

New Cash Dry Goods Store.

KEFER & CO.,

OPPOSITE BENSON HOUSE, LINDSAY.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,--- We return thanks for the liberal share of patronage accorded to us since we commenced business, six months ago, in Lindsay. Now, knowing the wants of the public, we are safe in saying our stock for FALL AND WINTER is what the people require; we have the latest styles, newest goods, and we sell at the lowest possible cash prices. CREDIT--- we don't know what it means; it is a thing of the past. Our motto was first, and will be last, CASH and ONE PRICE ONLY.

We hear a great deal about IMPORTING goods. We import some goods, not all. We don't blow very much, but sometimes it becomes necessary. We will not take a back seat from any importing house, not in Lindsay alone, but Ontario. Our goods are new and the best value money can buy.

LADIES, our stock of MANTLES is choice and great value. Our Fur Capes, Collars, Caps, Muffs and Astrachan Jackets are the best value shown in the trade; a line also for little girls. DRESS GOODS--- Do not buy without seeing our Dress Goods; Black Dress Goods a specialty; remarkable value in all other lines.

CORSETS, GLOVES and HOSIERY, the best value money can buy. Children's Kid Gloves, Children's Underwear, Ladies' Underwear, special values. See our 3c. Ladies' Vests. Chenille Curtains, Lace Curtains, new Table Covers, Table Linens, Notions of all kinds. Our Staples will speak for themselves. Ask to see them.

