Church Notes. -Rev. Newton Hill will give an address at Canington this (Friday) evening.

-Rev. Mr. Marsh of St. Paul's preached in St. Thomas church Millbrook, Sunday last, to a large congregation.

-The Rev. F. O. Mahoney, auxiliary bishop of the Roman Catholic see of Toronto, died Thursday morning last, in his 77th year.

-Archbishop Walsh of Toronto will celebrate, on the 16th November next, the twenty-fifth anniversary of his episcopal consecration.

-Dr. Pierson of Philadelphia will on the 1st of January assume his duties as successor to the late Mr. Spurgeon at the Tabernacle, London, England.

-The most Rev. Dr. John Medley, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of Fredericton and Metropolitan of the English church in Canada, died on Friday last at his home in Fredericton at the age of 88 years and five months, and was buried in the cemetery of New Brunswick.

-The ladies' aid of the Cambridge-st. Methodist church will give a supper on Tuesday evening, October 4. Supper served from six to eight o'clock, after which an account musical program will be furnished. Tickets, 25c.

-The quarterly communion service will be held in St. Andrew's church on Sunday (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock. On Sunday evening the pastor will address the church with reference to the young people.

-The Cambridge-st. Methodist church was well attended Sunday last. Messrs. Curtis and the aggressive work of the church in its different departments will be discussed with reference to the young people.

-Rev. Newton Hill occupied his own pulpit at St. Andrew's church on Sunday. The lecture room of the church was crowded to excess, and quite a number had to be turned away. It is expected that when the addition to the church is completed all will be accommodated. The organization of a different religious society in the winter is being pushed forward.

-The re-opening of the Queen-st. Methodist church will take place on Sunday and Monday, October 9th and 10th. Rev. Dr. Sutherland of Toronto, the popular and eloquent pastor, will be the guest of the church. The people of Queen-st. church are to be congratulated on securing such an array of talent.

-The Kingston News says: "The Rev. Robt. Harding, for many years rector of the old St. Paul's church, Adolphus-st., but more recently of the new church, died at the latter town on Friday last at the age of 83 years. He was born in Ireland and came to this country as a young man. His education was received at the Glasgow theological college. In 1841 he was made a deacon of the William-st. church, and in 1846 he was ordained priest by the Lord Bishop of Toronto. His first appointment was the parish of Eglar, and many old friends will be sorry to hear of his death. No doubt many of the old residents of this district will retain kindly recollections of the venerable old gentleman."

Personal. -Miss Hall of Peterboro is visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spier's, Russell-st.

-Miss Jones has
