AS THE RESULT OF A COMPLICA

TION OF DISEASES.

Poor and Watery Blood-Stomach out of Order -Further Aggravated by a Severe Attack of Rheumatism-Home Remedies and Doctor's Treatment Alike Failed.

From the St. John, N.B , Sun, The number of remedies for the ills that flesh is heir to which are placed on the market is almost innumerable, and the public is prone to class them as worthless. The public is not always right, however, as some of these remedies with prohibition as designed to shelve the by their sterling worth have overcome the prejudice against advertised medicines, and by the force of true merit have won public favor. Of the latter class the most prominent and popular undoubtedly is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which has a life-saving record from the Atlantic to the Pacine that no other medicine can appreach. Among those who have been benefitted by the use of this great medicine is Mr. Jas. H. Bailey, the wellknown veterinary surgeon of Maugerville, N.B. Mr. Bailey gave the following statement for publication to correspondent of the Sun. "In the spring of 1895 I was in very poor health. A complication of diseases had apparently decided to make my life miserable. was depressed in spirits, my blood was poor and watery, my stomach was out of order, and I had no appetite. The result was I was nervous, and tired all the time. I suffered from loss of sleep and as if to make life still more miserable, I was attacked with rheumatism of great severity, and suffered the most excruciating pains. Home remedies failed to relieve me and medical aid did me no permanent good. I read a testimonial given by a hesitation in recommending them for almost any ill that flesh is heir to." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are praised amongst the highest and lowest in the land, as a strengthening and tenic medieine, whether for men, women or children. They are not like other medicines, nor can they be imitated, as is sometimes dishonestly pretended by dealers who offer substitutes. See that the package bears the full name, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale Peeple, and in case of doubt send direct to Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Oat., who will supply the pills post patd at 50c. per box or 32 50 for six bexes. They cure all disorders which arise from impoverished blood, such as muscular weakness, loss of appetite, shortness of breath, pains in the back, nervous headache, early decay, all forms of female weakness, hysteria paralysis, locomotor ataxia, rheumatism, and sciatica.

"I suffered untold misery for over three months from neuralgia of the stomach. Physicians did their best to help me, but all attempts were befiled. I saw South American Nervine advertised and resolved to try it. The first bottle gave me great relief, and after I had used six bottles I was completely cured of this dreadful disease." Mathodist Deputation Waits on the Government.

The Views of the Methodists Presented Clearly and Forcibly by the Editor of The Guardian - Sir Richard Cart-Weight, Messrs, Davies and Fisher Leply.

Ottawa, June 7 .- (Special.) - Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. L. H. Davies and Hon. Sydney A. Fisher were the Ministers who received the delegation of the Montreal Conference of the Methodist Church this vening, who met them in Mr. Laurier's room at 8, to tackle the Government on the prohibition question. The deputation was composed of clerical and lay delegates to the conference, headed by Mr. W. H. Lambly of Inverness, Que., and including Revs. Dr. Saunders, Manly Benson, E. B. Ryckman, F. Chisholm, G. C. Huxtable, T. G. Williams, Thomas Griffith, William Blair, J. E. Mavefty, A. Lee Holmes, John

Gibson, John Wilson, John Grenfell, John Scanlon and several lay delegates. Mr. Lambly, by way of introducing the deputation, read the resolution passed by conference in the forenoon, setting forth the pledges of the Government on the question, and the desires of the conference as to the submission of the matter to the people as a single and distinct issue. Rev. A. C. Courtice, editor of The Christian Guardian, set forth the position of the conference upon the question in a terse and pointed address. In the past, he said, people had looked upon Government dealings question. Even the Royal Commission had been so regarded by some, and he would not like the people to fall into the habit of charging the present Government with such intentions. Sir John Thompson, during his Premiership, however, said that the Government had no intention of enacting prohibition, and it would be useless for them to ask for it. That was rather shocking to the temperance people, yet they could not but admire his manly frankness. So, if this Government had no intention of submitting a prohibition bill, let them say so, and let the temperance people know what to expect. But if the Government did believe that prohibition of the liquor traffic was a higher plane of national life than licensing it for purposes of revenue, then hey should say so and introduce as soon as possible a law that would carry that out. It had been hinted that the result of the Ontario plebiscite was merely the expression of a theoretical opinion. If the lovernment held that view they had better throw the thing overboard. But the anconnecements of the Premier led the tem perance people to expect better things. He acknowledged that they felt disappointed that the pleblscite bill had not been put through this session, as promised in the speech from the throne. But they to agree that it was, perhaps, wiser, un-

