DISTRESSING RESULTS FOLLOW-ING VACCINATION.

Young Daughter of David McHardy, of Fargus, the Victim-Has Suffered the Most Intense Agony-Doctors Failed to Help Her.

From the Pergus News Record Nearly every peason in this section is acquainted with Mr. David McHardy, the popular leader of St. Andrew's church choir, Fergus. Our reporter called upon Mr. McHardy at his home in Upper Nichol recently, and from him and his estimable wife a tale of terrible suffering was elicited, suffering that has brought a once exceptionally strong and healthy calld to the verge of the grave. The subject of the sketch, Lena McHardy, is fourteen years of age, and her parents say she has not grown any since her illness began some two years and a half ago. Her terrible suffering dates from the time she was vaccinated in June, 1894, and what she has since undergone has aroused the deepest sympathy of all the friends of the family. In conversation with Mr. McHardy and his wife, the following facts were elicited :- "Two years ago last June," said the father, "Lena was vaccinated by a doctor in Fergus. The arm was very sore and swollen all summer, and became so bad that it was a mass of sores from the shoulder to the elbow. In October, 1894, a large lump appeared on her back, over one of her langs. The dector who yaccinated her treated her all that summer, calling very frequently, but the medicine he gave her did no good and she was growing weaker and weaker. When the lumps broke out on her back another doctor was consulted, who said she was in a very bad state of health. Her constitution appeared to be completely undermined, and her appetite had completely failed. The last doctor called in gave some outward applications, and lanced the gathering, but it did not give the patient any benefit. Nine such gatherings have appeared since that time, but each broke and disappeared of its own accord, only, however, to be followed by another. The child became very pushy, and little or no food would remain on her stomach. At night she would fairly rave with the pain in her arm and back, and consequently her trouble was aggravated by a loss of sleep. She had the best of attendance, but to no avail, and she was slowly but surely sinking. Friends advised a treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and as a last resort they were tried. To the surprise of both parents and friends Lena began to improve soon after beginning the use of the pills. Her appetite returned, she became stronger and her general health much improved. The sores have not yet left her back and arm, but her constitution is being so very much improved under the treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that her parents are looking for a complete cure. Mr. and Mrs. McHardy thank Pink Pills for the present improved condition of their child, as they have done her more good than the scores of bottles of doctor's medicine which she

There are numerous pink colored imitations, against which the public is warned. The genuine Pink Pills can be had only in boxes the wrapper around which bears the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," Refuse all others.

Without a Peer-Works Miracles. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is without a peer. This great remedy relieves stantly the most aggravated and distressing forms of heart disease. It is the surest and quickest acting formula for heart trouble known to medical science, and thousands of times has the hand of the grim destroyer been stayed by its use. If there is palpitation, shortness of breath pain in the left side, smothering sensation-don't delay or you may be counted in the long list of those who have gone over to the great majority because the best remedy in the world to-day was not promptly used.

The Dunkards in general convention have denounced life insurance, declaring it to be selfish and wicked. Which is the more selfish, the man who takes no thought of the condition in which his wife and little ones should be left were he cut off, but goes on spending all he makes, or the man who deprives himself of luxuries that he may provide for such contingency so as to leave them something with which to keep off the wolf? Those Dunkaids seem to be troubled with lunk-headedness.

Ottawa, June 10,-(Special.)-This has been an interesting day in the House, The fast Atlantic service has been under debate and the curious spectacle was presented of prominent Liberals opposing the proposal of the Govern-ment, while from the Conservative ranks came support to counterbalance these defections. The question was not regarded on either side as a party one, and the adoption of the contract being assured, individual members felt at liberty to state their position. It will be remembered that Mr. Wood of Hamilton led the Opposition to the fast line when the contract came up for ratification the other day. He continued his argument to-day when the debate was resumed. The chief points made by Mr. Wood and by all the opponents of the project were that Canada could not afford it, and that the conditions of navigation in the Gulf of St. Lawrence are such as to preclude the possibility of steaming at the rate of twenty knots an hour. Mr. Ellis (St. John), Dr. Macdonald (Huron), Mr. Charlton, Mr. McMillan (Huron), Mr. Ratz, Mr. Rogers, Mr. Stubbs, all reckoned as Government supporters, spoke in opposition, while in every case admitting that the Government had made a very

Certainly the Dr. McDonald (Huron) said he had op-

Mr. Gillies (Conservative, Richmond, S.), supported the project, and strongr urged the claims of Louisburg, Cape reton, as the best point for the steams to arrive at and depart from on this side of the Atlantic. Food and Transportation. London, June 20,-The Jubilee is now in complete possession of London and all its inhabitants. Those for whom the whole subject has become a nightmare and a horror have taken flight, and the millions who remain are in full sympthy with the great occasion.

