Downeyville Picnic

The date of the famous Downeyville picnic has been fixed for Tuesday, June 13th. The program of game and other attractions is of the very best, and the committee who have the matter in charge are sparing no pains to make it the best picnic ever held at Downeyville The prize-list is a grand one. See large posters (to be issued Friday); for a list of the events.

He is Now an Officer.

Private A. S. Parkin, of No. 2 Co., 5th Victoria Batt., left for Wolseley Barracks, London, about a week ago to take up the lieutenants' course for a few days previous to writing on the examination. He made a very creditable pass, ranking ahead of some who had taken a full two months' course, and arrived home Saturday evening feeling justifiably proud of his record. It is likely he will have command of No. 2 Co. at Niagara: Camp.

Our Soldier Boys.

The local companies of the 45th, Batt. began drill exercises in the skating rink on Thursday night, and will leave for Niagara Camp on Tuesday, June 20th. The volunteers will appear in uniform at evening drill next week, and the public will be admitted to the manoeuvres during the last week. The Citizens' band will accompany the Battalion to camp, and the members have been hard at work for some time past perfecting themselves in stirring mili-

Attacked by a Game Cock.

The little daughter of Coaductor Chas Adams, aged one and ahalf years, narrowly escaped losing her eyesight Tuesday. While playing in the yard near the doorway her presence near some chickens was resented by a game cock and he attacked her fiercely. Before her cries summoned aid the little tot had been buffeted and scratched about the head and face, some of the wounds being inflicted very close to her eyes. It is said that several year. of our cock-fighting sports have made tempting offers for the spirited bird, but so far without success.
