-News has been received of the complete overthrow of the de facto govern-Raged in battle by the forces of Gen. Crespo, some 14,000 to 15,000 strong, and were atterly routed. The place where the battle becurred was at San Pedro, an out-of-the way yillage. It was a hot and bloody battle, but of short duration. The discontented soldiers of the government army were no match for the trained veterans of the gallant warrior Crespo. His generals made desperate efforts to rally their men, but it was a hopeless task. Dismayed by the terrible onslaught of the enemy they wavered and fied after the battle had been resing only a short time. The Crespoists fallowed jup their advantage, using guns
