EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

—The Allan liner Peruvian, with cattle and freight, which left Montreal for Glasgow Wednesday morning, ran aground on a mud bank at Yarmouth, where the channel is very narrow.

—Russia has sent a note to the Porte saying serious consequences may result from the relations now existing between Turkey and Bulgaria, which Russia holds as contrary to the provisions of existing treaties.

—The first locomotive from Jaffa, arrived at Jerusalem some time ago. Let us recall from Jerusalem by the Palestine exploration fund, dated August 22, announce that the locomotive had reached the city on the previous day. Famine are not yet running, but the rails have been laid down all along the line, and the road, which is being made by a French company, will be opened on the 22nd of this month. The terminus is unfinished; it will be on the west of the road to Bethlehem, not far from the south end of the Mount of Olives.

—George Burns of Belleville was arrested Wednesday charged with having committed criminal knowledge of his stepdaughter, Mary Elizabeth, under the age of 14 years, on 22-d May, 1891. Burns is a wool-picker, and on the day in question, it is alleged, he went into the house and had no one else about in need his stepdaughter to go into an adjoining room. The mother soon after heard of the result and ordered her husband to leave the city on pain of arrest, which he accordingly did, going to Toronto.

When Burns returned home this week in quest of work, he was arrested.

—Judge Short, leader of the notorious band of cattle thieves with headquarters in the Bad Lands, has been captured and lynched by ranchmen, and several of his band have been killed.

—Nashville, Tenn., has a real live king who has just been called to his home to mount the throne. The king's name is Momolu Massicot, and his country is Vaj, which adjoins Liberia. Momolu has been for two years attending college, and is 20 years old. He has just received letters stating that his father, King Eshah, has been killed in battle, and that his mother has died of starvation.

—News has reached Des Moines, Ia., of an attempt of a gang of negro tramps to loot and burn the village of Spencer in the north-western part of the state. A pitched battle was fought between the negroes and citizens, and revolvers were used recklessly. Five negroes are in goal and the people of the town are intensely excited. It is reported that a number were seriously injured in the melee.

Life in the Slums.

“HIGH RENTS PAID BY NEW YORK'S POOR FOR WRETCHED TENEMENTS.”

You will return from your first visit to the slums with two strong impressions: One, of the utter hopelessness of trying to do any thing; the other, of the necessity for doing something immediately, lest the heavens fall. Perhaps you have evolved in your boudoir some beautiful scheme of amelioration; it has occurred to you that if ten rich men of the city could be persuaded to give $100,000 apiece, not as a charity but as an investment, to build ten tenements each to accommodate seventy families, it would be a great and glorious thing. But, as you stand in “the Bend” in Mulberry street and gaze about you, it will be to say in despair, “$1,000,000, ten tenements, 700 families! Of what possible use to plan such an infinitesimal oasis of relief in this universe of misery and degradation?”

You have never before seen people so hived. Above you, below you, behind you, in front of you, to the right, to the left, in the rear, in the distance, crowded against each other, behind each other, above each other, are human beings. They swarm on the side-walks, they are entering and issuing from the doorways, they lean out the windows. You have always supposed that in the homes of the poor you would be filled with pity for the hard work you would be seeing them do; women bending over wash-tubs or ironing-tables, cobblers cobbling, tailors sewing, seamstresses running machines, tinkers mending, children weeping bitterly, as they, too, turn a machine or try to make a shoe; everybody toiling for dear life for a mouthful of bread, too busy to look up, even as you pass. But the first impression made upon you in the slums is that of a horrible leisure. What are these people doing? Nothing. What are they capable of doing? Nothing. What do they want you to do for them? Nothing. What can you do for them? Nothing.

Nothing is more astonishing, in investigating the slums, than the discovery of the enormous prices the poor are paying for the most wretched accommodations. One man boasts that he draws 33 per cent on his tenement investments. Mr. Alfred White's experiments with improved tenements have been carried on for ten years, and have been made in the city, which is the third largest in the United States, so that he has certainly

Modern Rome.

Portions of Old Rome are now disappearing, notably the Ghetto, or Jewish quarter, and New Rome is increasing so fast that its great uprisings buildings look not unlike those of New York, were it not for that poetry of color—pink, yellow, terra cotta and pale blue—in which the Italians so much delight. Great changes are going on over the Eternal City—excavations in the Forum, and elsewhere, are being liberally pushed, and sanitary measures enforced. Whole streets of fine buildings are replacing ruin and debris, and, as if its three hundred and sixty churches were not enough, St. John Lateran, where all the popes are crowned, has been enlarged to a surprising extent, while St. Paul beyond the walls, which to my mind is quite as splendid as St. Peter's, has now a complete facade. Growth and enterprise are marks of our time even in old Rome, stimulated, no doubt, by the constant stream of tourists, but encouraged also by the wise policy of King Umberto, who loves his people and is idolized by them.

Slaves in Turkey.

WHAT THEY ARE WORTH AND HOW THEY ARE TREATED BY THEIR OWNERS.

According to Mr Cox, “there is scarcely a family in Turkey, which has the means, that does not possess a number of women and girl slaves, black and white. The black are from Central Africa and Nubia; the white are Circassians sold by their parents.” The price of the female slave varies with their pretensions to good looks, the comely ones being to some extent educated and taught to sing, dance and make themselves agreeable. We learn that a girl under 10 will bring $100, a maiden between 12 and 16 if she be attractive and can play upon the zither, from $3,500 to $5,000. If the young woman be a blonde, with black eyes and otherwise of rare beauty, she may bring from $4,000 to $6,000. An amateur who supposed that in the homes of the poor he would be filled with pity for the hard work you would be seeing them do; women bending over wash-tubs or ironing-tables, cobblers cobbling, tailors sewing, seamstresses running machines, tinkers mending, children weeping bitterly, as they, too, turn a machine or try to make a shoe; everybody toiling for dear life for a mouthful of bread, too busy to look up, even as you pass. ## HOW VERY PROVOKING IS IT NOT?

To buy something which appears to be a genuine bargain and find it not at all what you expected. Have you ever been served that way with Woolen Goods? (Yarn which did not pay for knitting; Blankets that turned yellow and hard when washed). If so, you had resolved to be more careful in future. Still, with every precaution and large experience you cannot always tell shoddy from honest Goods. The best buyers are deceived. In dealing with us, however, you run no chances, as we do not handle shoddy. Honest Goods and Low Prices are the inducements we offer our customers. Our stock of Yarn is complete—38 different kinds Heavy Yarns for Men's wear, as good as home made. Fine Yarn, all shades.

Call and see our BLANKETS and FLANNELS before buying. Custom weaving done on shortest notice, at 15 cts. per yard; we provide the cotton, double width 30sts. Deal direct with the manufacturers.
