EDITORIAL NOTES.

Already the United States insurance companies are moving to test the claims of beneficiaries of Christian Scientists, who have died without having other care than that of the healers of the sect. The companies purpose to set up a defence of suicide. In this way some precedent in law may be es-

In New York an agitation is being carried on for a longer lunch period at noon. Many of the schools give the children only half an hour; none more than an hour. Pupils who have long distances to go have either to carry a lunch or rush home and "boit" their food, and many spoiled stomachs are the result. We do better here. Most Ontario schools give pupils an hour anda half; many give them two hours.

The discovery of rich copper deposits a couple of miles from the town d Parry Sound is reported. Not only is the ore rich in quality; but it lies close to the surface, making the property more like a quarry than a mine. It is only a mile and a half from the railway and two miles from the navigable water of Georgian Bay. In these days of electrical development the demand for copper wire is practically unlimited. The owners of the Parry Sound property have a good thing.

Over in Pennsylvania an old swindle is being operated, and clever and unscrupulous scoundrels may be trying it here ere long. If a well-dressed man, attired like a clergyman, visits your house, and an eloping couple comes along prettty soon and enquires where a minister may be found, stating the intention to be wedded at once, do not permit the ceremony to take place; or at least do not sign the certificate. If you, do, the certificate will turn up as a promisory note and you will have to pay it. Don't sign even a receipt for a dinner given a hard-up stranger, if you would be happy.

The Supreme Court of Indiana has decided that a combination of two gas companies originally organized as competing concerns and holding separate charters is illegal. The court's finding is specific enough. It said: "It is an old and familian maxim that competition is the life of trade, and whatever act destroys competition or even relaxes it, on the part of those who sustain relations to the public, is regarded by the law as injurious to public interests, and is therefore deemed to be unlawful on the grounds of public policy." Such a reading of the law would reach most of the trusts organized to plunder the public and squeeze the workingmen.

A Brantford coroner ordered an Expositor reporter to withdraw from an inquest, the coroner having a private dislike for the reporter. The Expositor says that "to the exclusion of all press representatives on judicial grounds no exception can be taken; the exclusion of a particular reporter because of private differences between the coroner and his victim is in the highest degree reprehensible. The Expositor claims the right to be represented at all functions of a public character, where the ends of justice will not be prejudiced thereby, and to send any representative it may see fit. It is not prepared, without protest, to have this right set aside, because of the prejudice any coroner, magistrate, or judge may hold against individual members of its staff. In the case in point the reporter was conducting himself properly and gave of the coroner, for which it is imposibsle to find any justification."

By pressure from the tories of the baser sort - the Tuppers, Fosters, and others who composed the nest of traitors - Sir Mackenzie Bowell has been induced to defeat the new Redistribution bill in the senate. Neill's Preferential Trade Motion in Commons Defeated After Debate.

Ottawa, July 21 .- By a vote of 36 to 14 the Senate yesterday afternoon killed the redistribution bill. The division was on strictly party lines, with the exception of Senator de Boucherville of Quebec, who voted with the Liberal minority. The result of the vote was, of course, no surprise to the Government, whose members were well aware of the probable isssue since Sir Mackenzie Bowell moved his amendment declaring that the bill was inadvisable at the present juncture, and that the principle of decennial redistributions should be adhered to.

senate's Opinion of Commens. The vote simply means that the members of the Senate hold that the Commons of Canada are not competent to regulate their own affairs. ## IMPORTANT EVIDENCE.

Elections Committee-Irregularities -Scrutiny of Ballots.

Ottawa, July 21 -The evidence in the West Huron election investigation before the privileges and elections committee yesterday morning was of an important Passed Away at His Country character, and caused excitement among the members. Donald Cummings, one of the deputy returning officers, was again on the stand, and was examined by Messrs. Borden and Powell. He did not | HIS LAST END WAS PEACEFUL. in any way go back on his previous testimony, and answered frankly that he could not account for apparent irregularities in connection with the ballots. A great part of the morning was devoted to a critical examination of the ballots.

The examination of Donald Cummings, deputy returning officer at poll No. 4, township of Colborne, riding of West Huron, was resumed in the privileges and elections committee yesterday morning. Mr. Borden took him in hand and elicited the fact that while the poll clerk was at dinner, Lawson, one of Mr. Holmes' scrutineers, had charge of the poll book and made entries in it to the number of some 16 or 17.

To Dr. Russell, Cummings stated that the ballot box was locked all day, and in his charge. He was only out of the booth for two or three minutes during the whole day, and while he was out the scrutineers on both sides were present. There were 98 ballots handed to him, and he put all of these in the box.

Witness having stated Wednesday that he gave up marking his initials in ink because the paper on which the ballots were printed was so thin that the pen went through, Mr. Powell took up the ballots one by one and had him state whether they were endorsed in ink or pencil. The greater number were marked in pencil. A Torrent of Words Let Loose by Mr. Davin's Reference to a Renter Telegram-A Veritable Tempest in a Teapet-Sir Charles Tupper Indulges in More Hifalutin.

Ottawa, July 22 .- Although in order to expedite the progress of public business a morning sitting was held, it was nearly 5 o'clock yesterday before the House went into committee on supply for the consideration of the estimates, which was the real business before it. The delay was caused by a repetition of the discussion on the Yukon charges, which arose on a question raised by Mr. Davin respecting a cable despatch sent by Renter's agency and published in the papers of Great Britain in reference to the failure of Sir Hibbert Tupper's charges. In supply a number of items were passed, after brief discussion. The House adjourned at 12.05.

On the orders of the day being called, Mr. Davin read a telegraph despatch which appeared in The North British Daily Mail of Glasgow, in which it was stated that Reuter's agent at Ottawa had been requested to say that the editorial opinion expressed by The London Times on the charges of maladministration in the Yukon, made by Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, had created great surprise in Canada. The despatch went on to state that in the debate in the Canadian Parliament Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper had been compelled to admit that the charges alleged in his resolution, indictburdens of the Empire. Sir Richard Cartwright spoke very briefly, protesting against the time of the House being wasted by a useless repetition of the discussion upon the Yukon charges. Mr. Foster taunted Sir Richard Cartwright with not attempting to discuss the real issues in the subject under discussion.