After some remarks by Mr. Hilllard, Rev. Liversiz, who said that on Thursday, Manly Benson spoke. He assured the Ministers they had no desire to embarrass the Government. They were satisfied to let it go over till next session, but they did not want the question loaded down with anything else. That issue of direct taxation would divide the temperance vote and frighten the poorer classes.

"Now," said spokesman Lambly, "these men. Sir Richard, vote as they pray," and he added there were 1500 people in the Methodist Church awaiting the Government's reply, and the delegates wanted to take them a straight answer. Sir Richard Cartwright, in response to this appeal, complimented the delegation on their putience in putting up with a postponement. He blamed it chiefly on the pposition, who threatened to keep the House sitting till September if the Goverament attempted to pass the Franchise Bill before a plebiscite was held. Besides, there was Mr. Laurier's absence, not only because he wanted to attend the Queen's jubilee, but because he had been invited to Engl nd to confer with the Imperial authorities an matters of great moment. However, the pletiscite bill would be passed early next se sion, and the House would be alled again in a few months. The Governent recognized the importance of this mestion being presented on a franchise that yould give a full and free expression of public epinien. "As to the other point," sail Sir Richard. "I don't think direct tax ti n is an unmixed evil. But hat is merely my individual opinion and my celleagues are not to be bound by it.' He agreed that the temperance people hould not be obliged to make a double car o i.n. and the question should not be bro ght up at a time when other political questions would likely be mixed with it. Then we go away with the assurance the matter will be ke; t down to the one ques li d Sir Richard,

The first business transacted was the election of offi-cers and resulted as follows: E. W. Case (Picton), president; D. A. Lambert (Holmesville), J. A. IT DOESN'T PAY TO PARLEY WITH RHEUMATISM.

Rheumatic joints, and aching limbs mean inability to work, and inability to work, for most people, means inability to gain a livelihood. So from that point of view it doesn't pay to parley with Rheumatism. Then there's another side of the question-the days of agony and suffering.

How many people are there whom Rheumatism compels to give up their occupation, and threw up a splendid position that it took them perhaps years to attain? Mr. Thomas Warren, of 134 Strachan St.,

Hamilton, states under oath that he had to give up his situation in the shops of the Big Four R. R." on account of Rheumatism. He tried mineral springs in Indiana and mud baths, but these did him so little good that he returned Home to Hamilton a

Mr. Davies, As Leader of the House, Repiles to a Question Regarding the Alaska Boundary - Other Questions Replied to by Ministers-House Preceedings.

Ottawa, June 7 .- (Special.) -- At the opening of the House Mr. Casey presented the report of the special committee to which was referred the bills providing for the safety of railway employes, and moved to place these bills on the order public bills, which he did not wish crowded out. This brought up the whole question of time to be given to public bills. Mr. Davies, who was leading the House in the temporary absence of Sir Richard Cartwright, said the House. Their hope was to get through before June 21, but if the House the paper they might have to sit here all through July. Some members pointed out that some of the bills had been delayed for three sessions. One session Mr. Davin said the House had to be adjourned because a certain exalted personage wanted to go fishing; there were cries of "name," but Mr. Davin would "He just meant fishing," said Mr.

