Mr. D. McArthur Has Spent Twenty Years There.

HE HAS JUST REACHED WINNIPE

Has Made a Fortune, But Intends Coing Back in the Spring-Fears Some People Will Suffer-Claims Which Averaged Two Thousand Bollars a Day.

Winnipeg, Aug. 24.- (Special.) -D. McArthur, who has spent twenty years in the Yukon country, and left there on June 23, arrived in the city this morning. He brings a sufficient sum with him to maintain him the rest of his life, but will return in the spring to the Klondike. He knew of claims averaging over $2000 a day. Speaking of the crowds now going into the camps Mr. McArthur is apprehensive that there will be a scarcity of food later in the winter, and when it will be immad haste to get into the country many are going poorly provided with supplies. Mr. McArthur was emphatic in his opinion as to the recent changes of the mining regulations, and is convinced that as soon as the authorities realize the conditions of the country they will restore many of the old regulations. The change that meets with the greatest opposition is that reducing the width of claims. One hundred feet, he says, is too limited to control syster for "washing," and too narrow to permit

AN AWFUL DAY'S WORK

None But Mardy Men Need Try the Klondike by Way of the Chilkoot Pass.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 24.-Robert Moncrieff, a member of the last Selkirk party destined for Klondike, who sailed from Victoria, B.C., on July 26, writing from Sheep Camp, on the Chilkoot Pass, on Aug. 5, says: "We arrived here last night, after the hardest day's work I have ever done. We packed about 200 miles each from the foot of the canyon, which is about six miles, over one of the worst roads in the world. We started at six o'clock in the morning, and made one trip and got back to where we started at one p.m., and then back again with the other hundred pounds, arriving at halfpast seven. We expect to reach Lake Lindeman in four days. That will be seven days across the pass with 200 pounds each. Billy Watters, a handy and experienced packer in other parts of Canada, says he would not carry the rest of the stuff over for $100 per pound. So you may know how bad it is. We are paying Indians 22 cents per over, and perhaps we will not be able to get them even at that. It has been raining here for four days. Many peo-He are selling their outfits, because they cannot get it over the pass. About March 15 is the time to sart, when the stuff can be taken in on sleds. We expect to reach Dawson City by September 1. Excepting for the very hardiest men the trip via the route we came is killing."

Moncrieff is known as a thoroughly reliable man, and the news received from there already should be a warning to all. It is the belief in Winnipeg that the men leaving via Edmonton will not see the Klondike till away on Miners Destroyed a Bridge in Order to Have it Rebuilt in Better Shape.

Seattle. Wash., Aug. 24.-With the arrival of the steamer Rosalie from Skaguay and Dyea comes the news that the town organization of Skaguay, under the leadership of A. J. McKinney, has taken definite action to open the trail. On the arrival of the collier Williamette none of the passengers were allowed to take their baggage until the entire cargo had been placed high and dry on the beach. then the individual holdings were segminers' meeting was convened, at which it was decided to declare the trail closed. The miners put their action into immediate effect by tearing out several crosspieces of the bridge across the Skaguay River. Then about 700 citizens went to work on the trail, and the following day their number was in creased to 1000. They had about 50 pounds of giant powder and a small quantity of dynamite and expected in four days after the sailing of the Rosalie to re-open the trail in a greatly improved condition. The dangerous places where many horses have been lost will Seugog River, the South half of Lot 8, in the 4th | be fixed up with scantling, and the action will result in many prospectors getting through to the mines who would otherwise have been blocked all winter. Stopping the Fools. Seattle, Wash., Aug. 24,-The schooner Moonlight was stopped as she was preparing to leave the harbor in tow of the tug Coleman. She had a big deck load of freight listed to port, and ie her hold were sixty passengers whom Inspector Brandt considered, under the ircumstances, had little chance of ever seeing the Yukon. The inspector orlered the deck load removed and suitable provision made for the safety of the passengers. Strict regulations will be enforced to prevent the overcrowding of vessels leaving for the north. Skaguay, Alaska, Aug. 17, via Seattle, Wash., Aug. 25.-A civil engineer of Juneau, C. E. Garthside, and six assistants are now surveying the White Pass in the interest of an English syndicate, which intends to run a railroad from Skaguay, the entrance to the pass, to Taku Arm, a distance of 68 miles, and eventually to the Hootalinqua River, 110 miles, E. A. Bellinghurst of Victoria is one of the principal promoters of the scheme. The highest altitude of the road will be at the summit of the White Pass, 2600 feet. The summit is about 20 miles from Skaguay. He should be provided with money enough to take care of himself until spring. The weather has continued favorable for those on the trail and altogether it has been an exceptionally fine season for outdoor operations and a comparatively mild winter is expected.

