Short and Crawford. For some weeks past our merchants and bankers have been meeting with considerable quantities of spurious silver coin of 25c. and 10c. denominations, and a suspicion that it was being made in the vicinity The Ottawa authorities communicated with, and on Friday last Inspector O'Leary, whose special mission to ferret out counterfeiters, arrived from the capital and registered at the Simpson house under the innocent name will, and taking up the threads of evidence already in the possession of Constables Short and Crawford he followed them up so skilfully that Sunday they felt they had located the guilty parties

Monday morning about 20'clock Inspector O'Leary and the two constables jumped into a rig in waiting at the Dominion Bank corner and started for the country to arrest the suspected parties. The roads were in a bad condition after the heavy shower that fell an hour previous, but they made fast time, and in about an hour and a half from the time of departure they pulled up within a short distance of a house occupied by a family named Murphy, on the township line between Emily and Manvers, about a mile from Mount A little after day-light they approached the house and demanded admission, which was refused, but the door was insecurely fastened and yielded readily to a little prassure. They then arrested the occupants-Wellington Murphy, Allan Murphy, and Lillie Murphy; William Murphy, whom they were very anxious to secure, was not present, but soon after he came in from the barn and threatened to paralyze all hands, but after a show of force he quietly submitted to Constable Short and allowed himself to be

Inspector O'Leary and Constables Short and Crawford deserve credit for the clever way they have handled the affair and the secreey with which their movements were conducted. The offence is such a serious one that the proof has to be of the most conclusive character, and the slightest whisper would have been fatal to their

General Sporting Notes -Another match in all likelihood will take place between the Ontarios, of Port Hope, and the Athletics, of Peterboro, on neutral grounds in a few weeks. The Ontarios communicated with the Athletics Monday morning and suggested that the teams identical with those that contested on Wednesday last meet at Lindsay and play for $250. The Athletics are agreeable and told the Ontarios if they sent a representative here that night with the money they would cover the amount. This Port Hope assented to, and the arrangements will likely be made at once. The Port Hopers, no doubt, feel sore over their defeat | an improvement." This suggestion

Since there are only a little over 8,000 teachers employed in the province it is difficult to see where all these new pedagogues are to find work. Of course a large number are constantly quitting the service in order to enter law, medicine or the ministry, but the higher professions are now as much over-crowded as that of teaching. ST. PETER'S MISSON, HAY RIVER, MacKenzie River District, N.W.T. APRIL STH, 1895. Via Edmonton. DEAR MR. PERRIN,-I am dropping you a line just that I may thank you personally for having so kindly sent out some medicines for my Indians a year ago this spring. I had intended to write you by the last mail which left here on the 13th December of last year, but press of work prevented me. I can hardly tell you how useful all the medicines have been, and especially the Pine Tar cough cordial. I am sorry to say that four of my Indians were taken away by death last fall, but we escaped very well here compared with some places farther south. You will be pleased to know that I am enjoying good health and meeting with every encouragement which I could dare to hope for from my poor redskin friends. I truly believe that God has been and is using me, unworthy, though I am, in drawing some isolated life, I have many rich not least among those blessings is the kind and thoughtful ramembrance of many warm but far distant friends. Again thanking you most heartily for your kindness both on behalf of my Indians and for myself, and with every good and kind wish for you and yours, I remain, grate-THOS. J. MARSH.
