LINDSAY TOWN COUNCIL.

LAW CARRIED AND THE SCHOOL BY-LAW

A regular meeting of the town fathers was held in the council chamber Monday evening. The members present were Mayor Ray, Reeve Kylie, Deputy-reeves Walters and Crandell, and Councillors Keith, Bryans, Touchburn, Mallon, Killaby, Johnston, Head and Lovell.

Minutes of last meeting were read and

A report from the fire brigade, asking for rubber uniforms, was referred to the Burling. Nettie finance committee.

A report from the sanitary inspector was read and referred to the street and bridge committee. A report from the town physician, presenting statement of cost of medicines and services rendered for the months of May, June and July, was referred to the finance committee. From F. L. Somerville, town engineer, submitting plan of Lindsay-st. drain .-Received and fyled An account of $19 from the same official for services in connection with drain was ordered to be added to the financial report. From F. L. Somerville, certifying to Rathbun & Co.'s account for timber .-Referred to finance commiftee and chairman of streets and bridges. The corporation pay-streets on the month of July were laid on the table by the treasurer. The items totalled up about $288. The expenditure on streets and bridges up to date was put at about $1,562. REPORT OF THE STREET AND BRIDGE COM-COUN. TOUCHBURN, chairman, read the Stephens, Margery report, which asked the council to grant $39 for the repair of the sidewalk on the Lindsay-st. bridge ; also that the committee be allowed to have balance of sidewalks built by contract, with power to go on with the same at once.-Adopted. TAKING A REST.

MAYOR RAY remarked that it was some time since the council had had reports from the chairman of the fire and water and police committees, but the gentlemen alluded to did not take the hint. AN ENQUIRY,

Coun, Mallon asked what had become of the plans for the town drainage system. They had been paid for and he thought they should have been presented long before..... The third reading was attempted, but failed, as a two-thirds vote was necessary to carry it that

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE. Melinda; Nicholson, Hannah; Vassar, Ida. Coun. HEAD, chairman, presented the report, which recommended payment of a number of accounts.

Coun. Keith asked why it was that the firemen's account, submitted several times, had not been paid ?

REEVE KYLIE said it was due to the fact that the account had not been properly presented, as the names of the men who had been present on the different occasions had not been given. When this was complied with the money would be forth-

DEPUTY-REEVE CRANDELL objected stranuously to the matter being pushed any farther. The by-law was a farce, would seriously injure the town in the estimation of travellers, and was unjust to the hotel-keepers, who had gone to large expense in fitting up their premises.

Coun. Touchburn said Deputy-reeve Crandell wanted the billiard rooms to be run in connection with the hotels, and he was opposed to that being allowed. The present by-law purposed removing billiards missionary field and will be leaving at from the hotel surroundings, and he once. We are sorry to lose him, as he was thought that was the wish of two-thirds of the people of the town.

After some further discussion the motion was put and the third reading carried-A BUILDING PERMIT.

Permission was given to J. A. Lang to erect a one-story building in rear of the Doheny block, Kent-st., on condition that the same be sheeted with iron. Council then adjourned.

How Rev. Edward Eves Met His Death. Fuller particulars forwarded to Rev. Alexander Sutherland, D. D., of Toronto, of the sad drowning of Rev. Edward Eves, late of Victoria Road, are as follows :- "Rev. Mr. Eves, who was stationed at Norway house, was going off with W. H. Fry, schoolmaster at Cross Lake, Henry Strainger and an Indian guide, to kill arrived at the rapids and the Indian tells the story of the drowning in his affidavit as follows: "They were reconnoitering the rapids, and l had finally fixed the canoes for portaging. Mr Fry called out to Mr. Eves, 'Come and see the rapid, for it is good for running.' They returned and Mr. Eves sat down on the rocks to smoke. I went some distance to look at the rapids and Henry Strainger followed me. We turned around and saw that Eves and Fry had gone out in the cance. I cried to them, but they were within twenty yards of the head of the rapids and the boiling waters had too strong s hold on them. The cance upset a little further down."