The influx of visitors from the provinces and abroad now amounts to a mighty invasion. London has never been so crowded before. The streets were never so congested, save once, and that was good bargain. Mr. Foster expressed four years ago, on the occasion of the Duke of York's wedding. These num- A man must be a pretty good orator to bers will be vastly augmented next trcubles sound interesting to others, Tuesday, and it is almost appalling to contemplate the situation on Jubilee Day, which will present the greatest aggregation of human beings within the smallest area the sun ever looked down upon. The average stranger hardly knows in what spirit to regard London's attempts at fete making. It probably depends upon his disposition what view he will finally take.

Mr. G. W. Stevens, for instance, finds

both ridiculous and sublime. Stevens writes to The Mail: "London as a great big baby. Its mother Queen has given it a new toy, which it calls the Diamond Jubilee. London, strange child, has pulled out all its little wooden boxes and bricks and piled them up an over the fronts of the houses, and made little bows, rosettes and streamers out of bits of stuff and picked up odds and ends of wire and bits of glass bottles and twisted them into stars, crowns and wreaths. In Piecadilly it has tried its little fingers at drawing roses and things to put on masts, and they come out much like other babies' first attempts. In one place it is even essayed to map England, and the result looks like a badly battered coal scuttle. The country next to it is spelled 'Holand.' Be's it is not discreditable for a beginning. "It is all very ridiculous if you like to take it that way, but if you like to take it the other way, it is also very sublime. Go into the smoke-soiled back streets, off the line of the route. There you will find in one house a poor little Union Jack sticking its undaunted head out of the top corner of a broken window. Next door to the Royal Standard is a cheap brand flag and next again is a home-made V. R. You need to see the Jubilee decorations in the little before you can appreciate their meaning in the gross. These poky little flags and red letters are the keynote to it all. London is settling down to play, but all through the game she never forgets her love and reverence the mother who

Those who have delayed making arrangements are now lucky to ge off for $25 per head. One man has paid $2080 for a room on James-street, with refreshments for a party of ten. Another has paid $5000 for a room, breakfast and lunch for a party of twenty. Another interesting feature of the feeding of the multitude appears in the price charged for the hire of spoons, knives and forks, which has reached dollars for a quarter of a dozen. As regards vehicles, it is already impossible to reach the city and the Wost End cheaply. The underground railroad is overcrowded night and day. The Coupe Company's immense stock of carriages of all descriptions is entirely engaged at the rate of $75 a day, without ready to the utmost limit of their resources. The lowest charge for taking

Special Te Deum and Splendid Music at Brompton Oratory.

London, June 20 .- High mass at the Brompton Oratory was made the occasion of a thanksgiving for the Queen's Jubilee on the part of her Roman Catholic subjects, a special Te Deum being sung. The oratory was richly decorated for the occasion, the marble columns inside the edifice being draped , with crimson, and the chancel with cloth of gold. The chairs of the envoys, upholstered in gold, were placed in the crimtion, the music being magnificent. The large building was crowded to its utmost capacity. Mgr. If you're a buyer you certainly have noticed the tendency to invest an article with qualities it does not really possess. Some merchants say that is business. Business worked up on that basis should notwill not-last. There must be good faith and confidence in every transaction between buyer and seller.

A merchant-be his business what it may-is quickly "sized up" these days. The man who splits a raisin to make the pound may be eminently just, but the act comes so near what is recognized as promptly on the liver and bowels. Care meanness that a bad impression is created.

We do not imagine that during our long career in Lindsay as grocers we have escaped blame, but it has never come to us through misrepresentation. We started out to give honest value for the money left with us, and we propose to continue doing so to the end of the chapter.

The good opinion of many a householder in the county has been won for us by the values we give in TEAS and COFFEES. They are standard lines in the house, and we give our customers the purest and best to be had. So it is with all other lines. As reputable grocers, having a care for our good name, we are determined to "hold to that which is good."

Try us and be convinced. We have new customers coming to see us weekly for a pound or two of our choice Teas or Coffees, and they all come back, and come often. So will you.

Patrick Ryder, a retired farmer, 69 years of age, living at 940 Lorne Ave., London, Ont., who swears that he suffered 36 years from Rheumatism, tried hundreds of local applications, but got no relief till he took his rheumatism and restored his health. Mr. John Hyde, of 141 1/2 McNab St.,