Foster, smiling. Mr. Casey's motion finally carried, Mr. Foster pointing out that the Government had already intimated its policy to take away all private members' days after this. Mr. Casey suggested that the Government might change its mind, and another member spoke of putting these bills on the Government's orders. In reply to Mr. Roche, ler of Customs said that J. F. Tennant, sub-collector at Gretna, Man., had been dismissed on the recommendation of Mr. Richardson, M. P., on the charge of offensive partisanship. He was notified of the charge and his reply was received. Mr. McDougall was informed that Michael McNeil, preventive officer at Grand Narrows, C. B., had been dismissed for taking a partisan part in the elections, on the recommendation of Dr. Kendall of Sydney and Mr. S. C. Campbell. An investigation was made by Capt. Bloomfield Douglas. The report could be brought down. Sir Hibbert Tupper was told that the appointment of a keeper for the marine hospital at Bunker Island was made in January, 1897, but Mrs. John L. Cain, who had been allowed to remain there since the death of her husband, the former keeper, in 1892, was to be compensated for her expenditure on building and fences and for furniture,

Mr. Davies said that the Premier's compulsory absence from Parliament attending the Diamond Jubilee of Her Majesty will necessitate the postponement of several measures which it was the intention of the Government to recommend to Parliament this session. Amongst these are the franchise and plebiscite bills. [Opposition laughter.] The Government has concluded that as the former bill ought to determine the franchise on which the plebiscite should be taken, and as the Premier was personally desirous of being present when they were under consideration by the House, it was necessary to postpone further action with respect to them until next session. The details of the plebiscite bill will be announced on its introduction. Opposition, hear, hear.]

deplying to a question by Mr. Morrison, Mr. Davies said that according to the report the amendment proposed by the United States Senate to the Alaska boundary treaty, in effect, is that their agreeing to the terms of the treaty in this form (accepting Mount St. Elins as an initial part of the 141st meridian involving a concession of anything on their part that might be deemed advisable to make to a proper boundary. Mr. Morrison, later, secured the adoption of a motion for a return of correspondence, reports and papers in connecion with the demarcation of the Alaskan frontier. Mr. Morrison will take an opportunity to express his view that anada should insist upon being consulted previous to ratification of the reaty in its amended form.

Mr. Davies told Mr. Lemieux that the quesion of appointing an immigration agent at New York is under consideration by the Government. The department has appointed agents at the following places in the United States: One each at Detroit and Reed City, Mich.; Watertown, South Dakota; St. Paul, Minn., and Salina, Kansas, There are four traveling immigration agents and 10 salaried agents in all, and 61 agents employed in Michigan and Dakota, who are paid by results.

Mr. Lemieux was informed that the Government had decided to take part in the Paris Exposition of 1900, and that the Minister of the Interior is now arranging for space. Mr. Tarte informed Mr. Lemieux that the Government would call for competitive tenders for the erection of a monument commemorative of the Jubilee of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, as soor as the necessary funds were provided by Parliament. The competition for the monument is not to be limited to Canadian artists. On motion of Mr. Casey to have his and Mr. Maclean's bills for protection of railway employes, which were reported on by a special committee, put on the order paper announcing public bills, Mr. McMullen protested vigorously against any bills being now given precedence over some pet measures of his own, which were being ruthlessly session. It was strongly opposed, among Mr. Davies pointed out that Mr. Cas-

Mr. Davies said if the House wanted to prorogue by Jubilee Day, it would be impossible to deal with the private bills but, of course, the Government was in the hands of the House. Mr. Foster retorted that the House had disposed of this matter by deciding that after to-day every day would be a Government day, which means that for the balance no private bills could be dealt with, but simply Government measures. It might gratify Mr. Casey to have his bill to appear in print on the order paper. It would look very pretty, but no useful object would be Mr. Oliver moved the following resolution: That the Calgary and Edmonton Railway Company, the Regina, Long Lake and Qu'Appelle Railway Company, the Manitoba Northwestern Railway

-It is said that General Manager Hays will shortly issue a circular announcing some important changes in the engineering department of the G.T.R. While it is possible that some of the present engineering staff may be affected, the expectation is that the entire engineering staff, with the exception of the chief engineer, Mr. Jor. Hobson, may be p'aced under the control of the general superintendent, Mr. F. H. McGuigav. At the present time the chief engineer has charge of all the work along the system, including the repairs, and his supervision over the assistant engineers and track foremen. The system on the Canadian Pacific and on all the American railways is that the divisional superintendents look after all the repairs in their respective districts, the assistant engineers being responsible to the divisional superinter dents. It is exproted that the system will be adopted by the Grand Trunk, and in this event Mr. Hobson will act as consulting ongineer and have charge of all new work done on the
