JANENVILLE.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Though we have been unable to appear of late in your columns, it is again convenient for us to renew correspondence, and we do this in issue to our observations on Niagara River. Her dark blue waters glide between her high steep banks. As we stem wind and tide, the forests line the shore. With verdant beauty dressed, Brook's Monument before—We need not tell the rest.

The sunset lends a hue To everything so bright, That we can wish this year, With us to enjoy the sight. Our right, Ontario; Our left is New York State. And we could wish 'twere so They were one land create.

But soon will come in sight The bridges all that bring Both hand in hand so tight. That harmony doth sing With echo loud and clear, As rushing torrents fall, That make Niagara dear To pleasure-seekers all.

The beet industry will be in full blast in a very short time, and will make things lively in the neighborhood, as it will give employment to about seventy men. The machinery is all in position, with the exception of a drier, which is expected to arrive in a very short time. On Thursday last a number of Peterboro and Lindsay citizens interested in the work, paid the place a flying visit, and after seeing the machinery in operation, expressed themselves highly pleased with prospects.

We are much pleased to offer our congratulations to the following students of our public school, who successfully passed their examinations, viz: P. S. Leving—Miss B. Campbell, Messrs. Wm. McKenzie, James McKenzie, John Perry and John McKenzie. Entrance—Miss Cora Burling, Daisy Metcalfe, Carrie Brice, James Routley and Wm. Boynton.

Mrs. (Dr.) Stacey, of Toronto, is at present paying a short visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry. Mrs. L. McKenzie, of Toronto, is spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. L. McFadyen. We are pleased to see so many once-familiar faces again amongst us.

The Orangemen of this district will assemble here on Sunday afternoon next for the purpose of attending divine service in the Presbyterian church. The Rev. B. M. Smith will preach a special sermon on this occasion.

(From Another Correspondent.)

Thursday afternoon last two of our well-known local sports went to Balsam Lake with the intention of meeting excursionists from Lindsay. Shortly after their arrival they decided to go out for a row in a boat found at Laidlaw's landing. This was no sooner said than done; one jumped into the boat, took his seat, and lighting a cigar, "didn't care a darn how things went," he called on his companion to let her go, and go he did, "you bet." The boat tipped and over went the two sports into the water, but this is what one might expect when one does not know enough to sit down. And then the fun began—the two wet sports floundered about and it is said the water rose four feet, and that fishing was destroyed for a few days owing to the condition of the stream.

A message was at once sent to Mr. and Mrs. Newman, who were in Bob-caygeon at the time, and when the sad news was made known to them Mrs. Newman was prostrated with the shock. We Keep a Knife Up Our Sleeve.

And we mean business. During the balance of the Summer season it will be used to slash prices as prices have never been slashed before. We are concentrating every muscle for

A TERRIFIC REDUCTION OF $30,000 STOCK.

To make room for New Early Fall Goods, now under order, Summer stocks have been given their passports. Under Gough's rule, no summer goods must pass out of their season into the next. Empty the shelves! Empty the shelves! We're going to do it.

Gough's Summer Slaughter Sale

Simply annihilates opposition. We are ready to sacrifice our Fine Clothing at just about the buyer's own price, leaving profits to be made when times and season are more in harmony. A quick cash turn-over, even if the slump in prices costs us a farm.

The emphasis of this advertisement is the great fact that we're able to sell on a closer margin than others.

The mighty wave of success that has followed our Annual Clearance sales must reach a triumphant issue this season.

Next week will be crowded full of bargain enthusiasm—paralyzing both old fogie and youthful imitators, and giving their stores the dismal appearance of a dungeon.

This is Lindsay's and Victoria's opportunity. Come and walk through the busy store—your visit will be fruitful of many surprises to you. See how the control of unlimited cash has placed worthy goods here for you choosing at HALF PRICE, and even less.

VANCOUVER INLAND COAL.

The British Columbia Salmen Packing Co. Vancouver, B.C., Aug. 2.—During the seven months ended July 31, Vancouver inland coal exports shipped 436,000 tons of coal to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Alaska, Puget Sound points and China. During July 86,000 tons were exported. The salmon season in Alaska and Northern British Columbia is about at an end. It is estimated that the salmon pack at Rivers Inlet will be 25 or 30 per cent. less than last season, but the Skeena River pack will be about the average. The Fraser River pack will be very large, unless the run of fish materially improves.

NEWSPAPER CLAR AT WORK.

This Time He Used the British Colonial Office Without Warrant. London, Aug. 2.—A few days ago a news agency issued a statement, on the alleged authority of the Colonial Office, that the Alaska question hinged on the interpretation of the Anglo-Russian treaty of 1825, defining the boundary and explaining Great Britain's position with considerable detail, saying: "The Colonial Office is not aware that the United States has offered Canada a port on the Lynn Canal," and adding that it was "not correct to state that Lord Salisbury, the British minister in Washington, had stated that the Government was hampered by Sir Wilfrid Laurier." Mr. John Anderson, principal clerk of Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, says no such statement has been issued by the Colonial Office, and that the representative of the news agency, and that absolutely no such particulars in regard to the Alaska question have been given by any representative of that agency, which has, therefore, used the authority of the British Colonial Office entirely without warrant.
