FOWLES' CORNER.

(Correspondence to The Post.)
Mr. John M. Marshall and Mr. J. Palmer purchased a 12 horse-power Waterloo threshing machine a few years ago, and they have recently sold it to some parties near Onemose. Steam power has displaced horse-power at an extent that it would take about one hundred years to pay for a h. p. machine if a person would depend on threshing to do it.
$15 will buy a good second-hand Bi-cycle and J. A. Williamson's harness shop, Kent-st., Lindsay—w.

SCOTCH LINE.

(Correspondence to The Post.)
The ladies of the Scotch Line Baptist church gave a very successful lawn social Thursday evening, Aug. 31st, at the home of Deacon Douglas Robertson, Scotch Line, South Verulam. Though a storm was brewing a very large number were present. The lighted with Chinese lanterns and other lights, the tables were well served with dainties, while an excellent program well rendered by local and outside talent, entertained the evening. Representatives from Chicago, Halifax, Toronto, Lindsay, Resboro, Bobcaygeon, and other places, who were present, expressed themselves as able to carry home with them memories of one of the most pleasant evenings they have spent this summer. The annual recurrence of this event will be looked forward to by all with eager anticipation.

GELBRIE.

(Correspondence to The Post.)
The harvesting is nearly done and we expect next to be into the threshing season. It is like that year for "nasty dusty threshers" and we get something good to eat.
Miss Eva Newall left our town on Monday to attend Model School in Gordon this term.
Mr. Howard Gainer, of Minden, was a guest at Mr. Wm. Heron's last Sunday.
We are pleased to see Mrs. Wm. Heron a ankle is recovered sufficiently to allow her to be out again.
Miss Henderson, from the Island, is visiting at Mr. John Sedgwick's this last week.
Miss Maggie Bowry, is suffering from congestion of the lungs. We trust she will soon be better.
Mr. Jim Watson, of Kinnouit, is working on the section at the Dutch Line now.
Misses Ella and Essie McKelvin returned to their schools on Monday afternoon Saturday, Sunday and Monday with their parents.
Mr. Root, Ritchie spent Sunday at home here, and went back to Minden in the evening. His sister, Mrs. A. B. Brandon, accompanied him part way back on her bike.

(Correspondence to The Post.)
Anew post office has been opened here, which is much more convenient for the settlers than having to go to Gooderham as formerly. Mr. J. J. Hadley has the mail contract and will distribute it every Saturday evening at his residence.

A very pretty wedding took place on August 30th, the contracting parties being Mr. Wm. Munroe and Miss Laura Smiley, both of this place. The ceremony was performed at Essenville church, after which the happy couple, together with a number of invited guests, returned to Mr. Smiley's residence where a sumptuous supper was served and a pleasant evening spent in dancing and other games.

PLEASANT POINT.
(Correspondence to The Post.)
That the camping season is almost over may be judged by the deserted condition of the Point at present. Mr. Alex. McCrimmon and family, of Lindsay, and Mr. R. Morgan, who have been here for the last two weeks, broke up camp on Monday. They will be missed.

Perhaps the happiest man in this vicinity on Saturday last was Mr. J. D. McFadyen. One might wonder at that, as the time for his departure from our midst for a season had almost come. However, on investigation, the cause of the joy was found to be an excellent catch made by him that afternoon. What our trolling large long was hooked on to his line. The struggle was short and the fish was soon in safe quarters. It weighed over fifteen pounds.

COBOCKONK.
(Correspondence to The Post.)
On Monday, of last week, Mrs. Wm. Wellwood was seriously hurt in a runaway accident. Mr. Arthur Wellwood drove a Victoria Road, and they reached their destination Mr. Wellwood alighted to open the gate to allow the rig to pass through a throng of horses which were very spirited. Mrs. Wellwood from the buggy, the fall proved a serious one for her, as she received several cuts about the head and face as well as severe bruises about the body and legs. On the following Tuesday Mr. Wellwood and Mr. F. Watson, accompanied by Mrs. Watson and Mrs. J. Phillips, were returning to Victoria Road, whether they had gone to visit Mrs. Wellwood, who team ran away, and breaking from the carriage driver, Mr. Watson over the dashboard and shaking him up more than was necessary for his comfort. The team then made good time in reaching here, and they crossed the bridge in the opposite direction. The tongue of the wagon drawn by the latter team penetrated as far as the neck of the driver, who was still living and may recover.

MANILLA.
(Special to The Post.)
Our Post correspondent seems of late to have fallen into the erroneous idea that "any old thing will do" as long as we send it often enough of course, this small talk, which weekly appears as Manilla news is interesting to some, but personals are the least important of news items and should not be allowed to crowd the interesting matter. We don't presume for one moment to dictate how this valuable journal should be run, but as a citizen and subscriber of the Post we feel called upon to tell our correspondent what the citizens of Manilla expect. A newspaper correspondent is responsible to his or her fellow citizen for the impression of the village and its citizens, his news reports leave on the minds of distant readers. His news letters should contain all the happenings of general interest. Personals and church notes if sent at all, should be complete and impartial, while words of encouragement and reproof of all things tending to improve or degrade the village should not be omitted. Wake up, oh correspondent, wake up.

