Contrary to other years, the convent pupils were entered on the examiner's list as drop a letter. Separate school pupils by order of the Separate school inspector, hence some have formed the impression that the sisters failed to passed any.

Address and Presentation. About 30 members of the Lindsay Carling Club assembled at the rink Thursday evening, 22ad, and presented Road-Fence Wire. master Harry Ferguson with an engrossed address and a handsome watch pendant in the form of a curling stone, suitably and acknowledged his many valuable services during the fifteen years he had been a member and a skip. After Mr. I been a member and a skip. After Mr. I berguson had war nly thanked his fellow u curlers for their unexpected token of esteem, Messry. J. D. Flavelle, J. Mcsweyn, J. Boxall, James Keith, T. Brodie, Auderson, and several others, referred briefly to Mr. Ferguson's impending departure, and the statement was made by Mr. McSweyn that the skips of the Lindsay club appeared to be in demand for high positions of trust and responsibility, inasmuch as it was but a short time since Mr. MacGachen had been selected by the chief monetary institution of the Dominion to take charge of its Winnipeg branch, and now one of the leading railways of the country had select-Book keeping and Penmanship, or to ed another skip, in the person of Mr. Ferguson, to take charge of its western division in the capacity of chief road master. Rev. J. W. Macmillan occupied the chair, and performed his duties humorously and efficiently.

The Late Mrs Timothy Collins. By the death of the late Mrs. T. Collins, which sad event took place on the 21st inst., the community lost one of its oldest and most respected residents. The de-ceased lady had been alling for upwards of three years, and bore her sufferings with the true christian patience and resignation by which her whole life was marked. She was in every sense of the word a model christian woman, and during her illness she was fortified by the consoling rites of the Roman Catholic church, and tenderly cared for by a loving husband and kind and affectionate sons and daughters. Mrs. Collins was born in Baillieboro, county Cavan, Ireland, and when eighteen years of age came to Canada. In the year 1842 she was united in marriage to Mr. Timothy Collins, of Cavan township, and in 1857 the family removed to Ops, where they have since resided. She was the mother of nine are at present surviving six sons and one daughter, the latter living at home.
