DRAWING PRIZES AT Gough's Great Removal Sale

We hope to be able to move into our new premises, DOBSON'S OLD STAND, Corner of Kent and William-sts., before the end of the month, and are anxious to still further reduce our large stock before that date, as our share of the $40,000 stock of Fine Clothing purchased at a recent Underwriters' Sale in Montreal is awaiting our nod for shipment. and selling is becoming very lively under the push of low prices. There is a spirited exchange of Fine Clothing at unheard-of figures—money never bought such values before. We're glad to see such signs of Lindsay's prosperity—we're glad to share in it.

Nothing to wonder at, after all; few stores anywhere would begin to be satisfied with the profits we ask, and few merchants would dare to buy goods in such quantities.
