia fishermen are making great catches. There is a big fleet of United States vessels ten miles off the Nova Scotia ccast and seemingly luck has been against them, as the fish are not plentiful beyond the territorial waters of It is expected that one of the first things Parliament will be asked to do on reassembling will be to pass an interim appropriation to provide for the holding of the annual military camps of exercise. Gen. Gascoigne said today that he had every hope that the camps would be held this year as in previous years. The Government cruiser Dolphin has seized three large trap nets in Long Bay and Pickerel River on the Georgian Bay. The department is determined to put down illegal fishing. Peter Menard and wife were each fined $100 and costs for selling liquor without a license.

New York, June 7 .- A London special says: There are stories to-day of a flerce outbreak of a choleraic disease in the French military camp at Chalons on Thursday, which closely resembles the Asiatic reality, and at least not up to the present has it been decided to be something else. There is still some cholera in South Russia, but otherwise June finds Europe free from the epidemic for the first time, practically, in a dozen years. The disease is much worse than usual in Egypt, however, and the English officials are finding the task of forcing the populace to take the most rudimentary precautions against its spread more arducus than all their other hard jobs in the Nile Valley put together.
