(From another correspondent.) PARALYTIC STROKE .. - Mr. R:bt Poole, of Fenelou, is suffering from a paralytic stroke. Mr. Poole is an old resident, much respected, and his sudden illness is much regretted by his friends and neighbors. CHURCH NOTE.—Rev. Mr. Innis preached two excellent sermons in the Presbyterian church on the subject fore-ordination. In the first sermon he showed from history that it was embraced by Augustine, of Hippo. Luther, Melanethon, Calvin, Crammer, Baxter and other prominent reformers. In the second sermon he proved his assertions from scripture. Both sermons showed study and ability and were listened to attentively.... Rev. Mr. Kenny, of the Methodist church, was, on account of a severe attack of sickness, unable to fulfil his appointment. We are pleased to learn that the rev. gentleman is recovering......

Picnic -Oa Thursday, August 12:h, a very erjoyable picuic promoted by the ladies of the congregation, was held in the Fort field, Balsam Lake. A number of visitors came from Cobcconk per Mr. Phillips' steamer, and there was a large attendance of friends from Kukfi ld, Victoria Read, Engle Point and other places. Tea was served in the schoolhouse, and the display of dainties did great credit to the culinary skill of the fairer portion of the congregation. The handsome sum of $23 50 was realized. GARDEN PARTY .- On Thursday, Sept. 9 h, a garden party will be held on the beautiful grounds adjaining the R C. church at Victoria Road. At 3 o'clock a buggy will be drawn for; in the evening the grove will be illuminated with Chicese lanterns, etc. Refreshments of all kinds will be served by the lady parishioners at o'clock. CIVIC .- We have had our civic holiday, and kept the 12th of August in commemoration of the relief of Darry. Favored by fine, cool weather our "civio" was a proncunced success, and only two or three payvies were in evidence as being ardent disciples of Bacchus. From Bancreft, Baptiste Lake, the present terminus of the L. B. & O. R. R., Deer Lake. Cardin and Monmouth, on the east, from Lindsay, Fenelon, Kinmount and Snewdon, on the west, as well as from Cavendish, Anstruther and Galway, the populace turned only one dancing platform-that of Harry McColl's-patronized. Up in the higher and more refined regions, where the pure and refreshing breezes of Pine Lake brought their exhilarating influences to bear, a free dancing booth had b en erect-ed by Mr. A. Rose, whilst his esteemed con-in-law, Mr. Jas. Tindall, presided at a refreshment counter, where soft drinks candles, etc., were on sale. Owing to the change of wind, which moved the boom of legs owned by C. J. Pusey (?) right under the greasy pole, climbing the same had to be given up, which was a great disappointment to many. The shooting, cance and log races, the running and jumping, and all the usual accessories of civic sports, including a fat women's race, were carried out to the letter and amidst great good humor among the crowd. In the evening Mr. Rose, having secured the use of the spacious dining and sitting rooms of the Queen's hotel from Mre. Way, transferred his fiddler and a relect party of the disciples of Terpsichore, including the Upper town aristocracy, to it, and charging a small fee, indulged in dancing to the wee sms' hours in the morning. Mrs. Way, of the Queen's hotel, did a roaring trade in the culinary department, and her bar was also well patronized. But I am come to the end of my tether. not for want of matter, but of paper, of which send me a supply and oblige.
