(Correspondence to The Post.) It is with deep regret that we are called to announce the sudden death of Mrs. R. E. Byers, of th s place. Deceased was going to milk with a pail on her arm when she collapsed, and in less than ten m'nutes was a corpse. Heart trouble was the cause. She was 52 years of age, and was highly respected by every one. She leaves a husband and one child to mourn their great loss. Her remains were interred in Graham's semetery on Sunday, the funeral being one of the largest that has ever passed through here. Bethany is noted for its poor side-

PARDON WAS SIGNED TUESDAY.

The Pardon of the French Government Is "In Principle"-What the Qualifying Phrase Means-The News Was Received Calmly-M. Scheurer-Kestner, Earliest Champion of Dreyfus, Dead.

London, Sept. 20 .- The Rennes correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, wiring at 9 o'clock last evening, says: "There is reason to believe that Dreyfus is already out of prison and that, with his wife, he will probably leave Rennes to-night." Dreyfus Pardon.

Paris, Sept. 20 .- The Council of Ministers yesterday decided to pardon Drevius in principle. The pardon will take effect in a few days. Dreyfus has relinquished his appeal for a reversal of the judgment of the courtmartial.

What "In Principle" Mcans.

"In principle" is an idion sometimes used in semi-official announcements of forthcoming action. It seems to have but slight bearing on the matter, except, perhaps, that it implies the fulfilment of various formalities before the pardon is actually issued, thereby qualifying the announcement of the pardon with slight tentativeness. It is not known yet whether the pardon includes aumes-

People Took It Calmly. The announcement that Dreyfus was to be pardoned had already been discounted by predictions, and there was absolutely no excitement displayed anywhere along the boulevards when the newsboys run along at about 3.15 p.m., with the first editions containing the statement that the Cabinet had decided to pardon Dreyfus. The newspapers sold quickly, but there was no rush for them upon the part of the Loulevardiers. Those who bought there pers sat down in front of the cafes and read the announcement without comment. Everyone expected it, and the decision met with no opposition. The Droits de l'Homme (Rights of Man), the Socialist organ, said: "Our task remains the same after as before the liberation of Dreyfus, to continue the campaign against all those who are responsible for the lamentable affair."

M. Auguste Scheurer-Kestner. former vice-president of the French Senate, and great champion of the cause of Dreyfus, was born Feb. 11. 1833, at Mulhouse, Alsace, from which place the Dreyfus family also hailed. He was president of the Chemical Society of Paris, and was a prominent member of other societies. He was political director of The Republique Française from 1879 to 1884, and was a Republican in politics. He took a great interest in the improvement of the working classes, and in 1865 founded a cooperative society for their benefit. His republican ideas in 1867 caused him to be sentenced to four months' imprisonment and to 2000 francs fine. He was elected to the National Assembly in 1871, and in 1875 he was first elected to the Senate, of which he afterwards became one of the secretaries, and eventually one of the vice-presidents. He was defeated for re-election as vice-president Jan. 13, 1898. He has written extensively on chemistry.

Up to 6 o'clock last evening the tmost calm prevailed throughout Paris. The decision of the Cabinet to pardon Dreyfus seemed to have passed unnoticed. The only remark heard was, "We expected it."

The official announcement was made in the form cabled to the Associated Press, in order to avoid demonstrations of any kind at Rennes and in Paris. The Celebrated Prisoner Values His Character.

WILL NOT REST UNTIL CLEARED.

The Pardoned Prisoner of Renne Left That Town and Passed Through Nantes on His Way Nice-He May Come to America-A Great

Rennes, France, Sept. 20 .- Captain Aifred Dreyfus at 3 o'clock this morning left th prison here in which he had been confined since his return from the Isle du Diable, and proceeded to Vern, where he took a train bound for Nantes. His departure was completely unnoticed M. Vigue, the chief of the secret service, and the Prefect, M. Dureault, arrived at the prison after midnight bringing the Minster of War's order for the release of Dreyfus. The latter walked from the prison to the Boulevard Laenne, where he entered a waiting carriage and was driven to the Vern Station, outside the town, Mathleu Dreyfus met him at the train and accompanied hinf to Nantes. While this dramatic turn in the Dreyfus drama was taking place, all Rennes slept, and the departure of the famous prisoner of Devil's Island was no more noticed than that of an ordinary traveler.

