LINDSAY, FRIDAY, SEPT. 6, 1895. LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

SEAGRAVE. (Correspondence of This Post.) PERSONAL.—Miss Maggie Forbes, of Caledon, is the guest of Miss M. E. Real.

KIRKFIELD. (Special Correspondence of This Post.) HYFNOMISM.—Mr. J. Ashman, of Eldon, who was in Kirkfield the other night, gave an impromptu exhibition of his mesmeric power which proved him to be a hypnotist of no mean order.

DUNSFORD. (Correspondence of This Post.) IN THE NORTH.—Mr. B. M. Thurston, who, in company with Messrs. F. Willock, E. Gordon and Wm. Edicott, went to Manitoba on the 1st inst.

GOLDWATER. (Correspondence of This Post.) VISITORS.—We have had a great number of visitors amongst us of late, amongst whom was the father of Mrs. D. C. Simpson.

UPHILL. (Correspondence of This Post.) CHURCH NOTES.—The Rev. Mr. McPhail, of Cooper's Falls, preached to a large congregation at Andrew's on Sunday.

OAKWOOD. (Correspondence of This Post.) LAWN SOCIETY.—A most successful lawn social was held in the beautiful grounds of Mr. T. Bowers, senior, on the evening of Tuesday, 29th ult.

Chicago, paid her uncle, Richard Julian, of this town, a pleasant visit recently. Mr. Richard Coak went away to the prairie province last week, and Mr. John James this week (Sept. 3rd) for a trip to the prairie and territories. Good time to both.

POWLES CORNER—FENELON. (Correspondence of This Post.) THE PULPIT.—The Rev. Mr. Steele is gaining the admiration of his congregation here. As the congregation is steadily growing, the church will be obliged to build or provide greater accommodation for those who are compelled to drive to church.

WOODVILLE. (Correspondence of This Post.) BURGARS.—Burgars went through the Queen's hotel here on the 25th ult. A warrant was issued, a tramp was arrested, and let go. They took some beef, some pound cake, and some whisky.

SALEM—MARIPOSA. (Special to This Post.) TEA.—Beautiful weather favored the Presbyterians at Cresswell Sunday and Monday evening, and Sunday and Monday day. On Sabbath the two services were conducted by the Rev. D. D. McDonald, of Eldon.

SEVERAL KILLED—DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADED. Berlin, Sept. 3.—During the illumination on Broadway in honor of Sedan Day yesterday, a grenade shell, supposed to be empty, exploded with great violence, killing several persons and injuring four.

WINDING UP THE MANITOBA HARVEST. Special Crop Reports Show Fall in Some Sections—Thrashing Progressing—Roots Promise a Phenomenal Yield. Portage la Prairie, Man., Sept. 3.—Farmers at Carberry are paying $2 a day and board for harvest hands.

It is ideal thrashing weather and reports that have come from all over the province show that the weather is very favorable everywhere. Special crop reports from along the Manitoba Northwestern to-day are: Yorkton—Frost on several nights this last fortnight has damaged wheat seriously, but will not affect the district, as 80 per cent. of the crop is rye, which will be a fine crop.

WOODVILLE. (Continued.) BACK AGAIN.—Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. exhibited here last Saturday, and was fairly well patronized. GARDEN PARTY.—A garden party was held in Mr. Hugh McDonald's garden on Sunday night. The garden was brilliantly lit up with ordinary and Chinese lanterns.

WOODVILLE. (Continued.) PERSONAL.—Miss Maggie and Kate McDonald are in Toronto at present attending the millinery opening. Mr. J. B. Warner, of Lindsay, was in town for a few hours on Monday.
