Another September Wedding. The matrimonial wave has struck town with force, and a number of Lindsay's fair daughters and noble sons are launching out on the barque of life together. A Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, in the presence of a few of the immediate friends of the contracting parties, Mr. J. James Daniel, of the Sylvester Bros., of Gt. George, acted as officiant. The bride, Miss Christina Moynes, at the residence of her father, Mr. T. C. Moynes, 175 Kent-st., Rev. Thos. Manning, B.A., pastor of the Cambridge-st. Methodist church, performed the ceremony. The bride, who looked charming, was very prettily attired in cream, with chiffon and silk lace trimming, and was assisted by Miss Lela Staples, handsomely attired in cream creponne, silk lace trimming. The groom's assistant was his brother, Mr. Chas. Daniel. After the ceremony the wedding supper was partaken of. The happy party left by the 6 o'clock train on a trip to Esch. They had a long, happy and prosperous life, in which we are sure their many friends heartily join.

A Very Pretty Wedding. At 5 o'clock Thursday morning, at the Cambridge-st. Methodist church, there was enacted an event which changes the course of two young lives—Miss Vins L. Earle, of Lindsay, was united in marriage to Mr. J. J. Bismarck, of Bradford. The bride looked smart in her going-away gown, and entered the church on the arm of her brother, Mr. W. E. Earle, of St. Johns, N. B. Miss Beatrice Thompson, Bradford, an intimate friend of the bride, was maid of honor, while Miss Josey Staples, of Lindsay, was bridesmaid. The bridesmaids wore beautiful costumes of blue crepe cloth and large picture hats to match. Dr. L. W. Campbell, of Bradford, acted as groomsmen. The bridesmaids were Miss Beatrice Thompson, and Mr. W. Crawford, of Lindsay. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thos. Manning, assisted by Rev. M. P. Talling, of St. James Presbyterian church. Only invited guests were admitted to the church. The happy couple left, under showers of sweet peas and roses, on the 9.15 train for the Monday afternoon, where their honeymoon will be spent.

Mullett, who has spent the summer in some of the leading fair stores in Chicago and New York, has decided to engage in business here in Lindsay, and has opened his store in the stand next to Mr. J. H. Southern's real estate office, opposite the school teacher, Mr. McFadyen, and will no doubt visit that section when called upon so to do. -Michael Basso, Italian interpreter, and a couple of his countrymen, were in town Tuesday afternoon. They were in town on the train and in goal here charged with attempted rape. Costino, being very delirious, was taken to the hospital. We understand, will apply to the high court for a bail order. -Thieves gained entrance to the flour and feed room in the rear of Hurley & Brady's store last evening by breaking a large pane of glass and forcing the door open. They stole a quantity of flour and feed, and the object of the parties was to gain admission to the store, but the fastenings on the inner door were too stout to be tampered with. -The choir of the Cambridge-st. Methodist church held a social in the church parlors last Friday. A very enjoyable time was spent by those present. A short musical program was rendered, after which refreshments were served, and informal talks were given to choir members and plans for the winter. All were unanimous in their purpose to make the work of the choir of a very interesting and profitable one. -A number of the young people interested in music attended the meeting last Thursday at Prof. Calk's rooms for the purpose of organizing a choir society. The plans for the fall term were laid and organization was effected. The election of officers and first practice will take place next Thursday evening. The well-known and popular cantata, "David, the Shepherd Boy," will be taken up should the necessary talent be secured, and the interest evinced so far indicates progress in that line. -Peterboro Review: The Children's Aid Society had another case reported to it Wednesday. It is a story of the ill-treatment of a Home girl by an Oshawa farmer. The girl was taken to the hospital, and was taken to the home of a kind friend, who reported the case to the society. The girl says she was cruelly treated, and she deserted home and was driven away. She was abused time and again, and on several occasions received painful punishment from a black snake whip. During her residence at the place she never slept on a bed, but on a straw mat on the floor. The girl comes from a Home in Montreal.

Time and again we have been complimented by our country friends upon the excellence of the serial stories presented from time to time in The Weekly Post. We recognize that a good story is highly appreciated in the family circle, and in the "Reading Room," from the pen of that clever and famous author, Dr. A. Conan Doyle, we feel that all both young and old will take a keen and absorbing delight. A large instalment of this popular new story appears in this issue, and four new columns will be given weekly. We cordially invite our friends to send their neighbors and endeavor to induce them to subscribe in order to get this grand story in its entirety.
