> COMMUNICATIONS The Projected Salary Grab.

[To the Editor of THE POST ] SIR,-Will his worship please rise and explain. The Warder in an editorial states: "The mayor endorsed Reeve Touchburn's view," in opposition to a scheme whereby the mayor would draw

$300 from the unsuspecting people as LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS salary and give each councillor $50. Is there any truth, Mr. Mayor, in the men-tion of this matter? The Warder gives Touchburn's and Horn's positions-what about Sootheran, Mallon and Barrowsare they for or against the scheme? And is your own position only one of mild protest ?- Yours,

When the petition was presented are having good times at their Monday holiday. When the petition was presented to us we declined to sign it, stating it was absurd to think of any day in the week other than Thursday. Other leading merchants declined signing for the same reason, and we are sure had the merchants whose names appear on the petition given it a moment's consideration they also would have declined.

As it is now, very few of the business places will be closed on Tuesday, (we certainly will not), and the onus of debarring many citizens of their annual Civic holi day must fall upon the Canadian Order of Oddfellows, who, in the face of the many protests from merchants, pressed for Tuesday instead of Thursday, which has generously been given as a half holiday during the months July and August.— Yours, DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS.
