

Scott's Emulsion.

My Baby was a living skeleton; the doctor said he was dying of Marasmus and Indigestion. At 13 months he weighed only seven pounds. Nothing strengthened or fattened him. I began using Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites, feeding it to him and rubbing it into his body. He began to fatten and is now a beautiful dimpled boy. The Emulsion seemed to supply the one thing needful.

TOTTERING TO ITS FALL

Three French Ministers Said to Have Resigned.

MR. FOSTER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

That Remedial Legislation Will Be Introduced.

AT A SPECIAL WINTER SESSION

If Manitoba Does Not Voluntarily Remove the Grievances.

The Same Announcement Made in Both Houses—This Immediately Followed by the Resignation of Messrs. Oulmet, Angers and Caron Had Resigned—Mr. Foster's Announcement of the Delay—French-Canadian Members Absent Themselves From Division.

Ottawa, Ont., July 8.—Not for a good many years has there been such excitement at the Capital as has been noticeable to-day. That something extraordinary was about to happen was evidenced from the crowded state of the galleries in the Commons. As the opening of the sitting representatives of the ultra-Protestant element of Ottawa, and long-robed priests were there cheek by jowl, anxious to know what decision had been come to by the Government. They had not long to wait.

Mr. Laurier rose and reminded the leader of the House of his promise the other day to make a statement as to the course of public business.

Mr. Foster thereupon, amid a most unusual stillness, read the following announcement:

"I desire to state that the Government has had under its consideration the reply of the Manitoba Legislature to the Remedial Order of the 21st of March, 1895, and, after careful deliberation, has arrived at the following conclusion: That there may be differences of opinion as to the exact meaning of opinion as to the exact meaning of an amicable settlement of the Manitoba school question, on the basis of possible action by the Manitoba Government and Legislature; and the Dominion Government is most unwilling to take any action which can be interpreted as forestalling or precluding such a desirable consummation. The Government has also considered the difficulties to be met with in preparing and perfecting legislation so important and intricate a question during the last hours of the session. The Government has, therefore, decided not to ask Parliament to deal with Remedial Legislation during the present session."

A communication will be sent immediately to the Manitoba Government on the subject, with a view to ascertaining whether the Government is disposed to make a settlement of the question which will be reasonably satisfactory to the minority necessary to call into requisition the powers of the Dominion Parliament. A session of the present Parliament will be called together, to meet not later than the first Thursday of January next. If by that time the Manitoba Government fails to remedy the grievance of the minority, the Dominion Government will be prepared, at the next session of Parliament, to be called, as above stated, to introduce and press to a conclusion such legislation as will afford an adequate measure of relief to the said minority, based upon the lines of the judgment of the Privy Council, and the Remedial Order of March 21, 1895.

In the Upper House, the Premier read the identical statement, adding, however, "This is clear and sufficiently distinct, indicating the policy of the Government upon this very important and intricate question. It must be for the Houses of Parliament and the people of the Dominion to say whether they approve of this policy or not."

In the Commons, immediately Mr. Foster sat down, Mr. Lariviere, the champion of the Catholics of Manitoba, arose and said: "In the name of the minority whom I represent, I emphatically declare that the present attitude of the Government is unacceptable to them."

He could proceed no further with his observations, as the Speaker called him to order, and Mr. Taylor rose to submit his motion for the reservation of certain islands in the St. Lawrence as a national park. There were loud cries from the Opposition to Mr. Lariviere to move the adjournment of the House, but his opportunity to speak further was gone, the orders of the day having been called. During Mr. Taylor's observations there was a tremendous hubbub in the chamber. Members cared nothing then about the Thousand Islands. They wanted to compare notes upon the situation. There was an immediate exodus into the lobbies, and Room 16, the Conservative headquarters, adjacent to the chamber.

There it was not difficult to learn how the Government's decision was accepted. "It is a mistake," said a prominent Catholic member, and a few minutes later an Orange representative used precisely the same phrase. They spoke for the two wings of the Conservative party in Ontario and Quebec.

Looking at the declaration itself, it did appear as if the Catholics were again their point. Why, then, should they not be satisfied? A more emphatic declaration that Remedial Legislation is the policy of the Government could not possibly be desired by them. And yet they are not pleased. The reason therefor is not difficult to discover. It is the one mentioned by your correspondent two or three days ago. They dread that once Parliament is prorogued something will intervene to prevent the Government from carrying out its pledge. "For instance, as one member frankly expressed it, there may be a Ministerial shuffle between now and the new year, and new Ministers could say they were not bound by what their predecessors had done. It may be mentioned, however, that the Government has formally approved of the pledge given by its advisers in Parliament to-day. A special messenger was dispatched to Quebec on Saturday to see His Excellency to procure his consent to the announcement which was given.

