

Scott's Emulsion
 Scott's Emulsion is Cod-liver Oil prepared as a food. At the same time, it is a blood maker, a nerve tonic and an up-builder. But principally it is a food for tired and weak digestions, for those who are not getting their ordinary food; for children whom nothing seems to nourish; for all who are fat-starved and thin.

It is pleasant to take; at least, it is not unpleasant. Children like it and ask for more.

Some druggists have a "just as good" kind, but the kind all others try to equal, good enough for you?

MURDER OF MRS. ORR

Trevelyan, the Medical Student, Discharged From Custody.

YOUNG ALLISON IN THE SWEAT BOX

Another Name Comes Prominently into the Case—Queer Letter Written by Blair to the Murdered Woman—Inspector Murray Questions the Boy Allison for Hours.

Galt, Ont., Aug. 17.—(Special.)—The case of the murder of Mrs. Orr, which has been progressing slowly since the discovery of her body in the sweat box, has taken a new turn to-day. Detective Murray, who has been in charge of the investigation, has discharged from custody Trevelyan, the medical student, who was arrested in connection with the case.

The discharge of Trevelyan from custody is a matter of some interest, as he was the only person named in the coroner's inquest. It is believed that his name was put forward by Allison, the boy who was found in the sweat box, as a means of covering up the truth.

The case of the murder of Mrs. Orr is one of the most sensational that has occurred in Lindsay in many years. It has attracted the attention of the public and the press alike, and has been the subject of much speculation and conjecture.

The discovery of the body of Mrs. Orr in the sweat box was a shocking and mysterious event. It has led to the arrest of several persons, and the case has been the subject of much public interest.

"What's up?" asked Orr. "Oh, nothing," replied Allison with a smile. Orr asked him the same question again and got the same reply. Finally Allison said: "Your wife has gone." The news threw Orr into a great state of excitement, and he instituted a search at once, and was unfruitful in his efforts to locate her. Very few persons can be found who had any conversation with Allison since the tragedy, and it is impossible to tell whether he has stuck to the same story throughout. As far as the coroner's inquest is concerned, the story he told on the day of the tragedy, and Detective Murray succeeded in shaking him in the sweat box to-day.

Whether Allison actually committed the deed himself or not, the general impression is that he knows a good deal about the matter, and that he is not telling the truth. It is believed that he is a cunning and crafty fellow, and that he is capable of the most heinous crimes.

The second theory connects Harry Blair with the tragedy. Blair is a young man who has been in Lindsay for some time, and who is believed to be a cunning and crafty fellow. It is believed that he is a cunning and crafty fellow, and that he is capable of the most heinous crimes.

some time past that when I got up pretty well dressed and I found the cold shivering. You must understand that I again tell you you were told by you things would be so you did not beat me with a telling you. I know that it is true for I could see things were not as they should be. I was perfectly satisfied for I have thought it over and over again, and I again say I am perfectly satisfied.

P.S.—Now I tell you as long as I was right I would never tell you anything but the truth. I know that it makes a great change with us, instead of us being one with you, we are now one with you. I know that it makes a great change with us, instead of us being one with you, we are now one with you.

question whether he committed the deed before or after going to Barrack Hill, and George Barrie's evidence at the inquest to-morrow will be very important, showing how long he stayed, his manner and when he left. The coroner's inquest will be held at the coroner's office at 11 o'clock to-morrow.

AT THE INQUEST.
 Anthony Orr Tells How Young Allison Acted When the Body Was Found.

Galt, Ont., Aug. 18.—(Special.)—The inquest on the body of Mrs. Orr was resumed in the Court room of the Town Hall before Coroner Barrack Hill at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The prisoner was taken to his home across the river to the inquest, and arrived there on his Sunday-go-to-meet day. He appeared looking clean and tidy, and exhibited no signs of fear or nervousness. He was dressed in a suit of dark clothing, and appeared for the prisoner, Crown Attorney Barrack Hill, who was supported by the Crown Attorney, Barrack Hill, who was supported by the Crown Attorney, Barrack Hill.

John Orr, brother of Anthony, was the first witness. He lives on the farm at Galt, and he was the first to see the body of his sister. He was called to the spot by fresh earth thrown up on either side. He called Douglas Lillie's attention to the fact that he saw the body of his sister. He simply took one or two spadeful, when he saw the body of his sister. He was the first to see the body of his sister.