LITTLE BRITAIN.
(Correspondence to The Post.)
The A. O. U. W. picnic and concert held in this village last Wednesday was a grand success, and a more favorable day could not have been selected for such an event. Early in the afternoon about 500 people assembled at the park adjoining Mrs. White's side of the grove to witness the various athletic sports. The citizens from Oakwood and Little Britain turned out in great numbers; Valencia, Fingerbow, Port Hoover, Creswell, Manilla, Sona, Sunderland, Cannington and Lindsay were hotly contested and many of the finishes close and exciting. The baseball match between Little Britain and Manilla was a great drawing card, and the spectators witnessed a good, snappy game. Refreshments were served in abundance on the grounds and the concert held in the evening at Riverside hall was a gratifying success. Mr. W. E. Ramsay, of Toronto, so well and favorably known here, and his humorous singing was especially clever, and quite sustaining to the old time record. The recitation by Miss Eva Newall, of the "Auld Lang Syne" and Miss Sarah Reazin on the violin and autoharp were exceedingly well rendered, while Mr. Maion and Miss Sellers made a good hit with a piano and violin recitation. Frank Rusland gave a recitation in every respect. There are bright specialties and everything is clean, clear and up-to-date. The plan will open to-morrow at Porter's bookstore. Usual prices—d.

were the rules of '89, and the spectators rose in their wrath and told him so. But some of the players used our boys well, especially the third baseman. Thanks old boy, we probably ought to excuse the umpire. He was simply loyal. He did not want to see the money go to a foreign land. It was not his fault for in his money the root of all evil!

BETHANY.
(Correspondence to The Post.)
Mr. Henry Griffin, for several years junior salesman in T. Ivory & Co.'s general store, where he has been morning for some time, has secured a much better position. Harry will be greatly missed in the village as he has always been a good worker, both in his own and in the matters of his many friends.

VICTORIA ROAD.
(Correspondence to The Post.)
Dr. J. Grant has re-modelled his office on Richmond-st. We understand that it is the Doctor's intention to open out a first-class drug store. Mr. Barkley, of Bexley, had his foot badly injured on Tuesday last by catching in a threshing machine.

HEXLEY.
(Correspondence to The Post.)
All have gone to the golden grain, and the order of the day is now threshing. Mr. J. Follitt, of Kirkfield, took charge of the services here Sunday evening.

THE STORE THAT SETS THE PACE.
For the NEXT THREE WEEKS we will hold
The Biggest Booming Bargain Sale ever organized in town!

We will sell our Summer Stock of Clothing and Furnishings, Hats, Caps, etc., at prices that no other firm on earth can sell them. Come what will, we are determined to open the fall season and the fall fair trade with a COMPLETE CLEARANCE OF ALL SUMMER WEARABLES.

It sometimes pays to lose. The amputation of a foot will often save a leg. A loss accepted now on Summer Suits, Hats and Furnishings. Large though it is, it may save a greater. So a dollar bill buys $2.00 worth during the next three weeks at GOUGH'S. Remember that! We haven't bought a hurried little job lot of fly specked stuff—"just for a flyer"—but we offer startling and stunning values all over our store of goods of most wanted kinds.

No Time Like The Present! No Place Like GOUGH'S!

Prices touch bottom and all for a purpose. Our goods are made and trimmed properly and every purchaser is assured of satisfaction or "money back." It takes experience to buy and the "know-how" to sell clothing properly.

On account of the unequalled advantage possessed by our syndicate in the markets, we can easily discount regular merchants as well as mushroom grown dealers and fakirs who resort to tricks to lure the unsuspecting. We purpose to make the next three weeks Eclipse all previous or probable inducements.

A TRUMP CARD.
Hon. Mr. Fielding Delivers a Masterly Address at Parrboro, N.S., Before Five Thousand People.

Parrboro, N.S., Sept. 6.—Parrboro—a picturesque town at the head waters of the beautiful basin of Minas—was the scene on Monday of a Liberal demonstration, and one almost unparalleled in the history of Cumberland. It was a tribute to the young and brilliant member, Hance J. Logan, who wrested this great county from the grasp of the Tories. Five thousand people from all parts of the county attended the gathering, which was marked by enthusiasm unprecedented in the old stamping ground of Sir Charles Tupper. Parrboro was for many years a stronghold of the Conservative leader, and stood by him and his party with fidelity until Mr. Logan's victory in 1896. This magnificent meeting is an earnest assurance that the old spell is forever broken, and that Cumberland will be again found in the Liberal column after the next election. Mr. Logan's address was a great oration and highly complimented by the speakers, who made masterly addresses in exposition of the Liberal policy. Among the speakers were: Premier Murray of Nova Scotia; Premier Emmerson of New Brunswick; Messrs. McClure, M.P.P.; E. M. MacDonald, M.P.P.; of Pictou; C. W. Robinson, M.P.P. of Westmorland; T. R. Black, M.P.P. of Cumberland, and W. T. Pipes, M.L.C.

PETERBORO CHEESE BOARD.
4015 Boxes Boarded Wednesday. Resignation of Vice-President.

The Peterboro cheese board met on Wednesday morning, after two weeks adjournment, when 4015 boxes were boarded by 39 factories. Before the bidding commenced the president, Mr. Drummond, stated that he had received a communication from Mr. George Stewart, vice-president of the board, resigning his position after receiving the prize list, made the final arrangements for the holding of the exhibition here on the 26th. inst.

Academy of Music.
In A. Q. Scammon's "The Sleeping City," which comes to the Academy of Music next Monday evening, is presented the latest exposition of New York life. It is a happy blending of comedy and melodrama, an undeniably entertaining combination. The story is one of high dramatic effect and unflagging interest, interspersed with ludicrous incidents of city character. The scenes are realistic and the big features are a thrilling escape from Sing Sing prison, and a burning asylum, which necessitate elaborate stage effects. The company presenting the play is said to be first-class in every respect. There are bright specialties and everything is clean, clear and up-to-date. The plan will open to-morrow at Porter's bookstore. Usual prices—d.
