THE ELECTION.-There is considerable "chewing the rag" over election matters.
Some of the more rabid ones want to protest it and run it over again, but the more sensible element bow to the voice of the electors. Many of them can't realize how Dr. Vrooman was left when Omemee gave him 77 of a majority. The two voters who violated the election law and left themselves liable to fine or imprisonment were supporters of the tory candidate. The irregularities were that one of them voted twice in the riding, and the other voted under the name of his brother.

Canada, and Mr. A. T. Sturt, of Michigan, were united in marriage on June 10th, 1890, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Cus. Prouse, in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The ceremony took place at eight o'clock in the evening, and was performed by the Rev. W. L. Farnum in accordance with the beautiful and impressive marriage service prescribed by the ritual of the Haptist church. The bride was attended by her niece, Miss Zalia May Prouse, as maid of honor, and Miss Mabel G. Sturt, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid. Mr. Clarence McCrossam was best man and acted his part to perfec-tion. W. H. Milliken's orchestra rendered the musical portion of the service, and to the inspiring strains of Mendelsiohn's Wedding March the bride, leaning upon the arm of her uncle, Mr. D. W. Walters, and preceded by her attendants, entered the parlor and with measured steps proceeded to the altar, where the groom and best man awaited her, and where the ceremony was performed. The bride was gowned in white chiffon trimmed with pearls and lace, and wore a flowing veil that revealed a pretty face as it was thrown back over her shoulder at the conclusion of the ceremony. The maid of honor and bridesmaid were dressed in pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and organdle, and carried pink and organdle, and carried pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and organdle, and carried pink and organdle, and carried pink and pink and organdle, and carried pink and After salutations and best wishes from all, the when one of our promising young and the parson of Mr. George Young, in the person of Mr. George Young, the person of Cooper's Falls.

A Pleasant Affair. On Tuesday evening Mr. J. C. Harstone, the popular principal of the Collegiate Institute, received a pleasant surprise. At 7.30 the pupils of his morning class waited upon him at his residence and presented him with an address and a handsome goldheaded abony cane in recognition of his faithful work and unremitting attention to every member of the class. The address was read by Mr. R. H. Waiks, of the Collegiate staff, and the presentation was prettily made by Miss McAlpine. Mr. Harstone fittingly acknowledged his appreciation of the gift.

Fatal Drowning Accident. Last evening, a little after seven o'clock, a most deplorable drowning fatality occurred in the east ward, Willie, the four-year old son of Capt. Wm. Fee, formerly of the Str. Alice-Etnel, being the victim. After tea the little fellow ran down to the river bank below Dundas & Flavelle Bros. egg warehouse, where some boys were bathing, and with a companion began playing about an old punt. Soon after the boy fell into the water, and although several of the bathers were big lumps of fellows capable of helping a man to shore they were afraid to go to the little fellow's rescue for fear he would pull them under. In the meanwhile Messrs. Jas. Nicholls and Zeb. Robinson, who were at the mill stable on the opposite side of the river, noticed the excited actions of the boys, and suspecting something was wrong, ran for a boat, paddled over, and a young lad named Lionel Pearson, son of Mr. John Pearson, of the east ward, recovered the body. Dr. Shier was on hand when it was There were presentations made to the retiring teachers, Mr. O. Page, Misses Sparke and Best. The school board met on Monday evening and made selections out of 116 applications to fill the three out little fellow, and a general favorite with everybody passing along King-st.

Dominion Day in Town. Canada's natal day was generally observed by our citizens on Wedndsday, and the attractions were sufficiently varied to suit all classes. At 7 a.m., over 150 persons left the s ation here on the Oddfellows' excursion to Kingston and the 1000 Islands, and when the train left Peterboro the two sections of the train held 400 people. At S o'clock the Str. Alice-Ethel and palace barge left for Crowley's Island, with the members of the Emerald Benevolent Association and their friends, nearly 500 in all; and half-an-hour later the Str. Crandella left the wharf with the Baptis Y. P. S. excursion, 250 people being on board. The Greyhound and Esturion were also crowded with passengers on the down trips, the extreme heat in the middle of the day causing citizens to seek the cool breezes of the lake. To make up for these defections to our population the incoming trains brought large crowds to the town to witness the program of sports in the agricultural park advertised by the Y. M. C. A., the cricket match between Lindsay and Hallburton, and the lawn tennis tour-nament between Port Perry and the Lind-say Collegiate tennis clubs. A large crowd flicked to the agricultural grounds after dinner and sat contentedly till 7 o'clock watching the spirited contests over every item on the very long programme. We understand that the Y. M. C. A. will be at a financial loss as a result of their venture, but the excel-ient day's sport provided, and the faithful manner in which the program was carried out, will pave the way to a gratifying success next year. Lindsay has been "faked" by so many hippodrome man:

become suspicious, but Wednesday's effort

Tuesday and Thursday Bargain Days and our "Special Hour ale" on Saturdays a Howling Success.

WE'LL KEEP ON AT THE GOOD WORK. Last two Saturdays we've had trouble. Too many people to wait on. The hours for Special Prices were up before all were served. However, for the benefit of those unfortunates who didn't get a chance at our bargains, we'll continue the sale for two weeks longer.

OUR BARGAIN TABLES are groaning with the weight of a great big pile of New Goods, just opened out, which we put on the table to clear out, instead of putting with Stock. They bang Banager for style and wear, and pound prices to atoms.

BARGAIN DAYS-Tuesday.

Our new departure is a great big go. The people who have come in and dealt with us are astonished. The way we slaughter goods was a revelation to the myriads of customers who went away wondering what Gough would dare do yet, but we're not at the end of our tether. We've sold goods cheap the last few Tuesdays and Thursdays. Well, one last splurge before the light goes out. OUR GRAND FINALE .- For the next two weeks on Tuesday's and Thursdays-goods at exact cost. No humbug. We mean it. Just come in and see what it means. Come to us, We have knocked the prices in two in this town. We surely deserve well at the hands of the people of Lindsay.
