FOR THE TABLE

Knives, Forks, and Spoons are required for the dining table; and when buying, it is well to look to the future.

It is not necessary to enumerate the merits of solid silverware; every woman would like to have her table provided with it.

Best quality plated teaspoons cost $3.00 per dozen.

Desert table spoons, knives, and forks cost proportionately.

Those who buy their table ware from us can always match it afterward, and we make it easy for you to get a full outfit by degrees if you desire to do so.

Our plated ware is the best made, we recommend and guarantee it fully.

THE GLORIOUS TWELFTH.

HOW THE DAY WAS CELEBRATED AT OMEMEE AND BOBOYGEON.

Large Crowds Flocked to the above Villages and Spent a Pleasant Day in Honor of the Principles of Orangeism.

S anticipated, the most sanguine expectations were realized by Omemee and Boboygeon.

The weather was all that could be desired, both on Sunday for the church parade, and also on Monday, and the proceedings passed off without one hitch to mar the pleasure of any.

There were between 2,000 and 3,000 people present, including the brethren from Cavan, Fenny, and other places throughout the Province, and a number of brass bands.

The most imposing procession ever seen in the village. All the signs ever seen in the village.

One hitch to mar the pleasure of any. There were between 2,000 and 3,000 people present.

Police Court Calendar.

The hearing of several charges laid against Mrs. Lucy Young was postponed till the 17th inst. owing to the serious illness of accused.

County Magistrate Deason visited Kirkfield Wednesday and disposed of several cases. One had to do with obstructing a roadway, and the other consisted of a charge of indecent conduct, the parties concerned being a young man named McCrene and a girl named Miss Cooper.

Magistrate Deason reserved sentence, but expressly stipulated that he should be notified of the date of the wedding as an evidence of good faith.

Gough's Word Competition.

In consequence of a great many requests having been received by Mr. Gough from parties outside the county, asking him to make the word forming competition announce in last week's Post free to the Midland district, he has consented to do so. To the person supplying the largest list of proper words formed of the letters in the sentence, "Gough's Grand Grammar," a lady or gentleman gold watch, and the compiler of the second largest list will receive a gold watch. The contest is absolutely free of conditions other than the above, and will close on Saturday, July 17th. Lists will be handed to the compiler of the known citizens as they arrive, and the names of the winners will be announced in these columns.

An Afternoon Runaway.

A team of horses owned by Arthur Ball, of Danford, ran away from the Bathurst Co. office on Saturday about 4 o'clock, and headed up Kent-st. After running a short distance the rear of the wagon broke, allowing the team to stop and the animals as they were climbing the hill past the Royal hotel, but without avail, and they swerved in towards Carter's store, and opposite Spence & Killen's, where they were stopped by Mr. Thos. Jackson, of West Ope, wrecking the hind wheel with such force as to cause the driver to be thrown from the carriage and the horses to stop.

Church Notes.

The local court of C.O.O.F. will attend service at the Baptist church next Sunday morning.

During the hot weather St. Andrew's Sabbath school will meet at 10 o'clock in the morning, commencing on Sunday next, July 18th.

After an absence of four weeks the Rev. J. W. Macmillan, pastor of Andrew's church, will be heard by fair congregations on Sunday. The subject for the evening sermon was taken from Job, 19:25, "For I know that my Redeemer liveth."

The Rev. L. S. Hughes preached reopening sermons on Sunday at Uxbridge, and the Baptist church of Woodstock college. He preached in the morning from Matt. 13:12, "Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." The speaker took up the first part of the text as being man's part, and the latter as being God's part, and the latter as being man's part, and the latter as being God's part.