Ryan, one of the special correspondents of the Associated Press en route to the Yukon gold fields, writes from St. Michael's, under date of Aug. 15, to the effect that there is grave danger of a famine on the Klondike this winter. According to all reports received from the upper country, it will be impossible to land sufficient food at Dawson City to support the population already dependent upon that base of supplies. R. T. Lyng local agent of the Alaskan Commercial Company at St. Michael's, declares that there are already over two thousand idle men in Dawson, and new parties are arriving every day via Chilkoot Pass, while the total amount of freight landed there this year will not exceed four thousand tons, of which not more than three-fourths is provisions. Miners returning from Klondike, who left there in July, report that the food was running very low then, and it was disposed of as fast as discharged from the steamers. Old-timers realize the situation and predict distress and death as a result of the Klondike cruze. William Ogilvie, Dominion Land Surveyor, who has been making topo-

Washington Not Surpr sed. Washington, D. C., Aug. 25 .- The LSassination of President Borda of Uruguay was not altogether a surprise to officials here who have watched the recent outbreaks in Uruguay. This is the second attempt on the President's life, the former being made by a crazy student named Revecca. The last mail ad vices received here showed that the revolution had broken out afresh, the peace delegates from the insurgents havng given up the hope of securing peace, and withdrawn to the Argentine Republic. Further agitation was occasioned by the reports that the Government receipts had shrunk $1,600,000 during the year as a result of the revolu-Times received here states that the President remained away from the state house in evident fear of his life. At the same time a "colorado," or junta of those seeking to overthrow the Government, had established active operations at the capital. The assassination of the President will doubtless bring the country to a revolutionary crisis, which has long been impending. The revolution thus far has been confined to the country districts, where several extensive engagements had been fought, the Government forces securing the ad

TORONTO MAN DROWNED J. Chapman, Jr., Lost His Life and M. B. Jackson, Jr., Mad a Narrow Escape While Bathing.

Sutton, Ont., Aug. 25 .- A sad accident occurred to-day at the Sand Islands, off the southeast corner of Georgina Island, Lake Simcoe. Messrs. George A. Chapman, fr., and M. B. Jackson, jr., of Toronto, who have been visiting at Jackson's Point since Saturday, were bathing off a sailboat. Mr. Chapman exclaimed that he was seized with cramps, Mr. Jackson endeavored to swim t ohim, but the heavy see running proved too strong for him, and he then turned and, reaching the boat, tried to hoist the sail and reach his friend. Unfortunately, the boat capsized, throwing Mr. Jackson into the water. Some Indians, whose attention in some way had been called, then came out and righted the boat and picked up Mr. Jackson, but by this time all trace of Mr. Chapman had disappeared-The body has not at the time of writing been recovered. Young Mr. Jackson, who was completely exhausted, was taken back by the Indians to his boarding house on the mainland,

Toronto, Aug. 26. The young man mentioned in the above despatch as being drowned is an only son of Mr. George A. Chapman, formerly manager of the Belle Ewart Ice Company, who resides at 46 Mapleavenue, Rosedale. He and Mr. Jackson, who also lives in Rosedale, left last Saturday for Jackson's Point, intending to return on Tuesday, but the drowned young man telegraphed his father that he did not feel well and would remain at Jackson's Point until Thursday. His father was apprised of the sad accident about 10 o'clock last night, and at once made arrangements to leave this morning for the scene of the accident with cross the mountains instead. DEARNESS OF BREAD

Is a Matter That is at Present Causing Uncasiness in England.