Arrival at Nantes, Nantes, Sept. 20 .- Dreyfus arrived here this morning from Rennes, accompanied by his brother, M. Mathieu Dreyfus, the Chies of the Secret Police, M. Vigeur, and one policeman. The party traveled as ordin-ary passengers. The train reached the station at 8.17 a.m. The Dreyfus brothers alighted on the platform first, followed by M. Vigeur, who inquired if they could have a private room. A waiter replying in the affirmative, the brothers entered a room and ordered two glasses of milk, while M. Vigeur and the policeman remained out-side the public bar. Inquiry was then made concerning the Bordesux express train, which they were informed left at 8.58 a.m. All four then entered a firstclass compartment, in which there were already other passengers. It was intended by thus refraining from any attempt to secure privacy to avoid exciting curiosity, and this apparently succeeded. M. Vigeur and the policeman only went as far as the first stop, Verton, whence they reto Nantes to catch p.m. express for Paris, leaving the brothers to continue their journey alone. It is believed the Dreyfuses alighted at an intermediate station to take a fresh start in an unknown direction. Dreyfus Not Yet Satisfied.

Paris, Sept. 20.—The Aurore will to-morrow publish the following declaration from former Captain Dreyfus : "The Government of the Republic has given me my liberty. But liberty is nothing to me without honor. SIR WILFRID ON FARMING.

The Premier Opens the West Middleses Fair at Strathroy- 8,000 People Present-A Hopeful Speech.

Strathroy, Sept. 20 .- In the presence of 8000 of the people of Middlesex yesterday afternoon Sir Wilfrid Laurier formally opened the fall Fair. His audience included men of both political parties, who united in cheering enthusiastically the hopeful, confident, inspiring prophecies of vastly increased commercial greatness for Canada uttered by this man who of all men is best able to estimate our future prosperity and least likely to overstate it. "Sweep our competitors in agricultural products from the markets of Great Britain. and let Canada lead in all things, as trict, A. Smith, Peterporo; Quebec Province, she does in cheese and wheat," was time required to accomplish this. He spoke for 25 minutes, making no re> ference to political subjects. Hon. Geo. W. Ross spoke for a still shorter time, and was received with flattering cordiality by the people of Middlesex, who have watched his career for so many years. Strathroy's Fair is worthy of a visit from the Premier of the country. It is representative of Middlesex, Middlesex is representative of Ontario, and what more is there to be said? The Premier and Mr. Ross arrived > on the morning train, and were met at the station by an enormous concourse of people, who cheered them lustily as they were driven through the streets with a mounted escort and an enthusiastic brass band. After this demonstration the crowd proceeded to the Fair grounds and spent a couple of hours viewing the exhibits. At 3 o'clock a double line of horsemen entered the grounds, followed by a band, and the waiting crowd raised cheer after cheer as the carriage containing the Premier, together with Hon. Geo. W. Ross, Mr. Gough, President of the association, and Mr. Evans, the Secretary, drove in. As the carriage drew up opposite the temporary platform, opposite the grand stand, which, by the way, was filled with ladies, hundreds of people pressed forward to shake hands with the Premier, who grasped as many hands as he could reach, and made his way to the platform. On the platform with him were Hon. Geo. W. Ross, Mr. W. S. Calvert, M.P., Dr. Johnson, M.P. Messrs. M. McGugan, M.P.; John Fraser, M.P., Lambton; H. Avery, Mayor of Strathroy; H. Hardy, Warden; Sheriff Cameron of London, the officers of the Agricultural Society, Mr. Geo. Campbell, who opposed Hon. Mr. Ross in the last election, and others. Mr. Henry Gough, President of the Fair Association, introduced Sir Wilfrid to the audience in a brief speech that was frequently applauded. The address to which Sir Wilfrid made his eloquent and apt reply was read by Mr. Calvert, M.P. for West Mid-DIED AT 106 St. Catharines, Ont., Sept. 20 .- Without
