EDITORIAL NOTES. TUPPER OR THOMPSON?

It seems to be the general impression that Sir John Abbott has been persuaded not to press his urgent desire to retire from the premiership.

Fresh interest in the boom for Sir Chas. Tupper has been caused by the hurried decision of Mr. Foster to accompany Sir John Abbott across the pond.

The Dominion financial statement for the fiscal year ending 30th June last, just issued, shows a surplus of a quarter of a million in revenue over expenditure.

A Georgia town has a rat that appears on the shelf in a store and sings like a bird. The clerk in the store and a national bank president vouch for the truthfulness of the report.

There is general regret at the sudden death of Mr. Jas. Trow, late M. P. for South Perth and for many years the popular and esteemed "whip" of the liberal party.

some talk of Mr. Meredith entering the cabinet, and it is even said that Cardwell is to be opened by appointing the present member, Mr. R. S. White, to the office of collector of customs at Montreal.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

The presidential campaign across the border has opened in earnest, and will be carried on with red hot energy for the next two months.

In the present contest the great question again is: How will New York vote? The electoral vote of the Empire state will practically decide the election.

It is quite likely that there will be very marked changes in the western states; that Cleveland may on the tariff issue there make some remarkable gains.

Mr. Laurier in a public address at Montreal recently expressed these sound and true liberal sentiments: "We are in a democratic age and country, but the ideal democracy, the Christian democracy, such as it should exist on this continent, is not founded on a base sentiment; it does not envy anyone either greatness of name, brilliancy of rank or splendor of fortune."

IT RESTS THE BACK. Most women know all about the misery of wash-day. To many it means Backache, Sore Hands, Hard Rubbing over a steaming tub, and long hours. This falls to the lot of those who use poor, cheap, and injurious soaps.

News contemporary will be clapped into dungeons vile if it keeps on in this line. If a reform newspaper had made the suggestion what a howl there would have been all through the land!

American literature has sustained serious losses the past week in the death of the poet Whitier and of George William Curtis, the accomplished political editor of Harper's Weekly and the writer of the charming series of essays in Harper's Monthly in the department entitled The Editor's Easy Chair.
