ARE YOU GOING To Preserve any Fruit this Season? If you are, and likely there's no doubt of it, you will require SUGARS. Of course you will—perhaps you will not care to go in deep, but still a few jars of well preserved fruit are very tasty and much to be desired on occasions during the long winter months. Granted that you require SUGARS, we can supply your needs cheaply and well. We are just placing in our cellar TWO CARLOADS of the different brands, bought expressly for the preserving season. They will be found to possess excellent sweetening qualities. In the line of GEM JARS we are well stocked. Absolutely air-proof and as cheap as they can be had anywhere, and perhaps a trifle under.