The Ontario members, who are firmly opposed to Remedial Legislation, do not like the outlook. They say that the Government has rendered it impossible for many of them to be elected in constituencies where a strong Protestant feeling prevails unless they pledge themselves to oppose the Government's Remedial Bill. During the recess abundant opportunity will be given to the electorate to impress upon the representatives in Parliament the utility of supporting Remedial Legislation.

The after-clap of the official announcement proved as sensational as the announcement itself, for the report passed like wildfire among members and their friends in the lobbies that the three French-Canadian Ministers—Messrs. Oulmet, Caron and Angers—had resigned.

Every circumstance lent color to this report. First of all, none of these Ministers were present in their places in the House. Early in the afternoon they held a meeting in one of the rooms of the Commons, after which Mr. Angers proceeded to the Senate wing, and tenanted Mr. Belrose's room for the remainder of the afternoon. Mr. Adolphe and Mr. Oulmet left the Parliament and proceeded to their respective departments, but returned before 6 o'clock and held a meeting with some of their friends in an upper room in the Parliament buildings.

The Premier was interviewed as to the accuracy of the statements floating about the lobbies, but would say nothing. The three Ministers in question were seen, but they would neither deny nor confirm the reports. Under such circumstances, the Premier could not say anything about Ministerial resignations to-day, if such have taken place, as, according to constitutional usage, he would first have to acquaint the Governor-General of the fact that the resignations had been tendered. As regards the Ministers themselves, they would not be in a position to speak.

It is significant, however, that their local organ, Le Canada, makes an important announcement to-night, and La Minerve of Montreal has been authorized to make a similar one to-morrow.

Le Canada says: "We learn from a source almost positive that the French Ministers—Sir A. P. Caron and Messrs. Oulmet and Angers—have sent in their resignations to the Prime Minister, Sir Mackenzie Bowell."

French members to the number of a dozen, when appealed to for confirmation of the reported resignations, said that undoubtedly the news was correct. The reason given for the resignations is not that the Ministers are dissatisfied because the Government has not seen fit to bring down a Remedial Bill this session. They fully recognize the futility of attempting to pass such a measure at this late stage of the session, but they are unwilling to deal with Manitoba. They declare, and even Ontario Conservatives admit the same thing, that Manitoba will do nothing. Why, then, say they, should the Government hold out hopes of a compromise, when such is unlikely? It is said that the paragraph relative to possible action on Mr. Greenway's part was founded upon information conveyed to the Dominion Government by Lieutenant-Governor Schultz.

It appears that not all the representatives from Quebec object to the line of policy which the Government has taken. Mr. Girouard of Jacques Cartier, one of the most influential men from that province, did not hesitate to say to his friends this afternoon that the Government had adopted the right course, and that if the Ministers had chosen to step out they had adopted an unwise policy.

Later on in the afternoon another rumor was started that Mr. Costigan would follow the French Ministers and tender his resignation, but he took his seat in the House as Minister, and voted in the division on the question of adjourning the debate, started by Mr. Davin, respecting aid to the creameries of the Northwest.

It is significant in connection with this division that nearly all the Quebec Catholic Conservatives abstained from voting.

The Ontario Conservative members were more or less cut up at the Government's decision, but they refrained from making anything like an antagonistic statement. Hon. Clarke Wallace would say nothing, but immediately after Mr. Foster's announcement he made up his mind to attend the Orange demonstration here on Friday, which promises to be the greatest ever held in these parts. The English-speaker Catholics in the House will to a man stand by the Government in its policy.

It is currently reported that the Governor-General will be here to-morrow, the crisis having turned him Ottawa-wards.

A prominent French-Canadian informed me to-night that, as a matter of fact, Mr. Angers is the only Minister who has resigned, but that the other two are pledged to stand by him. However, to-morrow will set this at rest.

Considerable interest was manifested as to the stand Mr. McCarthy would likely take. "What is your opinion on the political situation owing to the announcement made by Mr. Foster in the House this afternoon?" was the question put by a correspondent to Mr. D. ALTON MCCARTHY, who was found busy in the library this evening.

