LINDSAY, FRIDAY, SEPT. 16, 1892.

A MOOD. Half shut in between the world and Heaven

I seemed to be last night, mine only love. Above me figured lanterns blazed-through White lattices I watched that silvery dove,

The wan moon, wing, while from her pinions Pin feathers dropped, and streaked the slaty

With liquid light. A perfumed austral gale

Through all the lattices, and music came. Warm music with her casket full of dreams

And jewel joys. Forgot were sin and blame, Wers wrongs, mistakes and heart-aches, for The lethean sir, the prespect and perfumes,

The symphonies, were rendolent of God, Forever busy with His ceaseless flumes Of color, form and sound. There was no rod! For though you were not near me,dear, to share That witchery, He gave me thought to know That we were one in any scene-gave pray'r And hope to light me to you when I go. Jos. Nevin Doyle:

SAD RESULT OF A SHOOTING ACCIDENT.—
On Thursday last Master Joseph Twomy, aged about 14 years, son of Mr. John Twomy of Ennismore, was accidentally shot by the premature discharge of an air gur. The point struck him in the stomach and penetrated so deeply that the injury, which was not at first thought to be serious, resulted in the lad's death on Saturday morning.—[Examiner.

AGRICULTURAL SHOW.—The bills and prize list of the agricultural society are being distributed. The show is to be held on October the 4th and 5th. The list is much the same as last year; a class of draugh horses has been added, and Hol-Stein cattle have a class.

GRAIN.-The result of the threshing

Oats are good. Barley is a good crop though the color is a trifle off. Wheat is bad. The hot week, previous to cutting, checked the filling too suddenly. The consequence is that the top of the ear is hen feed, and the best of the ear is shrunk up, poor quality grain. With wheat at 65c a bushel, the outlook for the farmer is not to say brilliant. One gentleman states that he got thirty bushels off six acres, and has to pay $3 an acre rent, which looks as if the rative of the Emerald late might find sempantonable company even in the great land of freedom and plenty .- [Independent.

ACCIDENT -On Tuesday last, while Mr. George Howsem, of Uties, was cleaning the crimer of his threshing machine, his tight hand got caught in the teeth and was crushed so bely that amputation of the whole hand was necessary. It is reported that the doctors fear blood; bolsening, much sympachy is felt for Mr. Howsem, as he lost his wife a short time and and is left with the care of all small children. Mr. Jerome Tuchy was bitten a few days ago by a dog balonging to Mr. John A. Mr. Hillitray. Mr. Tuchy, we understand, shot the dog. As the accident occurred on A $200,000 OPERA HOUSE.—There has been a great deal of talk regarding a new theatre for Toronto, which as yet has never amounted to anything. But the matter has at last arrived at a definite shape and ACCIDENTAL DEATH OF CHIEF PAUDUSH.

Chief Paudush, the venerable head of one of the finest temples of amusement on bicycle rider whose name was not ascertained turned in at the same moment from the opposite side of the track and the two riders collided. Heard was thrown from his wheel immediately in front of the approaching trolley, and, realizing his danger, made a desperate attempt to save himself, but it was too late. In a moment the car was upon him. The body was frightfully mangled, the left leg being completely severed from the body. The deceased lived with his father and mother on Wellington avenue, and was Arthur on Wellington avenue, and was Arthur Polson's brother-in-law.

Beholding all the enthusiasm, Columbus despatched a formal embassy to Guacana gari, and on hearing their report he determined despite the prevailing land-breeze, to weigh anchor and sail to the dominions of his friends, which were some five leagues distant. He set out at day break on December 24th. Little progess was made during Fire.—The barn and outbuildings on the farm rented by Mr. Irwin and owned by it, as best befitted his own health and the comfort of his own crew, by enjoying a sound sleep. He retired, worn out by three nights of vigil following three days of herculean labor. Sweet must have been his rest! His discovery of that new world simple races bound to nature by such mys-terious ties and soon to be brought into the fold of civilization and Christianity, must have filled his mind with happy dreams on this the first restful Christmas eve he had passed in thirty years of titanic contest with all the world, and at times even with his own self. It was midnight, when the echces of childhood and of times long past fill the slumbering ear. The heavens smiled, and the sea was calm. The sailors of skifts and cances sent by Columbus to the Indian king. A ship's boy held the helm, so assured were they all of fair weatherand the safety of their course- when he flag-ship suddenly struck upon a reef Columbus instantly divined his peril, and hurried on deck. With lightning rapidity he gave orders to cut away the mast and throw the cargo overboard. But the remedy was futile; it was no mere stranding, f Pints and the loss of the Santa Maria, onl the smallest and frailest of the three caravels that had set sail from Pales remained. He went on board the Nins, and that faithful tribs and in their kindly menaich. All the allecer needed in that sed hour, and all regulates provision for the future, were given to the sufferers with admirable orderliness. The salvage of the wreck was plied on shore and, under the chiel's orders, scrupnionally guarded by the natives as though it were their own. The cargo was rapidly discharged and stored in a place of safety, without the loss of a pin's