London, Aug. 25,-Prospective dearness in the price of bread is causing uneasiness here. Already some of the London bakers have put on an extra half-penny a loaf, and it is expected the rest will quickly follow their example. Mark Lane has advanced in sympathy with New York, and millers will advance prices with Mark Lane, and the local bakers with the millers. The only Londoner who will suffer is the bread consumer, and that, of course, meaus everybody in London. On Exchange yesterday wheat was from 5d to 6d dearer than a week ago, and the probabilities pointed to no immediate fall. Flour was 4d dearer on the week. The official report, which is not given to extravagant flights of fancy, describes the market as "excited." Such a phrase from such a source is significant. The coru market at Liverpool Tues day was marked by great excitement, values rapidly moving upward. Eight shillings per 100 pounds was passed during the session. American cable grams of a disappointing character caused a slight reaction towards the close, but the final rates showed a very substantial rise on the day for spot parcels; for moderate quantities changing hands a further advance of from 3d to 4d per cental was established. Up to Saturday the stocks in warehouse at Liverpool showed a decrease of 7000

led in the betting with her stable mates, Gibraltar and The Hueguenot. As the stable was the favorite in the race, the ring suffered. The other unexpected thing was the running of Lydian, who got the place. The track was in anything but satisfactory condition, the heavy rains of last night and this morning having turned it into soft mud, which had dried out sufficiently to make the going heavy and sticky when the race was run. Not more than 12,000 were present when the bugle called the 18 starters for the richest stake of the year to the post. It was not long before they were on their way up past the grand stand, the Thompson trio showing the way, the Daly pair coming next, the Leene pair next, and the others in their order on the card. Then there was a short talk to the jockeys by the starter, and they were lined up for the journey. it was a fine start for all but one, Previous being left standing still in the first break, to the great surprise of his owner and most of the old race-goers. Grand Sachem and Amazonian were quickest on their feet, with Uriel and Cock Robin close up. L'Alouette next, and the others not far away. Nearly every one of the youngsters was in his stride and there was little shifting of positions as the lot swept down the chute toward the main track. So close together were they at the first furlong that a dozen were not more than heads apart. At the quarter pole the line of the advancing racers was almost like that of a cavairy charge. They rushed past the post with Cock Robin, L'Alouette, Gibraltar, Gala Day, Howland, Uriel, Plaudit and Lydian heads apart, and short ones at that, in the front rank, while the others were almost lapped upon them in the second col Around the turn they rushed and were but a quarter from home and still Cock Robin led, but Martin was urging him and he was beginning to falter. Right at his throat was L'Alouette, hanging on much better than her owner had any idea she could, and right at her tall was Gibraitar's head, and Gala Day was pegging along at his heels, but the boys were driving the colts, while Clawson was sitting still waiting for the final rush, which was bound to come. Sloane dug his heels into Uriel's side and he went past the others like a flash, and poked his nose into first place, while his stable companion, Cock Robin, with his bolt shot, fell back rapidly to the rear. Clawson got to work at once to ride a finish with Sloane. Uriel's effort was his last, for a furlong from home Clawson had got him and was drawing away, when a new competitor loomed up in the despised outsider, Lydian, who had come from the rear under the vigorous wrging of Thorpe, and with Sloane on Uriel a head behind, was making a bold bid for the stakes. The distance was a little too short, however, and as L'Alouette passed the wire, Lydian was at her tall, a head in front of Uriel, who was a head in front of Plaudit, while the others were strung out through a sixteenth of a mile.