"It seems to me," replied the member for North Simcoe, "that the Government have made a desperate effort to prolong the life of the Administration for a few months. The members of the Administration cannot believe themselves, and no person else can accept, that they have created an ancestor of Manitoaba as suggested by any conceit of the Government. It is as clear as air to me on Monday that, though the reply was couched in temperate language, the Legislature of Manitoba has made up its mind that in no circumstance will it obey the Remedial Order."

The challenge of the Manitoba Government to make an inquiry into the condition of the schools system, as it was and as it is, is the best evidence that the Manitoba Government is not afraid of the justice and the wisdom of its course in abolishing the Separate School system and establishing the national system of schools. That pretext for delay, therefore, is one plain trump card. The other, that the Government is not prepared to introduce a Remedial Bill which would be constitutional and at the same time effective, is one more readily accepted. Whether or not temporary legislation will be found very difficult under the statesmanship of those who are now ruling the destinies of Canada. The misfortune of the whole thing is to force the Manitoba school question to the front, a question which a wise Administration would never have allowed to become a paramount one in Canada politics, and that the unhappy feelings which arise from the unhappy feelings which arise will be still more intensified and still more aggravated before the final verdict of the people at the polls is obtained.

"I hope that before the House rises its opinion will be taken as to the wisdom of the pledge which the Ministers have given to-day to pass the Remedial Bill. If a Remedial Bill is to be passed at all, it could be as well passed now as in January next, and the 29 Government supporters who have announced that they will not support the Remedial Bill will find themselves in a very awkward position when they are willing to accept the policy of a Government which now pledges itself and its followers to the adoption of Remedial Legislation in January next."

"What about the reported resignations of Ministers?"

"As to the reported resignations of the three French Ministers, I am not at all in the House to express an opinion. English Ministers, when they have resigned, are neither ashamed or afraid to let it be known, but it is currently reported that the Ministers are merely making a demonstration and have no serious thought of resigning. It is thought that they will be found in their places to-morrow. As I say, I cannot comprehend all this, and therefore, being unable to understand it, I am not capable of giving an opinion about it."

In the House to-day, Sir C. H. Tupper informed Mr. Grieve that Mr. John Connor of St. John received 10 per cent commission on sales of Kingston Penitentiary buildings at Twillingate.

Mr. Taylor moved the following motion: "That, in the opinion of this House, it is expedient that a few of the large islands in the River St. Lawrence which are yet unoccupied, and which should be reserved for the use of the public as a Dominion park." Mr. Taylor accompanied his motion with a very strong statement of facts in support of his proposal. He pointed out that the lands made available to the public are no desire on the part of the Conservative electors to vacate their seats at the council table, and your correspondent learns, in fact, that more than one member of the French-Canadian majority are anxious to remain at their posts at all hazards and fight it out to the end. They argue thus: These ministers have done all in their power to deprive the majority of the Manitoba minority, and why should they be deprived of participating in the general administration of the country? Bishop Oulmet knows well enough that there is nothing in the Canadian constitution that gives so many members to this province as to many in other provinces. If men they will one and all advise Sir Adolphe Caron, Mr. Oulmet and Mr. Angers to abide by the fate that awaits the Manitoba schools, whatever it may be, and above all not to forget that Her Majesty's government must be carried on.

It may also be said that a Royal Commission to inquire into the land question of the Manitoba minority is looked upon very favorably in political circles here.

A BARRISTER'S CONVENTION. London, July 8.—The Irish National Convention met at Omagh, County Tyrone, and was the scene of constant disturbance. Owing to the disputes between Timothy Healy, John Dillon and Dr. Kenny, no chairman could be appointed, and organization of the convention was not effected. A strong force of police was stationed outside the building in readiness to quell any violent disorder.

Killed Falling From a Horse. Windsor, July 4.—The 10-year-old son of Mr. Palmer of Passy fell from a horse yesterday and was killed.

of the debate, which was carried by 52 to 37. On motion for the third reading of the Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo Railway Company Bill, Mr. Coatsworth moved that the bill be reconsidered in committee of the whole and amended by substituting for one of the clauses a section enumerating the claims for material, construction, wages, board of men and teams, which shall be subject to the charter becomes operative. It was explained that this stipulation was acceptable to all parties, and the bill was reported.

A lengthy discussion took place on the South Shore Railway dispute, the debate being again adjourned. The House adjourned at 10 o'clock.

The political situation was incidentally touched upon to-night in the Commons. On motion to adjourn, Mr. Laurier said: "I take advantage of this motion to ask the leader of the House if he can give any information in regard to the rumor that is now current that three members of the Cabinet have resigned this afternoon?"

