o'clock, presumably owing to a spark from the refuse burner alighting on some im-flammable refuse. The blaze was quickly extinguished by the fire brigade. -Mr. T. Backley, of the north ward, died somewhat suddenly yesterday. Some time ago he injured his back while lifting some heavy articles, and it is thought he sustained an internal injury. Many old friends will regret his demise. -The annual excursion in aid of the G.T.R. Library will take place on Wednesday, July 221d, to Sturgeon Point. Mr. L. McIntosh, president, Mr. R. Robinson, secretary, and several energetic commit-tees, will see to it that everyone shares in

-The grasshoppers, we are scrry to say, are eating almost every green thing in the back part of North Victoria. The farmers are praying for Sam. Hughes to come and stay their ravages, but it looks as if he did not care to visit Kirkfield, Victoria Road or Coboconk just now.

-Citizens having occasion to travel on that portion of Wellington-st. from Cambridge to William-sts complain of the very bad state of the road, and our attention has been drawn to damages caused to vehicles while endeavoring to pass over that section, springs being snapped asunder on account of the pitch holes.

-A young man named James Lane, of Fenelon Falls, was arrested at Portage La Prairie the other day on the strength of a telegram from that village. Constable Nevison at once left for the west with the warrant, and returned last Friday even-ing with his prisoner, who will have to answer to a charge of having enticed a cessful financial result of their excarsion to Kingston and 1000 Islands July 1st. Twelve coaches, carrying over 600 people, pulled into Kingston shortly after 12 o'clock, the Peterboro contingent alone numbering over 200 persons. A handsome surp!us will remain after all expenses are

-A rumor having spread about that the Alice-Ethel did not proceed to Crowleys Island with the E.B.A. excursion on July 18' because of the unsafe condition of the palaca barge, our reporter interviewed Cap. Fremont Crandell, who gave the story an indignant denial. He says the change of program was made at the re quest of prominent members of the committee, who thought that owing to the large crowd and the very hot weather it would be inconvenient to take such a long

-The E. B. A. excursion July 1st was by long odds the most successful held on these waters this season. There were nearly 500 people on board the palace barge, and fully 100 were turned away. -Last Friday night a thief entered barn of one of our well-known game sports and stole a fine pigeon. Next morning the owner had suspicion of the person who took it, so he walked over to the thief's home and found his pigeon in a little coop made specially for it. He should have prosecuted the scoundrel, who no doubt will try something bigger in the future that will win him entry to the Central.
