The bodies could not be found, although relatives and friends spent weeks in dragging the lake, which is very deep. On Monday a settler out fishing came across the bodies at the north end of the lake, about a mile and a half from the scene of the accident, and the relatives have the melancholy satisfaction of giving the remains decent inter-

-Despite the constant downpour of rain last Monday the young people of the Baptist church held a very enjoyable social and entertained a number of young people from the different churches. After an hour spent in games and social chat a program of musical numbers, readings and recitations was listened to and much enjoyed by those present. Several members of the church choir, Prof. Clark and Mr. Musselman, contributed to the musica portion, while Mr. A. Kennedy and Miss M. Miller recited, and there were several encores. A very pleasant evening was brought to a close by all joining in the singing of the national hymn. . -Bleyeling is not without its dangers. Tuesday of last week three young ladies, taking advantage of the fine weather, left town for a spin on the Little Britain road.

When the party had reached Collins' corner imagine, about three miles distant, they were met by a herd of cattle driven by one of our local butchers. It seems one of the ter of railways and canals, pointing out animals was very wild, and, like some of the serious inconvenience and delays that our old fashioned people, objecting to seeing ladies on wheels, made a rush at frequently resulted from the careless the fair cyclists. No doubt many of the pioneer residents of the Midland district will be surprised when they see the name of our firm in the papers, as we have done no advertising heretofore. Our Grocery business was established in the year 1883. Since that time we have devoted all our energies and thoughts to the building up of a first-class Grocery and Provision trade. This present season we have largely increased our facilities for doing business, our premises now being the most commodious and best equipped establishment outside the large cities.

We think we have arrived at a time when we can use the press to advantage, particularly in drawing the attention of those who have lately located in our town and county. Our experience is that it is a satisfaction to cater to people who appreciate quality, and . that the consuming public cheerfully pay a fair price for a superior article,

In connection with our Grocery we have a established a Meat Market where you will always find a well-selected stock of Fresh and Canned Meats. This department is in charge of experienced city butchers, who thoroughly understand the preparing and cutting of meats and will cater to your requirements in a courteous manner.

Our stock is selected from the best importations in all lines-behind it we place our guarantee.