Mr. Laurier replied: "I can give no information to my hon. friend, but I advise him not to put his trust in rumors."

Mr. Laurier: Then I inform my hon. friend that I shall not take the opportunity of drawing the attention of the House to it.

Mr. McCarthy: I should like to ask the leader of the House whether there is any possibility of His Excellency the Governor-General for the announcement made this afternoon as to the meeting of Parliament in January next.

Mr. Mackenzie Bowell: I can give no information to my hon. friend, but I advise him not to put his trust in rumors."

A STORY FOR MOTHERS

WHICH MAY HAVE THE LIVES OF THEIR DAUGHTERS.

A Young Lady at Merrickville Saved When Near Death's Door—Her Illness Brought About by Allments Peculiar to Her Sex—Only One Way in Which They Can Be Successfully Resisted.

Perhaps there is no healthier people on the continent of America to-day than the residents of the picturesque village of Merrickville, situated on the Rideau river, and the reason is not so much in its salubrious climate as in the wise precautions taken by its inhabitants in warding off disease by the timely use of proper medicine. The greatest favorite is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and many are the testimonials in regard to their virtues. Your correspondent on Monday last called at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. Easton, and interviewed their daughter, Miss Hattie Easton, a handsome young lady of 20 years, who is known to have been very low and has been restored to health by the use of Pink Pills. "Yes," she said, "I suffered a great deal, but I am so thankful that I am once more restored to health. You have no idea what it is to be so near the portals and feel that everything in life's future is about to slip from your grasp and an early grave your doom. I was taken ill four years ago with troubles peculiar to my sex, and which has hurried many a young woman to her doom—an early grave. I have taken in all about 20 boxes of Pink Pills, and I am only glad to let the world know what these wonderful little pellets have done for me, hoping that some other unfortunate young woman may be benefited as I was. When sixteen years of age I began to grow pale, and weak and many thought I was going into decline. I became subjected to fainting spells and at times would become unconscious. My strength gradually decreased and I became so emaciated that I was simply a living skeleton. My blood seemed to turn to water and my face was the color of a corpse. I had tried different kinds of medicines, but they did me no good. I was at last confined to my room for several months and hope of my recovery was given up. At last a friend strongly urged the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after using a few boxes I began to grow slightly stronger, I continued their use until I found myself restored to health. I now quit using the pills and for six months I never felt better in my life. Then I began to feel that I was not as regular as I should be and to feel the old tired feeling once more coming on. Once more I resorted to Pink Pills, and by the time I had used six boxes I found my health fully restored. I keep a box by me and occasionally when I feel any symptoms of a return of the old trouble, I take a few and I am all right again. I cannot find words of sufficient weight to express my appreciation of the wonderful curative qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and sincerely hope that all, who are afflicted as I was will give them a trial and I am certain they will find renewed health. The facts above related are important to parents as there are many young girls just budding into womanhood whose condition is, to say the least, more critical than their parents imagine. Their complexion is pale and waxy in appearance, troubled with heart palpitation, headache, shortness of breath, on the slightest exercise, faintness and other distressing symptoms which in variably lead to a premature grave unless prompt steps are taken to bring about a natural condition of health. In this emergency no remedy yet discovered can supply the place of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which build anew the blood, strengthen the nerves and restore the glow of health to the pale and sorrow cheeks. They are certain cure for all troubles peculiar to the female system, young or old.

THE RESIGNATIONS DISCREDITED.

No One in Montreal Believes That the Three French Ministers Have Resigned.

Montreal, July 8.—The announcement in the Ottawa despatches to the local papers that three French Ministers had tendered their resignations in French political circles, as no one could believe any such step would be dreamed of by experienced politicians like Sir A. P. Caron and Messrs. Oulmet and Angers. It is well known that these honorable gentlemen are in immediate touch with the Quebec electors, and nothing that the American newspapers are doing to discredit the policy of deserting the national council chamber would be supported by the French Conservative party at large.

It can be repeated to-night that, outside of party newspaper offices in Montreal and Quebec, there is no excitement of any kind, and no one at the station at Ottawa and there is nothing to be seen, either beneath or above the surface, to indicate that the proposed resignation of the French Ministers is no desire on the part of the Conservative electors to vacate their seats at the council table, and your correspondent learns, in fact, that more than one member of the French-Canadian majority are anxious to remain at their posts at all hazards and fight it out to the end. They argue thus: These ministers have done all in their power to deprive the majority of the Manitoba minority, and why should they be deprived of participating in the general administration of the country?