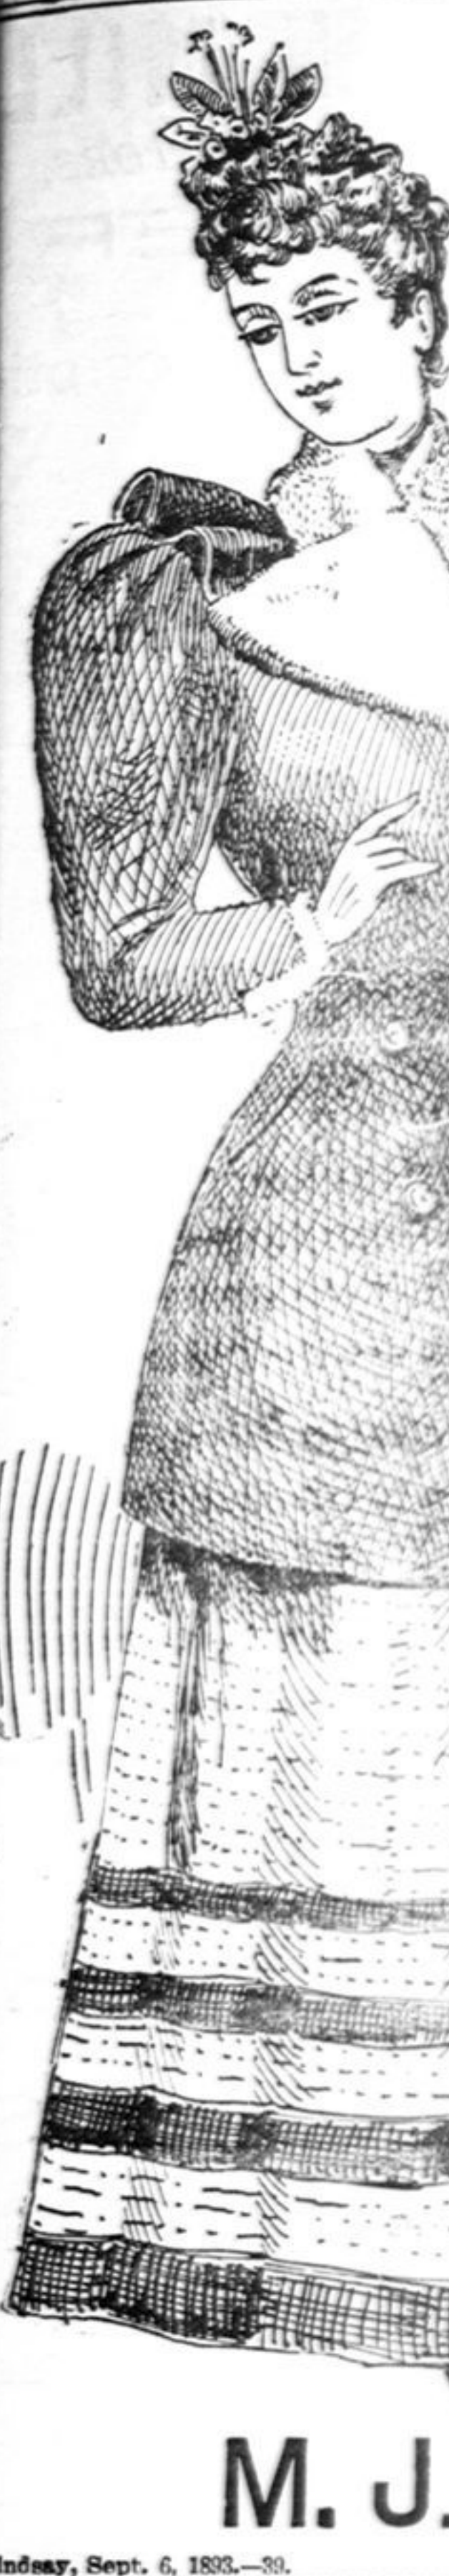

GENTLEMEN, do not forget we carry a first-class line of Furnishings. Underwear for Men, Youths and Boys. Shirts, Collars, Braces, Socks, Handkerchiefs, Storey's, Napa Buck Gloves and Mitts. Everything as represented.

We extend a cordial invitation to the public, and all visitors to our fair, to call and examine our stock and see our store. One price to everybody.

LINDSAY, FRIDAY, SEPT. 22, 1893.

TARIFF REVISION AGAIN.

Sir John Thompson has been compelled by the plainly growing force of the public opinion to advance from a lopping off of "a mouldering branch" to a complete and careful revision of the tariff. This might mean a good deal were it not that the "careful revision" is to be made in the interests of the protected rural men for Mr. Foster, the minister of finance has declared that the principle of protection must be maintained, and that if 50 per cent. is required to protect an industry, then 50 per cent. must be the tariff; if 75 per cent. is required then the tariff tax must stand at that figure. It is quite clear that "tariff revision" conducted on these lines and inspired by these main ideas, will be a delusion and a fraud, and that the last state of the unfortunate consumer and taxpayer will be worse than his first state.

In the mean-time Mr. Laurier is carrying on the tariff reform campaign in Ontario to the most gratifying success. The attendance at the public meetings has been remarkably large, and the audiences have been very enthusiastic. Mr. Laurier on every occasion has made a most favorable impression. He makes many friends wherever he appears, not only by his earnest and convincing eloquence but by his winning personality. Madame Laurier too, has an equally gratifying reception, and is equally popular.

Sir John Thompson has been announced for a series of meetings to counteract the effect of Mr. Laurier's splendid receptions. This will make the month interesting in a political sense; to be so good a Tory as "Don" Sheppard of "Saturday Night" that it is not a wise plan. He says in his last paper: "Mr. Laurier has gone out to address the electors and is forcing the government into the unfortunate position so long occupied by the opposition. It seems to me that Sir John Thompson is not well advised to permit himself to be organized by his enemies into the tail end of a procession. "Don" is afraid the Dominion government is "weak-kneed," and he frankly tells them that "at a time like this they cannot afford to let their joints rattle before the Opposition. Dignity and reserve is the only thing that can protect them from criticism. No man can work these things better than Sir John Thompson. With dignity as an under-shirt and official reserve as an outer garment almost any man can seem exceedingly clever and statesman-like." This is rather irrelevant, but it is a Tory's organ's views frankly expressed.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is considered certain that the bill to repeal the Sherman silver bill will pass the senate by fifteen or twenty majority. A vote will in all probabilities be reached in a few days. The people are getting tired of the delay.

Halifax Chronicle: It is a significant coincidence that nearly one-half of the net increase of Canada's public debt during the past fiscal year—$545,000—is represented by the waste and exorbitant connection with the Curran bridge. Montreal. Perhaps it is not a coincidence that one of the men who figured so prominently and extensively in that scandal should have been permitted, or selected, to lead the applause at the Thompson demonstration in Montreal on Tuesday night.

