Academy of Music

The Congregational company occupied the boards at the Academy on Tuesday evening. Although they were not greeted with a full house the music was produced by half a dozen different kinds of bells, dulcimers, auto-harp, mouth-organ, banjos, violins, guitars, and can think almost every musical instrument one can think of was manipulated by the clever performers with beautiful harmony, and the melody produced on the goblets was very sweet. The recitations by Miss LaDell were well given, and the delicate solos, etc., by the same and the delicate solos, etc., by the same and the delicate solos, etc., by the same.

More Robberies.

Some time between Thursday evening and Friday morning of last week the premises of Messrs. Hurley & Brady were entered by thieves. Entrance was effected by lifting the trap-door in the sidewalk and breaking a window. Nothing, however, was taken but a small amount of change which had been left in the cash drawer. The safe had accidentally been left unlocked and was ransacked by the thieves. The contents of Messrs. Hurley & Brady and Alex. Fisher were also entered, but nothing of any consequence was missed. An attempt was also made to force an entrance into Mr. Campbell's store again, but their efforts were without success. Tuesday night both Campbell's store and Spratt & Killen's were again entered by breaking windows in the rear, through which three entered. In each case the amount taken was very small. It is supposed the burglars are the work of boys, but as yet the guilty ones have not been apprehended.

—The steamer Golden City, Capt. Reynolds, of Lakefield, brought a very large sow of logs up the river for the Rathbun Co. this week.

—Any workman who wishes to buy a house and lot can do so for $70. Don't delay. Apply to MR. ALLAN S. MACDONNELL, barrister.—62.

—Remember the harvest home in the Gough st. church on Sunday and Monday, 31st and 1st Oct. The Rev. Mr. Bartlett is to preach on the Sabbath.

—A receiver has been appointed to wind up the provincial council of Chosen Friends. Assets will be distributed among the certificate holders at once.

—MISS BAIN, Dress and Mantle Maker, is preparing to do Dressmaking in the latest styles. No. 74, Kent-st.—75-4.

—A meeting of the directors and those interested in the provincial ploughing match will be held in the council chamber on Monday, Oct. 2nd, at 2 o'clock. JAMES KEITH, secretary.—77-1.

—Mr. Wright, cheese dealer of Peterboro, shipped a carload from Lindsay Tuesday last. It comprised an outfit of Boboysgood, Northern, Dunford, Star and Reboro factories, nearly 500 boxes.

—The first edition of fifty thousand copies of "The Prince of India's" General Wallace's letter, has been taken in Victoria. It is exhausted ten days after publication. Harper & Brothers have already put a second edition upon the press.

—We have been informed that Mr. John Kelly of the Warder has very generously withdrawn his application for the position of care-taker of the postoffice, which has been offered to the widow of the late carter, Mr. McMan.

—A bald head is very unsightly, and those gentlemen who have no hair on their heads should use Dr. Dorenwend's fine hair restorer. One bottle will do it. He will be at Benson House on Saturday, 7th October.—77-1.

—Rock salt is the best for salting cattle in the field, and is used almost entirely in the United States for that purpose. In its pulverized form, it has no superior for curing pork or salting hay. Hurley & Brady have just received a car-load of it.—68-71.

—Eighty guests registered at the Benson house on Monday and Tuesday of this week. (46 in one day), most of them commercial travellers, who are on their way to the fair. Under the old management, the hotel was not so well patronized. It is now being run by Messrs. Hurley & Brady, and is doing very well.

—On Monday next, Oct. 2nd, the steamer will make its regular trip between Lindsay and Boboysgood. The steamer will leave Boboysgood at eight a. m. each morning, and Lindsay at three p. m. until close of navigation.

—Miss Helen, Sept. 21st.—Rev. Thos. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, of Lindsay, delivered very interesting lectures on Wednesday last at Bethany church, Anson, in the afternoon, and at Zion church, Anson, in the evening, and at Zion church, Anson, in the evening, and at Zion church, Anson, in the evening.

—Wednesday morning last Messrs. George Wallace, Cobourner, John Mackay, Lindsay, Frank Rooney, James Hall, Kilmoun, Miss Eva Brown, Valente, Miss Mabel Elliott, Fenelon Falls, and another whose name we did not learn, left town by the 10 o'clock express to enter the Ballistic Dept. Institute.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Church of England Temperance Society was held Monday evening last. A large number were present. The Rev. Mr. Coghlan presided, and delivered an interesting address. The solos, duets and recitations on the programme were well received by the audience.

—Yesterday morning, as a man named Stewart, an auctioneer from Peterborough, who was engaged by Messrs. Gough Bros. to do the bidding outside their store on Kent-st., a young man named Elliott kicked Stewart's box of advertising cards; Stewart gave chase, quite in the face of the crowd, and was thrown down, and injured, by a very bad fall. Mr. Stewart is a well known and respectable citizen of Peterboro, who was only induced to undertake Messrs. Gough's work after considerable persuasion. A warrant has been issued for Elliott's apprehension and he is thought he will have to pay handsomely for his cowardly act.

—Some time since, when it was proposed to have a court house built near the site of the old court house in Collingwood, Cornwall and other towns quite as pretentious as Lindsay, the matter received very warm support from many quarters in the county. It is now a fact that the townships that have taken place in the past two weeks are without doubt the work of boys who have received a liberal stock of education and are now having it rest in their hands. The townships that have taken place in the past two weeks are without doubt the work of boys who have received a liberal stock of education and are now having it rest in their hands.

—Mr. J. C. McQuinn and wife, of Pasadena, Cal., arrived in town on Wednesday evening, and are the guests of Dr. Herriman.

—Rev. Dr. John Shaw and wife spent last Sunday in town, the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Dr. A. Clark. Although now suffering from the results of overwork, he is again from Dr. Shaw is a vigorous preacher, and very frequently preaches in different parts of the country as well as attending to his duties in connection with the missionary department of the church.

We Would Recommend

you to buy your clothing at GORON Bros., Lindsay's greatest Clothiers.—72.

Collegiate Institute Notes.

—The first football match of the season will be played on the school grounds on Saturday next between the eleven of Lindsay Collegiate Institute and Port Perry high school.

Royal Templar Notes.

—The open meeting held in the lecture room of the Queen's church on Tuesday evening last was a decided success. A very large number of our people turned out to hear the objects of the order explained. The chair was taken at eight o'clock by Rev. Mr. Perry and after singing the hymn "Reveries of the Parthenon," the order was very ably outlined by Mr. Hill, followed by Mr. Kennedy and Rev. Mr. Perry and by a number of our young people, and much praise is due to the efforts of the committee in providing such a fine programme. The tea in providing such a fine programme. The tea in providing such a fine programme.

Hymenae.

Our young friend and former townsmen, Mr. J. E. Billingsley, G. T. R. freight agent at Lindsay, has taken to himself a life partner in the person of Miss Lizzie Anderson of Janetville. The interesting ceremony took place on Wednesday, 29th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Henry Anderson; Rev. C. Hiram Furse officiated. Miss Amy Carver of Millbrook, assisted the bride, while Mr. Harry Anderson, brother of the bride, portended the same service for the groom. After partaking of a beautiful wedding dinner, the happy couple took the evening train for Chicago and the World's fair, followed by a shower of old friends for their future happiness. The bride and groom were accompanied by their numerous friends. The bride is a very attractive young lady, and the groom is a very capable and energetic man. They will be enjoying a long and happy married life.