The Stratford Beacon remarks that the Hon. David Mills "is now engaged on a three-volume work on constitutional law relating to Great Britain and her colonies and going back to the separation of the American colonies. The work will be well come in this country and Great Britain and the United States as well." Mr. Mills is probably the highest living authority in Canada on constitutional questions, and is a clear and vigorous writer. A work of the kind mentioned will prove of deep interest as well as of great value.

Stock Notes.
 —Mr. Wm. Wilson, of lot 11, con. 11, Martineau, has the fine thoroughbred Yorkshire white boar "Rosette Duke" for service on his premises. The animal comes from valuable imported stock, and has a fine pedigree. Farmers should patronize this grand pig. Terms, $1 for one; $1.75 for two.

During the Fair.
 The Academy will be occupied by the Harry Lindsay Dramatic Company. Mr. Lindsay's Company this season is among the best amateur companies travelling. The Peterboro papers say he is strongly supported and his performance are much superior to any he has ever given. He opens the house on Wednesday night next with "Shadows of a Great City" and follows with a splendid performance to be announced on Wednesday. His cast consists of 15 performers, and his attractions are well worth seeing. Prices placed at 15, 25 and 50c.—77-1.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

OFFICE OF THE CANADIAN POST, LINDSAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1893.

Toronto Live Stock Market.
 The feeling of trade was a little better at the western cattle market Tuesday, although prices and buyers attended, the majority of them feeling inclined to hold off until things improve. There were 47 carloads of stock on the market, including about half a dozen loads which were there before. Besides the cattle there were about 500 sheep and lambs, 556 hogs and about a dozen calves. Receipts for the week ended Saturday, Sept. 15, were:—Cattle, 1,534; sheep and lambs, 2,086; hogs, 1,822. Everything was pretty well sold at the close.

Export cattle.—The feeling of this trade was improved, with prices hardly noticeably firmer. The quality of the offerings was better than has been the case for some time, and this fact, coupled with the fact that some dealers were compelled to pick up a few loads to fill up space on their cars, gave the market a better tone. A few loads of good quality were bought up early, leaving mostly a loose cattle were handled slowly. Top quality, 1,200 lbs average, $3.50 per head; 1,200 lbs average, $3.50 per head; 1,200 lbs average, $3.50 per head; 1,200 lbs average, $3.50 per head.

Butcher's cattle.—Good prime stuff was in demand. The top price touched was $3.65 per cwt. for choice leaders and low weight bring $3.25 per cwt. Interior and common butcher's sold from $2.50 to $3.00 per cwt. according to quality. There was a pretty fair lot of fat stuff which better selling offering is becoming a little scarce. All fat animals always get the preference. Some sales were:—22 cattle, 1,100 lbs average, $3.75 per head; 21 cattle, 1,100 lbs average, $3.75 per head; 21 cattle, 1,075 lbs average, $3.65 per cwt.

Hogs.—This market is firm. Good straight fat hogs, washed off cars, fetch from $3.10 to $3.25 per cwt. according to quality. Everything sold readily. A few picked lots brought $3.30 per cwt. washed off cars. Stores and half-fat hogs are in good demand at figures quoted below. Stores and rough hogs sell slowly at steady prices. Sows are wanted.

Shorn and lamb.—The market is about the same, with lambs a little steadier. Picked bunches of lambs bring $3.50 per head, but the majority of the sales were made at from $3 to $3.25 per head. Butcher's sheep are firmer in purpose. As high as $4 and $4.50 per head was paid, up as high as $3 being paid for prime fat sheep. Not much is being done in the export line.

Obituary.

The announcement of the death of Mr. William McMan, which occurred on Monday, Sept. 13th, was received with general regret throughout the town, as his position as caretaker of the post office had been the means of his forming a circle of acquaintances and his obligation had made for him many friends. Mr. McMan was born in the county of Fermanagh, Ireland, May 27th, 1831, and emigrated to Canada two years later with his parents, and resided in this country for many years, and was happily until his death, leaving no children. He came to Lindsay about 35 years ago, and obtained employment at his trade of blacksmithing, at which he worked until appointment in connection with the post office. In politics he was a conservative, and was a member of the local Orange society. He was a Presbyterian; his pastor being Mr. J. H. McMan. The deceased had a wife, as his position as caretaker of the post office had been the means of his forming a circle of acquaintances and his obligation had made for him many friends.
